P R E F A C E.

Since the last Edition of the Foreign Office List :—

Sir Ralph Paget, Envoy, &c., at Bangkok, has been appointed Minister Resident at Munich ; Mr. M. de C. Findlay has been promoted to be Envoy, &c., at Sofia ; and Mr. Arthur Peel to be Envoy, &c., at Bangkok.

Mr. A. C. Grant Duff, Minister Resident at Havana, has been transferred to Dresden ; and Mr. Stephen Leech has been promoted to be Minister Resident at Havana.

The Hon. W. G. Thesiger has been promoted to be Consul-General at Adis Ababa, with the local rank of Envoy, &c.

Mr. Henry H. D. Beaumont (now Chargé d'Affaires at Cettinje), Mr. Herbert G. N. Dering, and the Hon. Theo. Russell have been appointed Councillors of Embassy in the Diplomatic Service.

Mr. Basil Cave, Agent and Consul-General at Zanzibar, has been appointed Consul-General at Algiers ; and the following Consuls-General have been transferred to other posts :—Mr. Alexander Finn, from Chicago to Valparaiso ; Mr. A. C. Wratislaw, from Tabreez to Crete ; Major J. G. Baldwin, from Dakar to Monrovia ; Mr. C. Braithwaite Wallis, from Monrovia to Dakar ; Mr. H. A. C. Bonar, from Kobé to Seoul ; Mr. R. de B. M. Layard, from Manila to Kobé ; and Mr. Donald A. Cameron, from Port Said to Alexandria. Mr. Horace D. Nugent has been promoted to be Consul-General at Chicago ; Mr. Harry Boyle, to be Consul-General at Berlin ; Mr. A. E. Wileman, to be Consul-General at Manila ; and Mr. E. C. Blech, to be Consul-General at Port Said.

The following have retired :—

Sir Mortimer Durand, late Ambassador at Washington ; Sir G. F. Bonham, Envoy, &c., at Berne ; Sir J. L. Harrington, Envoy, &c., at Adis Ababa ; Mr. Frank J. S. Hay Newton, Consul-General at Algiers ; Mr. Henry Cockburn, Consul-General in Corea ; Mr. E. B. Gould, Consul-General at Alexandria ; and Dr. Paul von Schwabach, Consul-General at Berlin.

The Obituary includes the names of :—

The first Marquess of Ripon, Member of the Washington High Commission of 1871 ; Earl Percy, formerly Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs ; Sir Edmund Monson, formerly Ambassador at Vienna and Paris ; Mr. William Henry Wylde, formerly a Senior Clerk in the Foreign Office and Superintendent of the Commercial and Consular Department ; Sir Arthur Cowell-Stepney, formerly an Assistant Clerk in the Foreign Office ; Sir Ralph Moor, formerly Commissioner and Consul-General in the Niger Coast Protectorate ; and Mr. J. J. Olding, Manager of the Printing Establishment at the Foreign Office since January, 1853.

Sir Spenser St. John, formerly Minister in Hayti, Peru, Mexico, and Sweden, and Sir J. Hayes Sadler, formerly Consul-General at Valparaiso, died in January of the present year.

The new CIVIL SERVICE ORDER IN COUNCIL (page 63), dated the 10th January, 1910, consolidates the provisions of the various Orders in Council hitherto regulating the Civil Service, while preserving the rights enjoyed by Civil Servants, already in the Service, under former Orders in Council now repealed. To facilitate reference, sub-headings in italics have been added to the various portions of the Order in Council to indicate the subject matter of each.

In previous editions no mention of PRO-CONSULS, or of services rendered in that capacity, has been made in the Statement of Services; but as they are recognized as forming part of the Consular Service, I have now added to the Statement of Services the names of all Pro-Consuls actually holding office, and have added particulars of service as Pro-Consul in the case of others who previously held that appointment—so far as I have been able to do so.

The SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1909 (page 149), changes the conditions under which Pensions will be granted to all male Civil Servants appointed to a pensionable situation in the permanent Civil Service after the passing of the Act on 20th September, 1909. The terms of the Act are well known to all those who were already in the Service at that date, and opportunity has been given them of adopting its provisions or of remaining under the old conditions. The Act does not apply to Diplomatic Pensions.

The REGULATIONS for the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE (page 84) have been revised.

Under the head of EXAMINATIONS will be found the new Regulations applying the scheme of Examination for Clerkships (Class I) in the Civil Service to the Examination of Candidates for Student Interpreterships in China, Japan, and Siam (page 89), and the revised Regulations for the Training and Examination in Law of Consular Assistants in China, Corea, and Siam (page 90).

Further information received after January 1, up to date of going to press, will be found on page xxii.

Having found it impossible to obtain information respecting many whose names remain in the Statement of Services as having served under the Foreign Office, but whose connection with the office (in many cases only temporary) ceased many years ago, I have decided to give a list each year of those whose names will be removed from subsequent editions should no information reach me during the current year to warrant their retention in the Foreign Office List. I shall, therefore, be grateful for any information that I may receive respecting the list which is given at page xxiii.

GODFREY E. P. HERTSLET.

ORDER IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN—JANUARY 10, 1910.

WHEREAS by several Orders in Council dated * * * provision has been made for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments and the conditions of service therein.

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force should be consolidated, with certain amendments, into one Order in Council.

1. Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, as from the date of this Order, so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force shall be repealed, and that the provisions following shall have effect in substitution for them:—

Provided that such repeal or substitution shall not affect the validity of anything done under or by virtue of such Orders or any of them.

Provided also that nothing in this Order shall affect any right, privilege, or exemption enjoyed by any person in His Majesty's Civil Establishments under Regulations in force at the date of the passing of this Order.

PART I.

Civil Service Commissioners.

2. Such persons as His Majesty in Council shall have approved shall be His Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners (hereinafter called the Commissioners) for testing the qualifications of the persons proposed to be appointed to any situation or employment in His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for testing, in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by the Army Council, the literary qualifications of candidates for admission by means of competitive examinations to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (hereinafter called the Treasury), to appoint from time to time such assistant examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties herein assigned to them.

Provided that any Commissioner appointed for the purposes aforesaid may, subject to the approval of the Treasury previously obtained, by writing under his hand, authorize the Secretary for the time being to the Civil Service Commission to act as Commissioner at any time during the absence of any of the Commissioners, or during any vacancy among the Commissioners, or for such period during such absence or vacancy as may be fixed by such authorization.

The Secretary, when acting in pursuance of such authorization, shall have all powers, duties, and authorities assigned by this or any future Order in Council to the Commissioners for the time being appointed for the purposes aforesaid.

Certificates of Qualification.

3. Subject to the provisions of Clause 7 of this Order and to the exceptions specified in the Schedule marked B, appended hereto, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the said Commissioners; and no person (save as excepted in the said Schedule B) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a Certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them—

- 1st, that he is within the limits of age prescribed for the situation or employment to which he desires to be admitted;
- 2nd, that he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties;
- 3rd, that his character is such as to qualify him for such situation or employment; and
- 4th, that he possesses the requisite knowledge and ability to enter on the discharge of his duties.

Rules to be settled by Commissioners and Heads of Departments.

4. The rules applicable to each Establishment (hereinafter called Department) under each of the above heads shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Treasury, by the Commissioners and the Head of the Department.

Competitive Examinations.

5. Save as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make to any of the situations in the Departments included in Schedule A appended hereto, or any other situations included or to be included in that Schedule, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to regulations framed or to be from time to time framed by the Commissioners, and approved by the Treasury, open to all persons of the requisite age, health, character, and other qualifications prescribed in the said regulations) who may be desirous of attending the same, subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed under this Order, or may have already been prescribed under the Orders of 4th June, 1870, and of 22nd March, 1879, now repealed. Such examinations shall be held at such periods, and for such situations or groups of situations, as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, shall have from time to time determined, and shall have reference, as the Commissioners, after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of the Treasury, may deem expedient, either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examination, or to the number of vacancies which may be estimated as likely to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examination, or to such vacancies occurring within any period not exceeding six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the examination as the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

Probation.

6. After the candidate has passed his examination and his certificate of qualification has been issued by the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation of one year or such extended period not exceeding two years in all as may be prescribed by the Head of his Department. During this time his conduct and capacity shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Head of his Department, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless and until his probation shall have furnished to the Head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness.

Special Qualifications. Certificates may be granted without examination.

7. In case the Head of a Department to which a situation belongs and the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the Head of the Department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the Head of the Department and the Treasury shall consider that it would be for the public interest that the prescribed examination and the rules in regard to age should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with such examination, wholly or partially, and with such rules in regard to age, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person is fully qualified in respect of age, health, character, and knowledge and ability.

Salary and Increments of Persons Employed before Obtaining Certificate.

8. When a person has been selected for appointment to an office in any Department, and the state of business in that Department makes it necessary that he should enter upon his duties before the issue in his favour of a certificate by the Commissioners, the Treasury may, if they think proper, direct that his salary shall be payable from the date on which he commences the discharge of his duties, provided that they are satisfied that the delay in the issue of the certificate is owing wholly to causes beyond his control. If such person is on a scale of salary, the first incremental period of such scale shall be reckoned from the date on which his salary became payable, provided that a certificate shall in the meanwhile have been issued by the Commissioners.

Examination Fees.

9. Fees shall be paid of such amount, in such manner, and at such times, by persons attending examinations held by the Commissioners, or certificated by them under Clause 7 of this Order, as they, with the approval of the Treasury, have prescribed, or shall from time to time prescribe, by notice published by them in the "London Gazette."

The Commissioners may, with the like approval, exempt from the payment of fees such classes of persons as they may think fit to exempt. Every such exemption shall be published in the "London Gazette."

The Commissioners, with the like approval, may, by notice in the "London Gazette," cancel any preceding notice therein, or any part thereof, and may by such or by any further notice vary the amount of the fees to be paid by persons attending examinations held by them, or the manner, or the time, of paying such fees, or the classes of persons required to pay them, or exempted from paying them.

Appointments to be Gazetted.

10. All appointments and promotions with respect to which certificates have been issued by the Commissioners and all assignments and transfers of Second Division Clerks shall be published by the Commissioners in the "London Gazette."

Situations Excepted from Operation of this Part.

11. The situations included in the Schedule marked B, hereto appended, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Part of this Order.

Provided that the Head of any Department, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time, by notice in the "London Gazette," add situations to either of the said Schedules, marked A and B respectively, or withdraw situations therefrom.

PART II.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PERMANENT OFFICERS
IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL ESTABLISHMENTS.Treasury may Inquire into Pay and Numlers of Departments.

12. It shall be competent for the Treasury to direct, should they see cause, that inquiry be made at intervals of not less than five years into the pay and numbers of officers employed by any Department of State.

Attendance Book.

13. Attendance Books shall be kept in every Department for the purpose of recording the times of arrival and departure of persons employed therein.

Seven Hours' Daily Attendance. Alternate Saturday Half-holiday.

14. Officers are required to attend not less than seven hours a day, but they shall be allowed a half-holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Head of their Department is satisfied that the progress of public business will not be prejudiced thereby.

Compulsory Retirement.

15. It shall be competent for the Head of any Department to call upon any officer of such Department to retire at any time after reaching the age of sixty on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases the Treasury may, at the instance of the Head of a Department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, not exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

Candidates for Seats in House of Commons to Resign Office.

16. Any officer seeking a seat in the House of Commons shall resign his office so soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

Management of Societies, Companies, &c.

17. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, industrial, or financial firm or company which would require the attendance of such officer at any time between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Increments Not Allowed Without Certificates of Approved Service.

18. An annual increment of salary shall not be allowed to any officer at the date at which it would in ordinary course become due without a certificate from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such person as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that the service of such officer during the year preceding the date of such certificate has been approved.

Provided that, if, at the date when the increment would in ordinary course become due, the certificate cannot be given, the Head of the Department may specify a period from the expiration of which, if the officer's service in the meanwhile has been approved, the increment may be allowed, and may from time to time extend the period so fixed. If the officer's service after the grant of the deferred increment shall continue satisfactory, the Head of the Department may, if and when he thinks fit, increase the salary to an amount not exceeding that at which it would have stood if no increment had been withheld or deferred. Every such increase shall be reported to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

Sick Leave.

19. Sick leave may be granted to any officer by the Head of his Department, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

- (1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be furnished stating the cause of such absence.
- (2.) If the number of days during which any officer is absent in any year without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under this Order.
- (3.) Continuous sick leave on full pay shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave on half-pay for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave, no officer shall receive any salary, except with the consent of the Treasury, who may, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary to an officer during any further period of sick leave at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the officer would have been qualified.
- (4.) When the sick leave granted to any officer shall have amounted in the aggregate to twelve months during any period of four years or less, and it is desired to grant to him any further sick leave during such period, the case shall be reported to the Treasury, who shall decide what payment (if any) shall be made to him in respect of salary during such further sick leave.

PART III.RULES APPLICABLE TO PERMANENT OFFICERS IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE DRAWING SALARIES OR PLACED ON SCALES OF SALARY IN EXCESS OF THOSE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.Promotion.

20. Promotion of officers to whom Part III of this Order applies from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions :—

- (1.) That there is a vacancy in the higher class which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Treasury, it is competent for the Head of the Department to fill;

- (2.) That the work of the Department requires such vacancy to be filled;
- (3.) That the officer proposed for promotion has been reported by the Head of his Department or Branch as fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

Annual Holidays.

21. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to officers to whom Part III of this Order applies shall not exceed thirty-six week-days during each of their first ten years of service and forty-eight week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays: Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing officers who, under the regulations in force before the 15th day of August, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

PART IV.*CHAPTER I.RULES APPLICABLE TO THE SECOND DIVISION OF HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE.Constitution.

22. The Second Division of the Civil Service, as hitherto constituted, shall continue and shall consist of Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the Civil Service to which they may from time to time be appointed or transferred.

23. No Department of the Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh without provision being made that such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by Clerks of the Second Division or other officers of a rank below that Division.

24. No vacancies shall be filled nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing Clerks of the Second Division, or other officers of a rank below that Division, until the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of officers serving in such Department with salaries higher than those of the Second Division will not be excessive.

CHAPTER II.RULES APPLICABLE ONLY TO CLERKS OF THE SECOND DIVISION WHO HAVE NOT BEEN PLACED ON THE SCALE OF SALARY PRESCRIBED BY CLAUSE 28 OF THIS ORDER.Salaries.

25. The salaries of Clerks of the Second Division to whom this Chapter applies shall commence at 70*l.* per annum, and shall rise by annual increments, as follows, viz. :—

- From 70*l.* to 100*l.*, by annual increments of 5*l.*
- From 100*l.* to 190*l.*, by annual increments of 7*l.* 10*s.*

The Higher Grade of the Second Division, with salaries commencing at 250*l.* per annum, and rising by annual increments of 10*l.* to 350*l.*, shall continue only for Clerks to whom this Chapter applies.

26. When the salary of any Clerk to whom this Chapter applies reaches 100*l.*, a special report, to be officially recorded in writing, on his competence, character, and diligence shall be required from the Head of the room and from the Head of the Branch in which the Clerk is serving or has served; and until this report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory the Clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any Clerk to whom this Chapter applies reaches 1907., he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtains a report, to be officially recorded in writing, from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior character.

Promotion to Higher Grade.

27. Promotion to the Higher Grade, mentioned in Clause 25 of this Order, shall be made according to merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said Higher Grade shall be made whenever any Clerk who remains on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 shall reach a salary of 250*l.* If there be a Clerk qualified for and deserving of such promotion; but the Head of a Department may at any time recommend, and the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the Higher Grade of a specially meritorious Clerk remaining on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 who is in receipt of a salary less than 250*l.* When a promotion has been made to the Higher Grade of a Clerk other than the Clerk who reached the salary of 250*l.*, the latter may, nevertheless, at the discretion of the Head of his Department, receive promotion to the Higher Grade, at or after the date when the Clerk who was actually promoted would in ordinary course have reached a salary of 250*l.*

CHAPTER III.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL SECOND DIVISION CLERKS OTHER THAN THOSE REFERRED TO IN THE PRECEDING CHAPTER.

Salaries.

28. The scale of salary of Second Division Clerks (except as provided in Chapter II of this Part of this Order) shall commence at 70*l.* per annum, and shall rise by annual increments as follows, viz.:—

29. When the salary of any Clerk of the Second Division shall reach the sum of 130*l.*, a report in writing on the competence, character, and diligence of such Clerk shall be required from the immediate superior under whom the Clerk is serving, and until this report has been countersigned as satisfactory by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, the Clerk shall not receive any further increment of salary.

30. No increment of salary beyond 200*l.* per annum, shall be allowed to a Clerk of the Second Division without a report in writing from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such Clerk is competent to perform efficiently the highest duties ordinarily assigned to Clerks of the Second Division in the Department in which he is serving.

31. If on the first day of April of any year the salary of any Clerk certificated before the first day of April, 1908, but placed on the scale prescribed by Clause 25 of this Order, shall amount to a sum intermediate between 122*l.* 10*s.* and 130*l.*, the annual increment of salary accruing next thereafter shall be calculated as the sum of—

(a) the portion of an increment at the rate of 7*l.* 10*s.* per annum proportionate to the period between such first day of April and the date next thereafter upon which (but for his having been placed on the said scale) an increment would have accrued; and

(b) the portion of an increment at the rate of 10*l.* per annum proportionate to the period between the last-mentioned date and the first day of April next following.

CHAPTER IV.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE WHOLE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.

Annual Holidays.

32. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to Second Division Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, twenty-one week-days during each of their next ten years of service, and twenty-four week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays.

Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the regulations in force before the 21st day of March, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

Special Increments.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause 25 and Clause 28 of this Order, the Treasury may, upon the recommendation of the Head of a Department, advance by such amount, not exceeding four annual increments, as they may deem expedient, the salary of any Clerk who, having served for not less than six years in the Second Division, is reported to be exceptionally meritorious.

Appointment to Clerkship in same Department.

34. Any Clerk who is or who has been a Second Division Clerk may be appointed, without a further certificate of qualification, to any clerkship in the Department in which he is serving, provided that—

- (a) such clerkship is not one which is ordinarily filled by open competition under the scheme known as "Class I," or under special regulations;
- (b) the maximum salary of such clerkship does not exceed 500*l.* per annum; and
- (c) such clerkship does not lead in the ordinary course of promotion to a clerkship of which the maximum salary exceeds 500*l.* per annum.

Minor Staff Clerkship.

35. Any Clerk of the Second Division appointed to a Minor Staff clerkship the maximum salary of which does not exceed 350*l.* per annum shall be, in all respects other than that of salary, subject to the regulations governing the Second Division; and if the maximum of the Minor Staff clerkship is less than 350*l.* may, at such time after he has attained the said maximum as the Treasury may decide, be placed upon the scale of the Second Division at the point represented by such maximum, and may proceed by the usual annual increments to a maximum of 350*l.* if appointed to the Minor Staff clerkship before 21st December, 1907, or of 300*l.* if appointed to such clerkship after that date.

*Promotion to posts with salaries exceeding 500*l.* requires Special Certificate from Commissioners.*

36. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second Division to any post carrying a maximum salary exceeding 500*l.* a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds 500*l.* a year, without a special certificate from the Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury; and every such promotion shall be published in the "London Gazette," with a note of such recommendation, certificate, and approval, and shall have effect from the date of such publication.

Redundant Clerks.

37. (i.) Redundant Second Division Clerks may be transferred from one Department to another without reference to their age or the amount of salary of which they are in receipt.

(ii.) Except in the case of redundancy, no Clerk of the Second Division shall be so transferred without the consent of the Commissioners.

(iii.) The consent of the Commissioners and the approval of the Treasury shall be required to the making redundant of any Second Division Clerk who has been appointed to that Division on the ground that his retention in a particular Department was necessary.

CHAPTER V.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE SECOND DIVISION AND ASSIGNMENT OF SECOND DIVISION CLERKS.

38. The Commissioners shall at fixed intervals, or whenever they may, with the approval of the Treasury, decide it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for clerkships of the Second Division in such subjects, and under such regulations, as they, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe.

39. Lists of the successful competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to the number required, if so many are found by the Commissioners to be qualified for appointment to the Second Division. In ascertaining the order of merit, such allowance may be made as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe in respect of previous service as Registered Boy Clerk.

40. From lists made out as aforesaid, the Commissioners, on the application of Departments, may assign Clerks for permanent or temporary service. Assignment shall, as a general rule, be made by the Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list, an older list taking precedence over a more recent list. Provided that:—

(i.) They may assign to any Department any unassigned successful competitor who has shown special qualifications in any particular subject included in the scheme of examination, if special application for a Clerk so qualified be made by that Department;

(ii.) If a successful competitor has at the date of the commencement of the competitor served as a Boy Clerk, or Assistant Clerk ("Abstractor") for not less than six full months in a Department, he may, on the application of the Head of that Department, be specially assigned thereto.

41. Under conditions to be settled by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, successful competitors will be allowed, subject to the requirements of the Public Service, to select the Departments in which they may prefer to serve; but any successful competitor refusing to serve in the Department to which he is assigned may be removed from the list.

42. On a successful competitor being assigned to a Department his name shall be removed from the list. If the assignment has been for temporary service the Clerk's name shall be restored to the list on the termination of such service, if approved; but the Commissioners may assign any Clerk, who is serving temporarily in a Department, to a permanent Clerkship therein.

43. A Second Division Clerk shall be regarded as accepted by a Department to which he has been assigned for permanent service, when he has completed twelve months' continuous service in that Department, unless the Commissioners are informed by the Head of his Department that he has not afforded satisfactory proof of his fitness in accordance with the provisions of Clause 6 of this Order.

A Second Division Clerk shall not, except for grave misconduct, be rejected on probation till he has served for at least three months in the Department to which he has been assigned.

If a Second Division Clerk is rejected on probation by the Department to which he has been assigned, the Head of the Department shall report to the Commissioners the reason for his rejection; and the Commissioners shall decide whether the rejected Clerk shall be finally discharged, or shall be re-assigned for service in another Department.

In the event of a rejected Second Division Clerk being re-assigned as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall decide whether his previous service should be reckoned, with or without conditions, towards increment of salary. If they decide that his service should not be so reckoned, the fact and the conditions, if any, shall be notified by the Commissioners to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

PART V.

RULES APPLICABLE TO SITUATIONS OR EMPLOYMENTS BELOW THE SECOND DIVISION.

44. Below the Second Division persons may be employed for copying, routine work under direct supervision, or other work inferior to that of Clerks of the Second Division, in accordance with regulations framed from time to time by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, and at rates of pay from time to time prescribed by the Treasury.

45. An established Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Commissioners under Clause 7 of this Order. But such certificate shall only be granted exceptionally after not less than six years' established service (towards which not less than one year's and not more than two years' approved service as Registered Boy Clerk may be allowed to reckon), upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the Division at such salary as they shall think fit, not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment; and he shall be entitled to the same amount of annual holiday as if his previous established service had been in the Second Division.

46. A Clerk of the class known as "Assistant Clerks" or "Abstractors" may, with the consent of the Commissioners, be transferred from one Department to a similar situation in another, without a further certificate of qualification.

SCHEDULE A.

All situations in the undermentioned Departments, except such situations as have already been withdrawn from the Schedule A appended to the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, or have already been added to the Schedule B appended to that Order.

[Here follows List of Departments.]

SCHEDULE B.

Situations altogether excepted from the operation of Part I. of this Order:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FEMALE TYPISTS EMPLOYED IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

THE following are the regulations in force respecting Female Typists in Government Departments:—

1. Appointment.

The Head of a Department, with whom the selection of candidates rests, on a vacancy occurring, submits to the Civil Service Commissioners the name or names of one or more ladies. The Civil Service Commissioners satisfy themselves as to the character and health of the candidates so selected, and examine them in the following subjects:—

1. Writing;
2. Spelling;
3. English Composition;
4. Copying manuscript;
5. Arithmetic (first four rules, simple and compound, including English weights and measures, and Reduction);
6. Typewriting.

All candidates must pass in the above six subjects. [Shorthand may be added if required by the Department by which the candidate has been nominated.]

The limits of age are from 18 to 30.

If more candidates than one are presented by the Department, she who passes the best examination obtains the appointment. The lady appointed receives a Civil Service certificate.

2. Marriage.

The service of a woman typist ceases as a matter of course on marriage, but it is open to the Head of the Department, with the consent of the Treasury, to grant to a typist who marries after a completed service of six years a gratuity out of the Vote for the Department, provided that her character and service are in every respect satisfactory. The regulations in the Public Service relative to the grant of gratuities on marriage are as follows:—

1. The grant of such gratuities will be limited to cases in which resignation on marriage is required by general Departmental regulations.
2. The marriage must be notified to the Head of the Department immediately on its taking place.
3. Persons retiring under such circumstances after a service of not less than six years may, at the discretion of the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury, receive a gratuity at the rate of one month's pay for each complete year of established service, but not exceeding in the whole a maximum of 12 months' pay.
4. No person who has received such a gratuity, and has subsequently become a widow, can be re-employed in an established capacity without obtaining a fresh certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, and her previous service will not be allowed to count for pension.

3. Pension.

Women typists holding a Civil Service certificate, and serving until they are disabled by age or infirmity, earn pension like other Civil Servants.

4. Pay.

Typists: 20s. rising by annual increments of 2s. to 26s. a week.

Shorthandwriter-Typists: 26s. by 2s. annually to 31s. a week.

Candidates who desire to obtain a certificate of proficiency in shorthand are examined by the Civil Service Commissioners shortly after the date of attaining the maximum of the ordinary scale (26s. a week). The number of Typists who may be graded as Shorthandwriter-Typists will be limited to one-half the total number of Typists (excluding Superintendents) employed in a Department.

If the number of typists in a Department exceeds two, but does not exceed six, one of them may be appointed a Superintendent. If there are more than six typists employed in a Department, two of them may receive pay as Superintendents. Pay of Superintendents: 35s. a week, inclusive of all overtime. If more than ten typists are so employed, the Chief Superintendent will be paid a fixed salary of 40s. a week inclusive of all overtime.

5. Leave.

Typists and Shorthandwriter-Typists may (subject to the public convenience) be allowed 18 days ordinary annual leave; Superintendents, 21 days; and Chief Superintendents, 28 days, in addition to Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday and the Bank Holidays.

6. Sick-Leave.

Sick-leave may be granted by the Head of a Department subject to the following conditions, which are also applicable to male Clerks in the established Civil Service, viz. :—

1. After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.
2. If the number of days during which a Woman Typist in any year is absent without medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of her ordinary annual leave (viz., 18 days).
3. Continuous sick-leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may, at his discretion, grant further leave with salary at half the ordinary rate for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick-leave no salary shall be paid, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may, at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick-leave to a Woman Typist at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick-leave, she would have been qualified.
4. Cases of repeated but not continuous sick-leave amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months during any period of eighteen months shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick-leave.

7. Transfers, &c.

Women Typists belong to the Department to which they are appointed. They may, however, be transferred to other Departments at their own request or for the public convenience, if the Head of the Department to which they belong and the Treasury approve.

8. Overtime.

Typists: 9d. per hour; Shorthandwriter-Typists: 10d. per hour. No typist may receive payment for more than 15 hours overtime in one month.

The foregoing regulations apply only to Women Typists on the permanent establishment of a Department. Temporary Women Typists are also occasionally employed, but such employment is only by the week.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT AND ORDER IN COUNCIL RELATING TO THE CONSULAR SERVICE.

(1.) CONSULAR ACT, SO FAR AS RELATES TO CHURCHES, HOSPITALS, CHAPELS, BURIAL GROUNDS, AND CHAPLAINS.*

6 Geo. IV. c. 87—July 5, 1825.

Provision for support of churches and chapels, &c., in foreign ports and places where a chaplain is appointed and maintained by subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such purpose a sum equal to the amount subscribed.

10. And whereas churches and chapels for the performance of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the interment of the dead, in divers foreign ports and places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the performance of divine service in the said churches and chapels, and are now resident in such foreign ports and places; and it is expedient to afford encouragement for the support of the churches and chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the erection of other churches and chapels in foreign ports and places to which His Majesty's subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of trade or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any foreign port or place in which a Chaplain is now or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary subscription or rate levied among or upon His Majesty's subjects resorting to or residing at such foreign port or place, or by any rate or duty levied under the authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any order for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from time to time, for and towards the maintenance and support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the expenses incident to the due celebration of divine service in any such churches and chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such burial grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the interment of any of His Majesty's subjects in any such burial grounds, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in any one year the amount of the sum or sums of money which during that year may have been raised at such port or place for the said several purposes or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid credit for all sums of money not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by them disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

Where voluntary contributions towards erecting churches, hospitals, or providing burial grounds, in any place where Consuls are resident, such Consuls are authorized to advance a sum equal to the amount of such contributions.

11. In case any of His Majesty's subjects shall by voluntary subscriptions among themselves raise and contribute such a sum of money as shall be requisite for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any church or chapel or building, to be appropriated for the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, or for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any building to be used as a hospital for the reception of His Majesty's subjects, or for defraying one half of the expense of purchasing or hiring any ground to be used as a place of interment for His Majesty's subjects, at any foreign port or place wherein any Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty shall be resident, then and in any such case it shall and may be lawful for such Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any Order to be for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay, for and towards the purposes aforesaid or any of them, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole in any one year the amount of the money raised in that year by any such voluntary contribution as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid shall in like manner once in every year transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to such Consuls-General or Consuls credit for all sums of money, not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by him disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

His Majesty's approbation to be first obtained.

12. Provided always, That no such Order shall be issued as aforesaid through any of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State authorizing the expenditure of money for the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such new church or chapel or hospital as aforesaid, or for the purchase or hiring of any such new burial ground as aforesaid, unless and until such Consul-General or Consul shall first have transmitted to His Majesty, through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the plan of such intended church or chapel, hospital, or burial ground, with an estimate, upon the oath of some one or more competent person or persons, stating the probable expense of and incident to the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such church, chapel, hospital, or burying ground as aforesaid, and unless and until His Majesty shall have signified, through one of His said Principal Secretaries of State, his approbation of the said plan and estimate: Provided also, that no money shall actually be disbursed by any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, for any of the purposes aforesaid, unless and until the money to be raised by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid be actually paid up and invested in some public or other sufficient security, in the joint names of such Consul-General or Consuls and two Trustees appointed for that purpose by the persons subscribing the same, or unless and until two or more of such subscribers shall enter into good and sufficient security to His Majesty, by bond or otherwise, that the amount of such subscriptions shall actually be paid for the purposes aforesaid, by a certain day to be specified in every such bond or security, and which bond or security shall be preserved in the office of such Consul-General or Consul, and shall by him be cancelled and delivered back to the parties entering into the same, their heirs, executors, or administrators, when and so soon as the condition thereof shall be fully performed and satisfied.

13. Provided also, that the whole salary of any Chaplain heretofore appointed or to be appointed to officiate in any such church or chapel in any foreign port or place in Europe shall not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Pounds by the year, or in any foreign port or place not in Europe, Eight Hundred Pounds by the year: Provided also, that all such Chaplains shall be appointed to officiate as aforesaid by His Majesty, through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, and shall hold such no Offices for and during His Majesty's pleasure, and no longer.

Meetings of subscribers to churches, chapels, &c.

14. All Consuls-General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside and being resident at any foreign port or place wherein any such church or chapel or other place appropriated for the celebration of divine worship, or hospital, or any such burial ground as aforesaid, hath heretofore been or shall hereafter be erected, purchased or hired, by the aid of any voluntary subscription or rates collected by or imposed upon His Majesty's subjects, or some person or persons for that purpose duly authorized by any writing under the hand and seal of any such Consul-General or Consul, shall once at least in every year, and more frequently if occasion shall require, by public advertisements, or in such other manner as may be best adapted for insuring publicity, convene and summon a meeting of all His Majesty's subjects residing at such foreign port or place as aforesaid, to be holden at the Public Office of such Consul-General or Consul, at some time, not more than Fourteen Days nor less than Seven Days next after the publication of any such summons; and it shall and may be lawful for all His Majesty's subjects residing or being at any such foreign port or place as aforesaid at the time of any such meeting, and who shall have subscribed any sum or sums of money not less than Twenty Pounds in the whole, nor less than Three Pounds by the year, for or towards the purposes before mentioned, or any of them, and have paid up the amount of such their subscriptions, to be present and vote at any such meetings; and such Consuls General or Consuls shall preside at all such meetings; and in the event of the absence of any such Consuls General or Consuls, the subscribers present at any such meeting shall, before proceeding to the dispatch of business, nominate one of their number to preside at such meeting; and all questions proposed by the Consul-General, Consul, or person so nominated as aforesaid, to preside in his absence, to any such meeting, shall be decided by the votes of the majority in number of the persons attending and being present thereat; and in the event of the number of such votes being equally divided, the Consul-General, Consul, or person so presiding in his absence, shall give a casting vote.

General meetings may establish rules for the management of such churches, &c., subject to the sanction of the Consul, who shall transmit the same for His Majesty's approbation.

15. It shall and may be lawful for any such general meeting as aforesaid to make and establish, and from time to time, as occasion may require, to revoke, alter, and render such general rules, orders, and regulations, as may appear to them to be necessary for the due and proper use and management of such churches, chapels, hospitals, and burial grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper control over and expenditure of the money raised by any such subscription as aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the matters aforesaid, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the objects of this Act, so far as relates to those matters or any of them. Provided always that no such rule, order, or regulation as aforesaid shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul-General or Consul for the time being appointed by His Majesty to reside and actually resident at such foreign port or place; and provided also, that the same shall by such Consul-General or Consul be transmitted by the first convenient opportunity for His Majesty's approbation; and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be by him issued through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, either to confirm or disallow any such rules, orders, and regulations, either in the whole or in part, and to make such amendments and alterations in or additions to the same, or any of them, as to His Majesty shall seem meet, or to suspend for any period of time the execution thereof or any of them, or otherwise to direct or prevent the execution thereof or any of them, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and all Orders so to be issued by His Majesty, in relation to the matters aforesaid, through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, shall be recorded in the Office of the said Consul-General or Consul at the foreign port or place to which the same may refer, and shall be of full force, effect, and authority upon and over all His Majesty's subjects there resident.

(2.) ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE SALARIES AND FEES OF CONSULAR OFFICERS.

Salaries of Consular Officers.

1.—(1.) There may be granted to a consular officer, out of money provided by Parliament, such remuneration and allowance for expenses as may from time to time be fixed by a Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(2.) Such remuneration and allowance shall be received by a consular officer so long only as he actually discharges the duties of his office: Provided that if a consular officer is absent from his post with the sanction of the Secretary of State, he may receive the whole or such part of the remuneration or allowance accruing during his leave of absence as the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may by regulation direct,

Power to fix Consular Fees.

2.—(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen, by Order in Council, to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees.

(2.) All such fees shall be levied, accounted for, and applied, and may be remitted, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(3.) A consular officer shall not, save as may be provided by any Order in Council under this Act, ask for or take any fee or reward for or on account of any act, thing, or service done, performed, or rendered by him in the execution of his office, and if he does, he shall without prejudice to any other liability, be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, recoverable in the High Court, by information on the part of Her Majesty's Attorney-General.

(4.) Tables of the fees which may, for the time being, be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act shall be published and exhibited in a conspicuous manner for the inspection of all persons at the custom-houses of the United Kingdom; and a printed copy thereof shall be given by every chief officer of customs, at a port of the United Kingdom, gratuitously to every master of a vessel clearing out of that port who requests the same.

(5.) Every consular officer shall hang up and exhibit in a conspicuous place in his consular office a copy of the table of fees to be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act, and shall permit the same to be inspected by any person interested therein.

Definition of Consular Officer.

3. In this Act the expression "consular officer" includes consul-general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, pro-consul, and any person for the time being authorised to perform the duties of consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent.

Repeal of part of 6 Geo. 4. c. 87.

4. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Provided that any Order in Council issued under any enactment repealed by this Act, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force as if it has been issued in pursuance of this Act.

Short Title.

5. This Act may be cited as the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891.

SCHEDULE.

Session and Chapter.	Title.	Extent of Repeal.
6 Geo. 4. c. 87. - -	An Act to regulate the payment of salaries and allowances to British consuls at foreign ports, and the disbursements at such ports for certain public purposes.	The whole Act so far as unrepealed, except sections ten to fifteen, so far as they relate to any church, hospital, chapel, or burial ground for which, or to the office of any chaplain for whom, provision is being made, at the commencement of this Act, out of money provided by Parliament.

(3.) CONSULAR SERVICE ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of March, 1896.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Order in Council made on the 15th August, 1890,* Her Majesty was pleased to make certain regulations in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments of the Civil Service:

And whereas it is expedient that similar Regulations, so far as circumstances admit, should be made with respect to pensionable officers in the Consular Service of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order shall apply to all such Consular Officers and other persons employed in or in connection with the Consular Service as are entitled to receive superannuation allowances under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892,† and any Acts amending those Acts.

2. Except in the case of officers appointed by Commission from Her Majesty, every person hereafter certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment to the Consular Service shall be subject to a strict probation for a period of two years, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subject to such tests as may be determined by the Secretary of State, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Consular Service unless his probation shall furnish to the Secretary of State satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in the Consular Service.

3. Promotion of officers in the Consular Service shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) That there is a vacancy which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Commissioners of the Treasury, it is competent for the Secretary of State to fill up;

(2.) That the work of the Consular Service requires such vacancy to be filled up;

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion appears to the Secretary of State to be fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

4. Every officer hereafter appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 65 on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Officers heretofore appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 70.

If in any special case the Secretary of State is satisfied that the retirement of an officer would be detrimental to the interests of the public service, he may, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from time to time extend that officer's employment for such period or periods, not exceeding five years, as he may determine.

Nothing in this Article shall affect any existing power of the Secretary of State to require any officer to retire from the Consular Service if he has ceased, from whatever cause, to be fully competent for the performance of his duties.

5. The Consular Service shall be governed by such instructions as may from time to time be issued by a Secretary of State, with the approval, in so far as such instructions may affect the expenditure of public funds or the receipt and application of fees, of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

6. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Service Order in Council, 1896."

* Those marked (*) have provisions excepting the surrender of nationals.

† Denounced by Honduras. Will terminate on October 6, 1910.

‡ Came into force on July 16, 1899.

§ Treaty renewed by Convention signed at Monte Video, July 15, 1899.

REGULATIONS for the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.***

(In force, January, 1910.)

Period of Service of Attachés.†

1. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up the requisite period, exclusive of any leave of absence. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from their posts will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries. Salary of £150 a-year.

2. Commissions as Third Secretaries under His Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year; provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory; and that the Ambassador or Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a year for Knowledge of Public Law.

3. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l.* a-year. Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination. [See also page 87.]

First and Second Secretaries.

4. First and Second Secretaries will together constitute an intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Councillors. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l.* a-year, increasing by 20*l.* a-year until it reaches a maximum of 500*l.* a-year. But Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l.* a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

All Second Secretaries, after completing seven years' service in that rank, will, if recommended by the Head of their Mission, be eligible for Commissions as First Secretaries, wherever they may be employed. This promotion will give them no claim to outfit allowances, or to any special rate of remuneration, and they will continue to be responsible for all the details of the Chancery work.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

5. Any Councillor or Secretary, or Attaché who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed, to have passed an examination and to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, Chinese, or Amharic language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l.* a-year, over and above any other salary or allowance of which he may be in receipt.

Employment of Secretaries and Attachés.

6. Secretaries and Attachés may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them.

Councillors in His Majesty's Diplomatic Service will be appointed to all Embassies, to the Legations at Peking, Tehran, Cairo, and Darmstadt, and to the Consulate-General at Budapest.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

7. Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Rules as to persons who are placed "en disponibilité."

8. Members of the Diplomatic Service may be placed en disponibilité for a period not exceeding one year on the production of a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, or on sufficient reason being given to justify the Secretary of State in giving his sanction. This period may be extended for a further term of one year, at the expiry of which the member of the Diplomatic Service will have to return to duty, provided there is a vacancy available for the purpose. In cases of ill-health a medical certificate will be required which shall satisfy the Secretary of State that he is fit to resume his duties and without the prospect of their further interruption. Failing his ability to produce such a certificate, he will have to retire from the Service.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

9. It is to be distinctly understood that all the Members of the Diplomatic Service are expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required, and that every Councillor, Secretary, or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the Public Service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

May be required to carry Despatches.

10. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Councillors, Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required, and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Travelling Expenses.

11. Councillors, First, Second, and Third Secretaries, and Attachés will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion or other public reason, be allowed their travelling expenses by land, or the amount of their passages by sea, either from England to

* For Rules and Regulations as to the Occupation and Maintenance of Embassy and Legation Houses, the Property of or leased by His Majesty's Government, see page 152.

† For Regulations for Examination of Attachés, see page 87.

their post, or from one foreign post to another (in the case of Councillors and of First and Second Secretaries the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one)*; and they will further receive a subsistence allowance for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of 11. a-day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Councillors, Secretaries, or Attachés on board one of His Majesty's ships of war, the allowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty regulations.

The families of Councillors, Third Secretaries, or Attachés have no claim in respect of their travelling expenses and subsistence. A First or Second Secretary may charge one-third of the travelling expenses of his wife and children, the number being limited to four persons in each case. One-third of the usual subsistence allowance will also be paid for each member of the family as above limited, except on journeys by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money. These provisions apply only to first appointments and to authorized removals. No allowance will be made to members of the Diplomatic Service in respect of journeys undertaken in pursuance of leave of absence or for any other private reason.

12. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the Public Service, allow Secretaries and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the two Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Secretaries or Attachés and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, according to the date of their entry into the Foreign Office or Diplomatic Service respectively, subject to the reservation, in the case of members of the Diplomatic Service exchanging into the Foreign Office, that no Secretary shall rank above a Senior Clerk or Acting Senior Clerk, and that no Secretary below the rank of First Secretary shall rank above an Assistant Clerk.

Junior Clerks who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service, or who may be temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will receive Commissions as First, Second, or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine. In the cases of temporary employment they will receive Acting Commissions.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

13. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the King to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it; and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions. Retirement at the age of 70.

14. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at Foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years. At the expiration of five years the question of an extension of the appointment for a specified term not exceeding five years, of transfer to another Mission, or of retirement, will be considered by the Secretary of State. An appointment may be renewed more than once, if this appears to the Secretary of State to be desirable on public grounds. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

15. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for, an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half-salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. The time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Councillor of Embassy, or the Senior Secretary of the Legation at posts where there is no Councillor, may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be—at Embassies at the rate of 31. a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 21. a-day.† These allowances will likewise be paid to First Secretaries at posts where there is a Councillor.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

16. In virtue of His Majesty's Commissions, the service of Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43; from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted; provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Secretary.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

17. Should an Ambassador, Minister, Councillor, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic Pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

* This privilege was extended to Third Secretaries when sent to non-European Posts, January, 1897.

† At the Missions of Belgrade, Berne, and Munich, the allowance is at the rate of 11. a-day. At Adis Ababa, Bangkok, Bogota, Bucharest, Caracas, Guatemala, Havana, Lima, Monte Video, Santiago, Sofia, and Tangier, the allowance is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post in all cases.

Obligation of Secrecy.

18. Members of the Diplomatic Service must not, without the express permission of the Secretary of State, publish observations on, or accounts of, their experiences in the countries in which they are, or have been, officially employed, nor any information obtained by them in their official capacity. The obligation of secrecy in regard to official experiences and information continues equally after their retirement from active service, and in the event of its being disregarded the Secretary of State will consider himself justified in bringing the circumstances to the notice of Parliament when the Estimate providing for the officer's pension is before the House of Commons. The disclosure of information acquired in an official capacity, when such disclosure is contrary to the public interest, is, moreover, punishable under "The Official Secrets Act, 1889,"* by fine and imprisonment.

19. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Door-keeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

(In force, January, 1910.)

CLERKSHIPS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE, AND ATTACHÉSHIPS IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.*

Candidates for Clerkships on the Establishment of the Foreign Office and for Attachés in the Diplomatic Service, who have been nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, are required to attend at the combined Open Competitions for the Home Civil Service (Class I), Indian Civil Service, and Eastern Cadetships which usually begin on or about the 1st August in each year. They must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 25 on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held. No candidate will be nominated unless he be a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom of parents also born therein, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule.

Such candidates may offer for examination any of the subjects specified in Clause 2 of the regulations respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships (Class I) in the Home Civil Service, with the proviso (i) that the maximum of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 4000, to be calculated in the manner prescribed by the last paragraph of the above-mentioned Clause 2; (ii) that French and German will be obligatory subjects and Candidates must reach a high qualifying standard in translation, composition and oral examination in both those languages; (iii) that Spanish may be taken as an alternative to Italian; and (iv) that the marks assigned to Candidates will be subject to a deduction as provided in the last paragraph but one of Clause 2. To translation, composition, and the oral examination 400 marks will be assigned in French, German, Italian and Spanish, and 200 marks to the critical questions on those languages and their literature. Candidates for the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service will not be required to take the papers of critical questions on those languages in which they are examined, but they may take these papers if they wish. In reckoning the 4000 maximum of marks only the maximum of that part of the examination in any of those languages for which the Candidate is actually entered will be taken into account. For further information respecting the subjects of examination Candidates are referred to the Syllabus (see Note on page 91), and in particular to the concluding paragraphs thereof.

Candidates for the Foreign Office and the Diplomatic Service may, if they wish and are eligible in respect of age, be examined also as Candidates in the combined Open Competition under the rules for that Competition. Under these rules Candidates are allowed to choose subjects up to a maximum of 6000 marks. The same papers will be used for both examinations as a rule and so far as possible.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
October, 1908.

FOREIGN OFFICE TRANSLATORS.

1. These appointments, the number of which is limited to three, are open to Clerks on the establishment of the Foreign Office, after completion of one year's service, and may be held until the rank of Assistant or Acting Assistant Clerk is attained.

2. Candidates will be required to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess the requisite practical knowledge of the languages in which they are examined, and that they are able to translate such languages quickly and correctly into good English. In the event of two or more candidates presenting themselves for one vacancy, the candidate who obtains the largest number of marks will receive the appointment. The qualifying languages will be either Italian, or Spanish, or Russian, in addition to which candidates must pass a test examination in German. The Translators will not be required to pass examinations in Dutch, Danish, Portuguese, or Swedish, unless they wish to do so; but the Secretary of State expects that they will among them acquire sufficient proficiency in those languages to make translations from them if required.

Two of these allowances cannot be permanently held by the same Translator.

3. The Translators will be expected to prepare all translations required for the use of the Foreign Office.

In case, however, of great pressure, or of documents being received in any languages other than those mentioned above, assistance may be obtained through the Civil Service Commissioners on sanction being received from the Under-Secretary of State.

4. The Translators will rank according to their seniority in the Office.

5. It will be the duty of the Senior Translator, or in his absence of the Second Translator, to receive and distribute papers requiring translation; to superintend the work as far as may be possible; to apply to the Under-Secretary of State for assistance when needed; and to arrange questions of leave, and such matters as relate to the ordinary duties of the Translators.

6. Should a Translatorship be temporarily vacated in consequence of one of the Translators becoming an Acting Assistant Clerk, or effecting a temporary exchange into the Diplomatic Service, any Clerk who is eligible, or in case of there being no candidate among the Clerks, the member of the Diplomatic Service with whom the exchange is made, may, after examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, occupy the appointment for the period during which it is vacated, and receive the allowance attached to it.

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it desirable, appoint any Clerk who has held such an acting appointment to the next actual vacancy among the Translators, without further examination.

7. In case there should be no candidate for a vacant Translatorship, or that the candidates should fail to pass the necessary examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, one or both the other Translators will be permitted, if duly qualified, to undertake temporarily the duties of the vacant appointment, and to receive the allowance attached to it, on the understanding that the vacancy will be filled up as soon as circumstances will permit.

Foreign Office, October 1, 1886.

THIRD SECRETARIES (see §3 of Regulations, page 84).†

PUBLIC LAW.

THIRD SECRETARIES who desire a Certificate of having satisfactorily passed an examination in Public Law will be required to show a competent general knowledge of the ordinary rights and obligations of Sovereign States in time of peace, and of belligerents and neutrals in war. They will also be expected to be able to give an account of—

(1.) The nature and authority of International Law.

(2.) The sources from which it is derived, the leading authorities (British and Foreign) on the subject, and the manner of referring to and applying those authorities.

(3.) The Political Constitution of the several States, and Unions of States, in Europe and America, so far as the constitution of each may affect its international relations.

(4.) The status, duties, and privileges of Public Ministers and Diplomatic Agents.

* See also General Information to Candidates, page 93.

(5.) The general principles of the Law of Nationality and of Domicil.

The Books recommended are:—

Wheaton's "Elements of International Law"; Heffter, "Das Europäische Völkerrecht der Gegenwart," either in the original German or in the French Translation of Jules Bergson; and for (5) Westlake's "Treatise on Private International Law," chapters I, II, III, with the Naturalization Acts, 33 Vict. c. 14, and 35 and 36 Vict. c. 39.

Foreign Office, March 7, 1873.

GENERAL CONSULAR SERVICE.*

The following are the Regulations under which Candidates will be appointed:—

Candidates must be natural-born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not actually born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, will only be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 22 or over 27 years of age at the date of examination. Persons who may be serving, or who may have served, in the Navy, the Army, the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual war service, including time spent on passage out and passage home.

Persons nominated to compete for the Consular Service will be expected to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

1st. That they have a correct knowledge of the English language, so as to be able to express themselves clearly and correctly in writing.

2nd. That they can write and speak French and one other language, German or Spanish, correctly and fluently. An equal number of marks is assigned to French and each of the other languages.

3rd. That they have a sufficient knowledge of the principles of British Mercantile and Commercial Law relating to: (1) Shipping; (2) Negotiable Instruments, Bills of Exchange, and Promissory Notes; (3) Contracts for the Carriage of Goods; (4) Contracts of Marine Insurance, Bottomry, and Respondentia.

4th. That they have a sufficient knowledge of arithmetic for the nature of the duties which Consuls are required to perform in drawing up Commercial Tables and Reports, including a thorough knowledge of the metric system.

5th. That they possess a knowledge of Commercial geography.

6th. That they possess a knowledge—

(a.) Of the general principles of political economy;

(b.) Of their special application to currency, the money market, foreign exchanges, and taxation.

Moreover, all persons, after having passed their examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, will be required, as far as practicable, to work for at least three months in the Foreign Office and in the Commercial Intelligence branch of the Board of Trade before proceeding to their post, in order that they may become acquainted with the forms of business as carried on there.

It is considered undesirable that Vice-Consuls should marry during the first three years after their entry into the Service. Should any Vice-Consul do so, he must fully understand that the fact of his having a wife could not be taken into consideration in assigning him a post.

A year after their arrival at their post Consular Officers will be required to show that they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language, as far as commerce is concerned, of the place at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place.

It will be an advantage to candidates applying for nomination to compete for Consular appointments that they should possess one of the following qualifications:—

1. To have been called to the Bar;
2. To have been enrolled as a Solicitor;
3. To have taken a University degree;
4. To have served three years in a commercial house.

Foreign Office, November, 1909.

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR THE OTTOMAN DOMINIONS, PERSIA, GREECE, AND MOROCCO.*

The following are the Regulations under which Candidates will be appointed:—

1. Student Interpreters are appointed to supply His Majesty's Missions and Consulates in these countries with officers versed in the languages and competent to discharge the duties of Interpreters and Consular Officers.

2. They are selected by limited competition, the examination being conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

Candidates must be natural-born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, are only allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 18 or over 24 years of age, at the date of examination, and must have received a nomination from the Secretary of State. Persons who may be serving, or who may have served, in the Navy, the Army, the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual war service, including time spent on passage out and passage home.

Candidates are required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are physically qualified for service in Eastern countries.

The examination is in the following subjects, viz.:—

Obligatory.—Handwriting, orthography, and reading aloud; arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions; English Composition; Latin; translations from and into French, writing from dictation, writing a letter in French on ordinary subjects, and conversation, paying particular attention to accents, genders, and tenses.

Optional.—Ancient Greek, Italian, German, Spanish.

[A fee of 4*l.* will be required from every candidate attending the examination.]

3. The successful Candidates are required to proceed, as soon as possible after their appointment, to such one of the Universities as may be selected by the Secretary of State, where a course of studies will be prescribed for them. They reside there as members of the University for not less than seven months in the year during two consecutive years, viz., two months in each of the winter terms, seven weeks in the Easter term, and five weeks during the Long Vacation. At least six weeks in each year must be spent in France with the object of improving their knowledge of French. During their residence at the University they are called on to pass examinations, success in which is requisite to qualify them for continuance in the service. Their seniority in the service will depend on the result of the final examination held at the University.

This course of studies will include Turkish, Persian, Arabic, French, Russian; Turkish and Persian history, and the elements of English Law. Their studies are under the control of the "Foreign Service Students Committee," to which they should apply for information.

* See also General Information to Candidates, page 93. Consuls, and Vice-Consuls appointed since June 10, 1872, with permission to trade, are not required to pass an examination. (See Schedule B. of Order in Council of January 10, 1910, page 68.)

They are required to produce to the Foreign Office the certificates issued from time to time by the Head or Tutor of the College to which they are attached, stating the amount of residence and the character of their conduct. They are also required to produce certificates of regular attendance at lectures.

A salary of £200 per annum is issued to them conditionally on passing satisfactory examinations during their term of probation at the University, and a subvention is paid to the University in respect of the cost of providing instruction in Oriental languages. These payments will cease at the expiration of two years from the date of their first residence at the University, and Students will not commence to draw salary as Assistants until they have passed, the requisite examination before the University Authorities.

4. They are required, before proceeding to the University, to execute a bond, with a sufficient surety, for the payment of £500 to His Majesty's Government in the event of their leaving the service of their own free will, or being discharged from it for misconduct or neglect of duties within five years.

5. They must clearly understand that their retention and advancement in the service will depend on their efficiency and general good conduct.

Regulations as to the Promotion of Student Interpreters.

On being appointed to be Assistants they receive a salary of £300 a year, and are assigned for service in the above-mentioned Missions or Consulates. At the end of the first twelve months they are examined in the language of the country in which they have resided. Twelve months after passing that examination they are called upon to undergo a further examination in the civil, criminal, and commercial law of Turkey or Persia, in international law, and in the history, language, and mode of administration of the country in which they have resided; they have also to show a general knowledge of the history of the Turkish or Persian Empires, and of the Treaties which have been concluded between them and foreign Powers. The passing of this examination is necessary in order to qualify for promotion to the rank of Vice-Consul, and any Assistant failing to qualify loses his seniority, and is required to take the examination again.

(The text books recommended are—"Destour"; Aristarchi's "Legislation Ottomane," and "Code d'Instruction Criminelle" and "Code de Procédure Civile"; Hertslert's "Treaties on Trade, Turkey"; Wheaton's "Elements of International Law.")

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR CHINA, JAPAN, AND SIAM.†

The following are the regulations under which candidates will be appointed:—

1. Student Interpreters are appointed to supply the Consular Service in China, Japan, and Siam with persons versed in the languages of those countries, and otherwise competent to discharge Consular duties.

2. Student Interpreters are selected by limited competition, the examination being conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners. Nominations are in the gift of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to whom Candidates must be recommended.†

3. The Student Interpreters are to devote themselves, in the first place, to the study of the language of the country to which they are appointed, and, in the next place, they are to qualify themselves generally for the public service; but they must clearly understand that their retention and advancement in the public service will depend entirely on the ability which they may show after their arrival at their destination, and on their general steadiness and good conduct.

4. The salary of the Student Interpreters is fixed at the rate of £200 a year, commencing ten days previously to the date of their departure from England. A passage to their post is provided for them at the public expense, but they are required to enter into a bond of 300*l.* with a sufficient surety for the repayment of 150*l.* in the event of resignation or discharge from the service within five years. The successful candidates are expected to proceed to their destination as soon after their appointment as they can make arrangements for doing so.

5. Candidates must be natural-born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not actually born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, will only be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 21 or over 24 years of age at the date of examination, with an extension of five years in favour of persons who have served under the Foreign Office continuously from a time when they were within the above limit of age. Candidates must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight, and physically qualified for service in tropical climates. They will be called upon to undergo a medical examination to test these points, which will take place after the result of the literary examination has been ascertained. Successful candidates who have not been vaccinated within the last seven years must undergo the operation before leaving England.

MEMORANDUM.

Candidates for Student Interpreterships in China, Japan, and Siam, who have been nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, are required to attend at the combined Open Competitions for the Home Civil Service (Class I), Indian Civil Service, and Eastern Cadetships, which usually begin on or about the 1st August in each year.

1. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners:—

(a) That they are natural-born subjects of His Majesty. Persons not born within the United Kingdom, or born within the United Kingdom of parents not born therein, are only allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State.

(b) That they have attained the age of 21 and have not attained the age of 24 on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held, subject to an extension of five years in the case of persons who have served under the Foreign Office continuously from a time when they were under 24.

(c) That they are unmarried.

(d) That they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.

They are at liberty to offer for examination any of the subjects specified in Clause 2 of the regulations respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships (Class I) in the Home Civil Service (except Sanskrit and Arabic), with the proviso (i) that the maximum of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 4000, to be calculated in the manner prescribed by the above-mentioned Clause 2; (ii) that French will be an obligatory subject and Candidates must reach a high qualifying standard in translation, composition, and oral examination in this language; (iii) that Spanish may be taken as an alternative to Italian; (iv) that the maximum of marks

To translation, composition, and the oral examination 400 marks will be assigned in French, German, Italian, and Spanish, and 200 marks to the critical questions on those languages and their literature. Candidates for the above-mentioned Student Interpreterships will not be required to take the papers of critical questions on those languages in which they are examined, but they may take these papers if they wish. In reckoning the 4000 maximum of marks only the maximum of that part of the examination in any of those languages for which the Candidate is actually entered will be taken into account. For further information respecting the subjects of examination Candidates are referred to the Syllabus (see Note on page 91), and in particular to the concluding paragraphs thereof.

Candidates for Student Interpreterships may, if they wish and are eligible in respect of age, be examined also as Candidates in the combined Open Competition under the rules for that Competition. Under these rules Candidates are allowed to choose subjects up to a maximum of 6000 marks. The same papers will be used for both examinations as a rule and so far as possible.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS (CHINA, COREA, AND SIAM).

TRAINING AND EXAMINATION IN LAW.

1. With a view to enable Assistants in His Britannic Majesty's Consular Service for China, Corea and Siam, to study Law in this country in order—

(a.) To qualify themselves in the special branches of Law which would be useful to them in their Consular duties; and

(b.) To be ultimately called to the Bar, the following special extensions of leave have been sanctioned:—

China and Corea.

2. In the case of officers in His Majesty's Consular Service in China and Corea the usual furlough of one year after five years' service will be extended to two years in the case of any Assistant who may, on this ground, apply for such extension, provided that the Minister under whom he may have been serving shall recommend the application, and shall express his opinion that the ability, industry, and general good conduct exhibited by the officer in the past five years warrant the expectation that he will turn to good account whatever opportunities of studying Law may be afforded him.

3. Assistants to whom the Minister has recommended that extended leave shall be granted will, on their arrival in England, be reported by the Foreign Office to the Civil Service Commissioners, who will make arrangements for the examination referred to in paragraph 5 (d).

4. The grant of a second year's leave of absence will not be confirmed unless the Assistant can produce to the Secretary of State at the end of his first year:—

(a.) A certificate from the proper officer of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, that he has regularly kept his terms since his admission.

(b.) A certificate from the Council of Legal Education that he has qualified in the following branches of Law in the examinations, conducted by the Council, of Candidates for Call to the Bar:—

(i.) Roman Law.

(ii.) Constitutional Law (English and Colonial) and Legal History.

(iii.) Criminal Law and Procedure.

(iv.) Real Property and Conveyancing.

(c.) A certificate from the Council that he has passed satisfactorily in the Term examinations conducted by the Readers or Assistant Readers in the following:—

(i.) Evidence.

(ii.) Civil Procedure.

5. At the end of his second year's leave the Assistant will be required to produce to the Secretary of State:—

(a.) A certificate from the proper officer of the Inn to which he belongs, that he has regularly kept his terms.

(b.) A certificate from the Council of Legal Education that he has qualified in the following branches of Law in the examinations, conducted by the Council, of Candidates for Call to the Bar:—

(i.) Common Law.

(ii.) Equity.

(iii.) Evidence and Civil Procedure.

(c.) A certificate from the Council that he has passed satisfactorily in the term examinations in:—

(i.) Private International Law.

(ii.) Commercial Law, with especial reference to Mercantile Documents in daily use.

(d.) A certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners that he has passed a satisfactory examination in the following subjects:—

(i.) The Law relating to merchant shipping, contracts of affreightment, and marine insurance.

(ii.) The status of and jurisdiction over British subjects and aliens, questions of extra-territoriality as affecting marriage, succession (testamentary and intestate), contracts, torts, and criminal liability.

(iii.) Any other subject or subjects which the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may from time to time prescribe.

6. The Assistants will also be required to furnish at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may direct, certain Notes of Cases and Proceedings in Courts of Law, and before Police Magistrates, and may be called upon to submit themselves to vidæ voce examinations touching their knowledge of the meaning and conduct of the proceedings they have reported.

Siam.

7. In the case of Assistants in His Britannic Majesty's Consular Service for Siam, who come home after three years of absence, extensions of leave will be granted at various times in order to enable them to keep the requisite number of terms, provided such extensions do not in the aggregate exceed twelve months.

The certificates mentioned in paragraph 4 will be required when the Assistant has had the opportunity of keeping six terms, and those in paragraph 5 at the expiration of the final extension.

8. Detailed information relating to the lectures, classes and examinations conducted by the Council of Legal Education may be obtained from the Clerk to the Council, 15, Old Square, Lincoln's Inn, or from the proper officers of any of the four Inns of Court.

From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that a candidate be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer.‡

Consistently with the limitations specified above, Candidates are at liberty to name any of these subjects, provided that the maximum number of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 6000. If this maximum is exceeded by a Candidate's selection, he will be required to indicate one of his subjects the marks for which should, in his case, be reduced so as to bring his maximum marks within the prescribed limit. The marks so reduced will be subject to a correspondingly reduced deduction.

3. Application for permission to attend one of these Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

4. A fee of £8 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.¶

5. Out of the list resulting from each Examination will be filled (provided there be Candidates duly qualified) :—

(a) All the vacancies in Class I. which may have been reported to the Civil Service Commissioners up to the date of the announcement of the result of the Examination ;

(b) Any additional vacancies occurring within six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the Examination, which the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

Candidates will be allowed to choose, according to their place on the list, among the vacancies (a) for which they are duly qualified ; or they may elect to wait for the chance of a vacancy (b). When vacancies (b) occur, they will be offered in rotation to the qualified Candidates then on the list, who will be free to decline them without forfeiting their claim to subsequent vacancies (b).

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, LONDON,
August 21, 1908.

GENERAL REGULATIONS respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Situations in the Civil Service, included in Schedule A. of the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration at any time.

1. Competitive examinations of Candidates for situations in the different public Departments will be held at such times and at such places as may be deemed expedient. Before every such examination Special Regulations will be issued, in which the particular conditions of the competition will be specified.

2. These examinations will have reference either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examinations respectively, or to the number which may be estimated to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examinations, as may be laid down in Special Regulations, or in any Notice of such examinations published, with the approval of the Lords of the Treasury, in the "London Gazette."

3. These examinations are open to all natural-born or naturalized British subjects, being of the requisite age, health, and character, subject to such restrictions as are herein contained, and to Special Regulations affecting the particular situations :

(1.) The following persons are ineligible, viz. :—

Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

* This scheme of examination has been adopted for Clerkships in the Foreign Office and Attachés in the Diplomatic Service. See page 87.

‡ A Syllabus, defining in general terms the character of the Examination in the various subjects, can be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners, Burlington Gardens, W.

§ Considerable deductions will be made for bad handwriting.

¶ When an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships (Class I.) in the Civil Service is held concurrently with an Open Competitive Examination for the Civil Service of India, or for Eastern Cadetships in the Colonial Service, Candidates admitted to compete for any, two or all of these classes of appointments will be required to pay only one consolidated fee of £6.

- (ii.) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say:—
- (a) Persons actually serving in the Army.
  - (b) Persons actually serving in the Navy.
  - (c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service.
  - (d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of more than five years' service.
  - (e) Probationary Engineer Cadets in the Navy and Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.
  - (f) Persons who have been trained in Training Colleges at the public expense.
  - (g) Persons who have been trained in the Inland Revenue Branch of the Government Laboratory.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d), (e) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination, before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (f) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

Persons comprised in class (g) will not be qualified for appointment until the consent of the Board of Inland Revenue, given with the like sanction, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. In reckoning age for competition, the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

- (i.) Persons who have served in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served;
- (ii.) Persons who may be serving or who may have served in the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay;

- (iii.) Persons who have served for two full consecutive years—

- (A) In the Royal Irish Constabulary.
- (B) In any Civil situation other than that of Registered Boy Clerk, to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.
- (C) As Registered Boy Clerks (if appointed on the results of the competition of September 22, 1908, or any previous competition) may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service, with the proviso (1) that persons comprised in Classes (A), (B), (C), whose service commenced on or after the 10th of April, 1900, will not be allowed to deduct from their actual age more than two years when competing for the situation of Assistant of Customs, or more than one year when competing for the situation of Assistant of Excise; and (2) that persons comprised in Classes (A), (B), (C), whose service commenced on or after the 19th April, 1901, will not be allowed to deduct more than two years when competing for the situation of Second Class Clerk for Port Service in the Department of His Majesty's Customs.

5. If at any examination two or more situations, whether in the same or in different Departments, shall be offered for competition, the successful Candidates will be permitted (unless otherwise stated in Special Regulations) to choose in their order as determined by the competitive examination among the situations offered for competition; provided that they be duly qualified according to the special rules prescribed, under Clause IV. of the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870, for the particular situations to which they may severally be assigned. A Candidate will not be eligible for assignment or appointment to the Admiralty, the War Office, or the Colonial Office, unless he is a British subject and the son of a father also a British subject, except by special permission from the Head of the Department concerned. If there be a vacant situation for which no one of the successful Candidates is duly qualified, the Civil Service Commissioners may offer it to the highest Candidate on the list whom they may deem duly qualified, or to the Candidate highest at the time on the list, subject to his passing a qualifying examination within such period as they may determine; or they may reserve it to be filled by means of a subsequent open competition, or otherwise, as they may see fit, in accordance with the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONER.

CLERKSHIPS IN THE SECOND DIVISION OF THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Regulations respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service.

1. Open Competitive Examinations of Candidates for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service will be held from time to time at such places as may be deemed expedient.

2. These examinations are open, under such general restrictions as may be laid down, to all natural-born or naturalized British subjects, being of the prescribed age and of good health and character, but a candidate will not be eligible for assignment or appointment to the Admiralty, the War Office, or the Colonial Office unless he is a British subject and the son of a father also a British subject, except by special permission from the Head of the Department concerned; and no candidate will be eligible for assignment to the Foreign Office unless he be a natural born British subject and born within the United Kingdom of parents also born therein, except when special permission is given to the Civil Service Commissioners by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. The under-mentioned special conditions are at present in force:—

- (i.) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only that is to say:—
- (a) Persons actually serving in the Army.
- (b) Persons actually serving in the Navy.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

- (ii.) The following classes of persons will not be eligible unless they obtain the permission of the authorities of their department to attend the examination before the commencement of the competition, viz. :—(a) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service, (b) Probationary Engineer Cadets in the Navy, and Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.
- (iii.) Persons who have been trained in Training

Colleges at the public expense will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

3. The limits of age are 17 and 20. If an examination begins in one of the first six months of any year, candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of March in that year. If an examination begins in one of the last six months of any year, candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of September in that year.

In reckoning age for competition, the following allowances will be made, viz. :—(1) Persons who have served in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served; (2) Members of the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers (whether commissioned or non-commissioned), may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay; (3) Persons who have served for two full consecutive years, (a) in any Civil situation other than that of Registered Boy Clerk to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners; or (b) as Registered Boy Clerks if registered on the results of the Competition of September 22, 1908, or any previous competition, may, if their service commenced before the 20th April, 1900, deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service; if their service did not commence before the 20th April, 1900, they may deduct only two years.

4. The subjects of Examination will be as follows :—

1. Handwriting and Orthography, including Copying Manuscript.
2. Arithmetic.
3. English Composition.
4. Précis, including Indexing and Digest of Returns.
5. Book Keeping and Shorthand Writing.
6. Geography and English History.
7. Latin (translation from the language, and composition) } Only two of these languages may be taken up.
8. French (Ditto)
9. German (Ditto)
10. Elementary Mathematics.
11. Inorganic Chemistry, with Elements of Physics.

N.B.—Not more than four of the subjects numbered 4 to 11 may be offered.

5. Service marks for each full period of three calendar months of actual approved service, subject to a maximum of twelve of such periods, may be allowed to Candidates attending an Examination who are serving or have served as Registered Boy Clerks or Boy Copyists, and have entered the service by the Competition of September 22, 1908, or any previous competition. To Candidates who shall have been registered as Temporary Boy Clerks on the result of any Competition subsequent to that of September 22, 1908, and shall have rendered not less than six months' approved service in that capacity, service marks may be allowed for each full period of three calendar months subject to a maximum of eight such periods.

6. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

7. A fee of £2 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
February 19, 1909.

GENERAL INFORMATION RELATING TO EXAMINATIONS FOR THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SERVICES.

Candidates desirous of competing at examinations for the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Service, the General Consular Service, and Student Interpreter-ships in the Far East and the Levant (Ottoman Dominions, Persia, and Morocco) must be recommended by some person who is known to the Secretary of State, or on whose judgment the latter can rely.

University candidates should send in their applications through the University Appointments Committee, or the Heads of their Colleges, and those who have not received a University education may apply through the Head of the School or Institution in which they have been educated. If they have been employed in any business firm of high standing, or in any Government Office, a recommendation from such firm or office would be taken into favourable consideration. It is essential that any person recommending a candidate should himself be personally acquainted with him.

The recommendation should assume the form of a private letter to the Secretary of State containing a few personal notes on the candidate's qualifications for employment under the Foreign Office.

No candidate will be eligible unless he be a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom of parents also born therein, except when the circumstances are of such a special nature as to justify a departure from the general rule.

Candidates, in applying to have their names noted on the Secretary of State's list, should send to the Private Secretary at the Foreign Office a statement giving their name in full, the date of their birth, the establishments at which they were educated, and their permanent address.

The names of those candidates whose recommendations are accepted by the Secretary of State are then placed on the list of candidates for nomination, but it should be remembered that the fact of a name being noted in no case implies the promise of an eventual nomination.

Before a nomination can be granted, candidates will be required to appear before a Board of Selection, which will meet at the Foreign Office at 3 p.m. on the first Tuesday in May and November for the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Services, and on the first Thursday in May and November for the Consular and Student Interpreter Services. No special summons are issued for these Boards.

It will be the function of this Board to recommend candidates to the Secretary of State, with whom it will rest to grant nominations.

Candidates who have failed to pass their examinations before the Civil Service Commissioners and are anxious to compete again should notify their intention in writing to the Private Secretary, who will then inform them if the Secretary of State consents to grant them a second nomination.

Candidates for the Levant Service will be permitted to present themselves before the Board of Selection any time after their seventeenth birthday, and for the Foreign Office, Diplomatic Service, Far Eastern, and General Consular Service any time after their nineteenth birthday.

Candidates for the Diplomatic Service must possess an income or allowance of not less than £400 a year.

FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.***

* These appointments are for the present excepted from the operation of the Order in Council of January 10, 1910 (see Schedule B, page 67).

HOME SERVICE MESSENGERS, OFFICE-KEEPERS DOOR-KEEPERS, HOUSEKEEPERS, AND OTHERS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE; MESSENGERS AT MISSIONS ABROAD, CONSTABLES AND GAOLERS AT CONSULATES, USHERS IN JUDICIAL COURTS, OTHER SUBORDINATE SITUATIONS UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

1. Candidates must be between the ages of 20 and 40 years complete, except as regards constables and gaolers in China, Corea, and Siam, where the age limit is 45 for persons engaged locally. Persons who have served in the army and navy may be allowed to deduct from their actual ages any time, not exceeding five years, that they may have so served.

2. Subjects of examination :—

(i.) Writing (including copying manuscript) and spelling.

(ii.) Arithmetic (first four rules, money and avoirdupois weight).

3. Candidates must satisfy the Commissioners that their general health and character are good.

4. All candidates locally selected for situations as constables and gaolers in China, Corea, and Siam, must obtain the permission of the Consul and Minister before presenting themselves for examination. Such permission shall be given in each case only after such temporary service as would prove the candidate to be worthy of permanent retention.

NOTES.

1. If a Consular Officer should be named Commissioner to examine witnesses under a Commission issued by a British Court of Justice, he is allowed to act as such, charging and retaining the customary fees for so doing. A Consular Officer should, however, before undertaking the office, come to an arrangement with the parties at whose instance the Commission is being issued as to the exact scale of fees to be charged.

2. No fee is to be charged for drafting or receiving depositions, &c., taken ex officio under the Merchant Shipping Act, except in cases specially provided for.

3. In cases of attendances (Parts III. and IV.), the fee per day is to cover a period not exceeding twelve hours.

4. In cases of attendances away from the Consular Office or the Consular Officer's residence (Parts III. and IV.), if the Consular Officer finds it necessary to be accompanied by a clerk the fee will be increased by one-half, or if a clerk only is sent, half the fees are to be charged.

(GENERAL SERVICE.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold, are to be paid in coins which are a legal tender or current in the locality where payment is made, and change cannot be demanded. The fees are to be calculated at a rate of exchange which will cover the cost of their remittance, except in countries for which a special Table of the equivalents in foreign currency has been sanctioned by His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

(JAPAN.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold, are to be paid in Japanese currency at the rate of 10 yen to the £ sterling. In Formosa they may be paid in local currency at the rate of the day.

(CHINA AND COREA.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold, are to be paid in China in Mexican dollars at the rate of exchange fixed periodically by the Treasury; in Corea, in Japanese currency at the rate of 10 yen to the £ sterling.

Form (A).

This is to certify that in consideration of having undertaken, at my request and on my behalf, to transact certain business which a Consular Officer is permitted, but is not bound, to undertake under the Consular Regulations, I have agreed to pay him, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, therefor the fee in such case provided by "The Consular Fees (General) Order in Council, 1906,"* section 107 of Table (viz., for each hour, or fraction thereof, of attendance, 10s., with a maximum per day of £4), in addition to any other fee properly chargeable under that Order in Council, and to travelling and other expenses.

Dated at _____, the _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

(GENERAL SERVICE ONLY.)

Form (B).

In consideration of His Majesty's Consul [or, as the case may be] at _____ having consented to transact business on my account, for which Fee No. 109 is provided in Part IV. of "The Consular Fees (General) Order in Council, 1906," I hereby undertake to pay the fee as therein specified, together with all reasonable expenses incurred by him, and I declare that no liability whatever shall attach to His Majesty's Government for the acts of the said Consular Officer in respect of the said transaction.

Dated at _____, the _____ day of _____, 19____.

FEES FOR REGISTRATION OF BRITISH SUBJECTS.

The Fee for Registration as a British Subject under Orders in Council (Consular Jurisdiction, see page 97) is generally fixed at 2s. 6d.; in China and Corea 2 dollars, except for British Subjects being Indians (artisans and labourers), when the fee is 50 cents.

Consular officers in countries in which His Majesty does not exercise extra-territorial jurisdiction are authorised to register British subjects without fee on production of the requisite proof. A certificate of such registration can be obtained on payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. (see Fee No. 69, Table of Consular Fees, page 100).

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual sizes are as follow :—

For use on shore	... ..	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.
For use on shore when specially ordered	... ..	{ 4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet. 12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet.
For use on boats	... ..	{ 4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet. Diameter of shield, including garland, 1 foot 4 inches.
For use on board ship	... ..	{ 8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet. Diameter of shield, including garland, 2 feet 8 inches.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign.

The distinguishing Flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when afloat were approved by Order in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES. AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz. :—

“The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in future the Union Jack to be displayed by the military branch of your Majesty's Service on such occasions shall bear in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, and surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall bear the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield; whilst Consuls and Consular Agents, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all ranks and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorised to fly the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

“A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTE.—British Subjects resident abroad are at liberty to fly their National flag, the Union Jack, on land, unless the Municipal law of the foreign State in which they reside prohibits the use of foreign flags.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

(In force, January, 1910.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign-Manual.

2. Unless the Foreign Decoration shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service, either at Sea or in the Field, such permission will not be given to any subject of Her Majesty, except in the following cases, if recommended specially by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs:—

(1) The Chief of a Complimentary Mission from Her Majesty.

(2) A Military or Naval Attaché on the termination of his appointment, in cases only in which a Decoration is conferred upon the Officer by the Head of the State in which his head-quarters are situated.*

(3) Any person, not at the time in the service of Her Majesty, who has rendered valuable service to the Sovereign bestowing the Order outside Her Majesty's dominions, or in an Embassy or Legation of that Sovereign in this country.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an officer in the Navy.

* Words in italics added by the King's Commands, September 18, 1909.

† Added by the King's Commands, June 2, 1909.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette," stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred, † Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept the Decoration of a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Decoration and common to every person upon whom such Decoration is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, June 23, 1898.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or Navy, should be addressed to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be, who, if they see fit, may submit the same for Her Majesty's sanction, upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without other formality.

2. Any other British subject, having obtained Her Majesty's permission, is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such medal is not to be worn.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT, AND ORDERS IN COUNCIL, RELATING TO MARRIAGES ABROAD.

(1.)—AN ACT TO CONSOLIDATE ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE MARRIAGE OF BRITISH SUBJECTS
OUTSIDE THE UNITED KINGDOM.

55 and 56 Vict., c. 23—"Foreign Marriage Act, 1892."

Validity of marriages solemnized abroad in manner provided by Act.

1. All marriages between parties of whom one at least is a British subject solemnized in the manner in this Act provided in any foreign country or place by or before a marriage officer within the meaning of this Act shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized in the United Kingdom with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Notice to marriage officer of intended marriage.

2. In every case of a marriage intended to be solemnized under this Act, one of the parties intending marriage shall sign a notice, stating the name, surname, profession, condition, and residence of each of the parties, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor, and give the notice to the marriage officer within whose district both of the parties have had their residence not less than one week then next preceding, and the notice shall state that they have so resided.

Filing in registry and posting up of notice.

3.—(1) The marriage officer shall file every such notice, and keep it with the archives of his office, and shall also, on payment of the proper fee, forthwith enter in a book of notices to be kept by him for the purpose, and post up in some conspicuous place in his office, a true copy of every such notice, and shall keep the same so posted up during fourteen consecutive days before the marriage is solemnized under the notice.

(2) The said book and copy posted up shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to the inspection of any person.

Requirement of like consent to marriage as in England, and power to forbid marriage.

4.—(1) The like consent shall be required to a marriage under this Act as is required by law to marriages solemnized in England.

(2) Every person whose consent to a marriage is so required may, at any time before the solemnization thereof under this Act, forbid it by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the intended marriage in the book of notices, and by subscribing thereto his name and residence, and the character by reason of which he is authorized to forbid the marriage; and if a marriage is so forbidden the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Caveat against marriages may be lodged with marriage officer.

5.—(1) Any person may on payment of the proper fee enter with the marriage officer a caveat, signed by him or on his behalf, and stating his residence and the ground of his objection against the solemnization of the marriage of any person named therein, and thereupon the marriage of that person shall not be solemnized until either the marriage officer has examined into the matter of the caveat and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, or the caveat is withdrawn by the person entering it.

(2) In a case of doubt the marriage officer may transmit a copy of the caveat, with such statement respecting it as he thinks fit, to a Secretary of State, who shall refer the same to the Registrar-General, and the Registrar-General shall give his decision thereon in writing to the Secretary of State, who shall communicate it to the marriage officer.

(3) If the marriage officer refuses to solemnize or to allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring it to be solemnized, that person may appeal to a Secretary of State, who shall give the marriage officer his decision thereon.

(4) The marriage officer shall forthwith inform the parties of and shall conform to any decision given by the Registrar-General or Secretary of State.

When marriage not solemnized within three months a new notice required.

6. Where a marriage is not solemnized within three months next after the latest of the following dates—

- (a) the date on which the notice for it has been given to and entered by the marriage officer under this Act;
- (b) if on a caveat being entered a statement has been transmitted to a Secretary of State, or if an appeal has been made to a Secretary of State, then the date of the receipt from the Secretary of State of a decision directing the marriage to be solemnized, the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Oath before Marriage.

7. Before a marriage is solemnized under this Act, each of the parties intending marriage shall appear before the marriage officer, and make, and subscribe in a book kept by the officer for the purpose, an oath—

- (a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment to the marriage by reason of kindred or alliance, or otherwise; and
- (b) that both of the parties have for three weeks immediately preceding had their usual residence within the district of the marriage officer; and
- (c) where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or, as the case may be, that there is no person having authority to give such consent.

Solemnization of marriage at office in presence of marriage officer and two witnesses.

8.—(1) After the expiration of fourteen days after the notice of an intended marriage has been entered under this Act, then, if no lawful impediment to the marriage is shown to the satisfaction of the marriage officer, and the marriage has not been forbidden in manner provided by this Act, the marriage may be solemnized under this Act.

(2) Every such marriage shall be solemnized at the official house of the marriage officer, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and may be solemnized by another person in the presence of the marriage officer, according to the rites of the Church of England, or such other form and ceremony as the parties thereto see fit to adopt, or may, where the parties so desire, be solemnized by the marriage officer.

(3) Where such marriage is not solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, then in some part of the ceremony, and in the presence of the marriage officer and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare,

"I solemnly declare, that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B. [or C. D.] may not be joined in matrimony to C. D. [or A. B.]."

And each of the parties shall say to the other,

"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A. B. [or C. D.] take thee C. D. [or A. B.] to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]."

Marriage fees to marriage officer and registration of marriages.

9.—(1) The marriage officer shall be entitled, for every marriage solemnized under this Act by him or in his presence, to have from the parties married the proper fee.

(2) He shall forthwith register in duplicate every such marriage in two marriage register books, which shall be furnished to him from time to time for that purpose by the Registrar-General (through a Secretary of State), according to the form provided by law for the registration of marriages in England, or as near to that form as the difference of the circumstances admits.

(3) The entry in each book of every such marriage shall be signed by the marriage officer, by the person solemnizing the marriage, if other than the marriage officer, by both the parties married, and by two witnesses of the marriage.

(4) All such entries shall be made in regular order from the beginning to the end of each book, and the number of the entry in each duplicate shall be the same.

(5) The marriage officer by whom or in whose presence a marriage is solemnized under this Act may ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching the marriage.

Annual forwarding of copies of register book to Secretary of State.

10.—(1) In January in every year every marriage officer shall make and send to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General, a copy, certified by him to be a true copy, of all the entries of marriages during the preceding year in the register book kept by him, and if there has been no such entry, a certificate of that fact; and every such copy shall be certified, and certificate given, under his hand and official seal.

(2) The marriage officer shall keep the duplicate marriage register books safely until they are filled, and then send one of them to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General.

Marriage officers and their districts.

11.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the following officers shall be marriage officers, that is to say;—

(a) Any officer authorized in that behalf by a Secretary of State by authority in writing under his hand (in this Act referred to as a marriage warrant); and

(b) Any officer who, under the marriage regulations herein-after mentioned is authorized to act as marriage officer without any marriage warrant, and the district of a marriage officer shall be the area within which the duties of his office are exercisable, or any such less area as is assigned by the marriage warrant or any other warrant of a Secretary of State, or is fixed by the marriage regulations.

(2) Any marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorize to be a marriage officer—

(a) a British ambassador residing in a foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, and also any officer prescribed as an officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of such ambassador;

(b) the holder of the office of British consul in any foreign country or place specified in the warrant; and

(c) a governor, high commissioner, resident, consular or other officer, or any person appointed in pursuance of the marriage regulations to act in the place of a high commissioner or resident, and this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications to a marriage by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident, or officer so authorized by the warrant, and in such application shall not be limited to places outside Her Majesty's dominions.

(3) If a marriage warrant refers to the office without designating the name of any particular person holding the office, then, while the warrant is in force, the person for the time being holding or acting in such office shall be a marriage officer.

(4) A Secretary of State may, by warrant under his hand, vary or revoke any marriage warrant previously issued under this Act.

(5) Where a marriage officer has no seal of his office, any reference in this Act to the official seal shall be construed to refer to any seal ordinarily used by him, if authenticated by his signature with his official name and description.

Marriages on board Her Majesty's ships on foreign stations.

12. A marriage under this Act may be solemnized on board one of Her Majesty's ships on a foreign station, and with respect to such marriage—

(a) subject to the marriage regulations a marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorise the commanding officer of the ship to be a marriage officer;

(b) the provisions of this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications.

Avoidance of objections to marriages on account of want of formalities or authority of officer.

13.—(1) After a marriage has been solemnized under this Act it shall not be necessary, in support of the marriage, to give any proof of the residence for the time required by or in pursuance of this Act of either of the parties previous to the marriage, or of the consent of any person whose consent thereto is required by law, nor shall any evidence to prove the contrary be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

(2) Where a marriage purports to have been solemnized and registered under this Act in the official house of a British ambassador or consul, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, it shall not be necessary in support of the marriage, to give any proof of the authority of the marriage officer by or before whom the marriage was solemnized and registered, nor shall any evidence to prove his want of authority, whether by reason of his not being a duly authorized marriage officer or of any prohibitions or restrictions under the marriage regulations or otherwise, be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

Forfeiture of property in case of fraudulent marriage.

14. If a marriage be solemnized under this Act by means of any wilfully false notice, signed, or oath made by either party to the marriage, as to any matter for which a notice, or oath, is by this Act required, the Attorney General may sue for the forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property in England accruing to the offending party by the marriage; and the proceedings thereupon, and the consequences thereof, shall be the same as are provided by law in the like case with regard to marriages solemnized in England according to the rites of the Church of England.

Punishment of false oath or notice.

15. If a person—

- (a) knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or signs a false notice, under this Act, for the purpose of procuring a marriage, or
- (b) forbids a marriage under this Act by falsely representing himself to be a person whose consent to the marriage is required by law, knowing such representation to be false, such person shall suffer the penalties of perjury, and may be tried in any county in England and dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if the offence had been committed in that county.

Evidence.

16.—(1) Any book, notice, or document directed by this Act to be kept by the marriage officer or in the archives of his office, shall be of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the custody of the officer.

(2) A certificate of a Secretary of State as to any house, office, chapel, or other place being, or being part of, the official house of a British ambassador or consul shall be conclusive.

Application of Registration Acts to this Act.

17. All the provisions and penalties of the Marriage Registration Acts, relating to any registrar, or register of marriages or certified copies thereof, shall extend to every marriage officer, and to the registers of marriages under this Act, and to the certified copies thereof (so far as the same are applicable thereto), as if herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to this Act, and as if every marriage officer were a registrar under the said Acts.

Registration of marriages solemnized under local law.

18.*Subject to the marriage regulations, a British consul, or person authorized to act as British Consul, on being satisfied by personal attendance that a marriage between parties, of whom one at least is a British subject, has been duly solemnized in a foreign country, in accordance with the local law of the country, and on payment of the proper fee, may register the marriage in accordance with the marriage regulations as having been so solemnized, and thereupon this Act shall apply as if the marriage had been registered in pursuance of this Act, except that nothing in this Act shall affect the validity of the marriage so solemnized.

Power to refuse solemnization of marriage where marriage inconsistent with international law.

19. A marriage officer shall not be required to solemnize a marriage, or to allow a marriage to be solemnized in his presence, if in his opinion the solemnization thereof would be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations;

Provided that any person requiring his marriage to be solemnized shall, if the officer refuses to solemnize it or allow it to be solemnized in his presence, have the right of appeal to the Secretary of State given by this Act.

Fees. 54 & 55 Vict., c. 36.

20. The proper fee under this Act shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891;† and the fee so fixed as respects a consul shall be the fee which may be taken by any marriage officer; and the provisions relating to the levying, application, and remission of and accounting for fees under that Act shall apply to the same when taken by any marriage officer who is not a consul.

* See Order in Council of June 29, 1895, page 114.

21.—(1) Her Majesty the Queen in Council may make regulations (in this Act referred to as the marriage regulations) :—

- (a) Prohibiting or restricting the exercise by marriage officers of their powers under this Act in cases where the exercise of those powers appears to Her Majesty to be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations, or in places where sufficient facilities appear to Her Majesty to exist without the exercise of those powers, for the solemnization of marriages to which a British subject is a party; and
- (b) Determining what offices, chapels, or other places, are, for the purposes of marriages under this Act to be deemed to be part of the official house or the office of a marriage officer; and
- (c) Modifying in special cases or classes of cases the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, so far as such modification appears to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against clandestine marriages; and
- (d) Prescribing the forms to be used under this Act and
- (e) Adapting this Act to marriages on board one or Her Majesty's ships; and to marriages by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident or other officer, and authorizing the appointment of a person to act under this Act in the place of a high commissioner or resident; and
- (f) Determining who is to be the marriage officer for the purpose of a marriage in the official house of a British ambassador, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, whether such officer is described in the regulations or named in pursuance thereof, and authorizing such officer to act without any marriage warrant; and
- (g) Determining the conditions under which and the mode in which marriages solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country may be registered under this Act; and
- (h) Making such provisions as seem necessary or proper for carrying into effect this Act or any marriage regulations; and
- (i) Varying or revoking any marriage regulations previously made.

(2) All regulations purporting to be made in pursuance of this section may be made either generally or with reference to any particular case or class of cases, and shall be published under the authority of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, and laid before both Houses of Parliament, and deemed to be within the powers of this Act, and shall while in force have effect as if enacted by this Act.

(3) Any marriage regulations which dispense for any reason, whether residence out of the district or otherwise, with the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, may require as a condition or consequence of the dispensation, the production of such notice certificate, or document, and the taking of such oath, and may authorise the publication or grant of such notice, certificate, or document, and the charge of such fees as may be prescribed by the regulations; and the provisions of this Act, including those enacting punishments with reference to any false notice or oath, shall apply as if the said notice, certificate, or document were a notice, and such oath were an oath, within the meaning of those provisions.

22. It is hereby declared that all marriages solemnized within the British lines by any chaplain or officer or other person officiating under the orders of the commanding officer of a British army serving abroad, shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized within the United Kingdom, with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Saving.

23. Nothing in this Act shall confirm or impair or in anywise affect the validity in law of any marriage solemnized beyond the seas, otherwise than as herein provided, and this Act shall not extend to the marriage of any of the Royal family.

Definitions.

24. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
The expression "Registrar General" means the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

The expression "Attorney General" means Her Majesty's Attorney General, or if there is no such Attorney General, or the Attorney General is unable or incompetent to act, Her Majesty's Solicitor General, for England:

The expression "the Marriage Registration Acts" means the Act of the session of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-six, intitled "An Act for registering "births, deaths, and marriages in England" and the enactments amending the same:

The expression "official house of a marriage officer" means, subject to the provisions of any marriage regulations, the office at which the business of such officer is transacted, and the official house of residence of such officer, and, in the case of any officer, who is an officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of an ambassador, means the official house of the ambassador:

The expression "consul" means a consul-general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, or consular agent:

The expression "ambassador" includes a minister and a chargé d'affaires:

The expression "prescribed" means prescribed by marriage regulations under this Act.

Commencement of Act.

25. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January next after the passing thereof.

Repeal and savings.

26.—(1) The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that Schedule mentioned.

Provided that—

(a) any Order in Council in force under any Act so repealed shall continue in force as if made in pursuance of this Act: and

(b) any proceedings taken with reference to a marriage, any register book kept, and any warrant issued in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed, shall have effect as if taken, kept, and issued in pursuance of this Act; and

(c) The fees which can be taken in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be taken in like manner as if fixed in pursuance of the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891, and may be altered accordingly; and

(d) The forms prescribed by or in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be used as if prescribed by an Order in Council under this Act.

(2) Every marriage in fact solemnized and registered by or before a British Consul or other marriage officer in intended pursuance of any Act hereby repealed shall, notwithstanding such repeal or any defect in the authority of the consul or the solemnization of the marriage elsewhere than at the consulate, be as valid as if the said Act had not been repealed, and the marriage had been solemnized at the consulate by or before a duly authorised consul:

Provided that this enactment shall not render valid any marriage declared invalid before the passing of this Act by any competent court, or render valid any marriage either of the parties to which has, before the passing of this Act, lawfully intermarried with any other person.

Short title.

27. This Act may be cited as the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892.

(2).—ORDER IN COUNCIL MAKING REGULATIONS FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES SPECIFIED IN "THE FOREIGN MARRIAGE ACT, 1892."

At the Court at Balmoral, the 28th day of October, 1892.

PRESENT :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892"* (in this Order referred to as the Foreign Marriage Act), certain enactments relating to the marriage of British subjects outside the United Kingdom are consolidated, and Her Majesty the Queen in Council is authorized to make regulations for the purposes therein specified :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise, enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Embassy Marriages.

1. The person before and by whom a marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act may be solemnized and registered in an embassy house in a foreign country shall either be the ambassador, or the officer for the time being performing the duties of the ambassador, or by any of the secretaries attached to the embassy from time to time appointed for the purpose in writing by the ambassador, or by the officer performing his duties; and for the purpose of marriages solemnized in such embassy houses such ambassador, officer performing his duties, or secretary shall, without any marriage warrant, be a marriage officer.

2. For the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act and these regulations, the house in which a British ambassador resides in the foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, or which is occupied by him in that country for the purposes of his embassy, shall be deemed to be the official house of such ambassador, and is in this Order referred to as the embassy house, and every place within the precincts or curtilage of any such house, and any church or chapel annexed to such house, or for the time being used with the consent of the Government to which the ambassador is accredited as the chapel thereof, shall be deemed to form part of the embassy house.

For the purpose of marriages in an embassy house the expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such part of the embassy house as the Ambassador may from time to time appoint as being sufficiently accessible to the public.

Embassy and Consular Marriages.

3. Where a marriage can be solemnized at a British consulate in a foreign country, the leave of the ambassador shall be obtained before the marriage is solemnized in the embassy house in that country.

4. (1) Where a marriage according to the local law of a foreign country is valid by English law, then before the marriage is solemnized in that country under the Foreign Marriage Act, whether in an embassy house or at a consulate, the marriage officer must be satisfied either—

- (a) That both the parties are British subjects; or
- (b) If only one of the parties is a British subject, that the other is not a subject or citizen of the country; or
- (c) If one of the parties is a British subject and the other a subject or citizen of the country, that sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage in the foreign country in accordance with the law of that country.

(2) If a marriage officer, by reason of anything in this article, refuses to solemnize or allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring such marriage to be solemnized, that person shall have the right of appeal to a Secretary of State given by section 5 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

5. In the case of any marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act, if it appears to the marriage officer that the woman about to be married is a British subject, and that the man is an alien, he must be satisfied that the marriage will be recognised by the law of the foreign country to which the alien belongs.

6. The following modifications of the requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice which appear to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against the solemnization of clandestine marriages, shall have effect in cases where one only of the parties has dwelt within the district of the marriage officer:—

(1) A marriage may be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act in the official house of a marriage officer in whose district one of the parties has dwelt—

- (a) If the marriage officer is satisfied that such notice as is mentioned below in sub-articles three and four of this article, has been given of the intended marriage in the place where the other party has dwelt; or
- (b) If a Secretary of State is satisfied that the intended marriage is not clandestine, and that adequate notice has been given, and gives permission for the same to be solemnized.

(2) In either case the oath, affirmation, or declaration under section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act, shall, in addition to the matters specified in sub-sections (a) and (c) of that section, state that one of the parties has for three weeks immediately preceding, had his or her usual place of abode within the district of the marriage officer, and further state the place where the party who has not dwelt within that district has within three months immediately preceding had for three consecutive weeks his or her usual place of abode, and the notice which has been given in that place during those three weeks.

(3) The notice to be given where the marriage is not solemnized with the special permission of a Secretary of State shall, if the party has dwelt in a foreign country, be given, entered, and posted up in the manner and during the period provided by the Foreign Marriage Act, in like manner as if the marriage were to be solemnized by or before a marriage officer in that country, and the marriage officer to whom the notice is given, in that country shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a certificate that the notice has been so given and posted up, and that he is unaware of any impediment which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage.

(4) If the party dwells in a place in the United Kingdom, the notice shall be given in the like manner and on payment of the like fee as if that party were about to be married in that place, and in England or Ireland shall be given to the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar, and in Scotland shall be given by proclamation of banns; and the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar shall deal with the notice and give a certificate for marriage in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district; and the session clerk of the parish in which the banns were proclaimed in Scotland shall, in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district, give a certificate of proclamation of such banns.

Consular Marriages.

7. For the purpose of marriages to be solemnized by or before a marriage officer who is also a consul as defined by the Foreign Marriage Act, every place within the curtilage or precincts of the house in which the Consul is for the time being resident, or of the building which is for the time being used for the purpose of his office, shall be part of the official house of such marriage officer, and every place to which the public have ordinary access in such official house shall be deemed to be part of the office of such marriage officer.

Registration of Marriages by Foreign Law.

8.1—(1) A consular officer shall not be required to attend at the solemnization of a marriage solemnized in accordance with the local law unless the marriage is solemnized at the place where he is appointed to reside, nor unless the proper fee has been previously paid to him.

(2) The consular officer shall forthwith, after the solemnization of the marriage, register the marriage in duplicate in books furnished to him by the Registrar-General through a Secretary of State for the purpose, separate from any register books provided for marriages solemnized by him, and shall register the same in accordance with section 9 of the Foreign Marriage Act, save that if the person by whom the marriage has been solemnized declines to sign the same, the consular officer shall enter the name of that person, and the fact that he declines to sign the same.

(3) The consular officer shall transmit copies and the certificate and the book when filled in manner provided by section 10 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

(4) Nothing in this Order shall authorize any officer who is not a consular officer to register a marriage solemnized in accordance with the local law.

(5) The expression "consular officer" includes a consul-general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, consular agent, and any person for the time being authorized to discharge the duties of consul - general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent.

High Commissioners, &c.

9.—(1) A Secretary of State, by a written authority under section 11 of the Foreign Marriage Act, may authorize a person to act in the place of a high commissioner or resident mentioned in that section, outside of Her Majesty's dominions.

(2) If a Secretary of State give such authority, or in pursuance of the said section, authorizes any high commissioner, resident, or other officer outside Her Majesty's dominions, not being an ambassador or a consul, to be a marriage officer, then, for the purpose of marriages solemnized and registered by or before any high commissioner, resident, or officer, or person so authorized, expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

- (a) Expressions referring to the district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to the district for which such high commissioner, resident, or officer, or person is authorized to act for the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act.
- (b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the building, or part of a building or place specified in the document by which he is authorized to act;
- (c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place at which any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such portion of the building part or place so specified as is ordinarily accessible to the public.

Her Majesty's Ships.

10.—(1) Marriages, under the Foreign Marriage Act, on board one of Her Majesty's vessels may be solemnized by or before a commanding officer of such rank and of such vessel as is for the time being authorized for that purpose by or in pursuance of any Admiralty instructions, and for the purpose of any such marriages a commanding officer so authorized shall, without any written warrant, be a marriage officer and, for the purpose of such Marriages, expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

- (a) Expressions referring to the district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to such parts of the foreign station to which the commanding officer is attached as may be specified in that behalf by Admiralty instructions;
- (b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the vessel of the said commanding officer;
- (c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any Act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to the part of the ship on which public notices are affixed.

(2) The commanding officer, before he solemnizes a marriage, shall be satisfied that, at the port or place where the marriage is solemnized, sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage on land, either in accordance with the local law of the country or in accordance with the Foreign Marriage Act.

(3) The requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice shall be modified as follows, namely, not less than three weeks' notice of the intended marriage must have been given in such public manner, or to such relatives or friends of the parties, as satisfies the commanding officer that as much notice of the intended marriage has been given as would be given if the marriage took place in England, and that the marriage is not clandestine.

11. The forms in the Schedule to this Order, or forms to the like effect, shall be used in all cases to which they are applicable.

Definitions, &c.

12. In this Order the expression "Ambassador" includes Minister and Chargé d'Affaires, and references to the embassy or embassy house shall be construed accordingly.

Other expressions have the same meaning as in the Foreign Marriage Act.

13. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1893, and from and after that day the Order in Council made on the 24th November, 1891, with respect to foreign marriages, shall be repealed.

14. This Order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosebery and the Most Honourable the Marquis of Ripon two of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and the Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

HERBERT M. SUFT.

(3.)—ORDER IN COUNCIL (MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED UNDER LOCAL LAW).

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1895.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," Her Majesty the Queen in Council is authorized to make Regulations for the purposes therein specified:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. A British Consul, or person authorized to act as British Consul, shall not, under the provisions of section 18 of "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,"* or Article 8 of "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892,"† register any marriages solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country, unless he is a marriage officer, or is, for the time being, authorized by a Secretary of State to register such marriages; and no Consular Officer shall be required to attend at the solemnization of any marriage so solemnized unless he is by, or in pursuance of, this Order authorized to register such marriage.

2. This order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1895."

And one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein.

(4.)—ORDER IN COUNCIL (RESIDENCE AND NOTICE IN CASES IN WHICH ONE OF THE PARTIES TO THE MARRIAGE HAS DWELT IN A COLONY OR IN INDIA).

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1903.

PRESENT:

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,"‡ it is provided (Section 1) that all marriages between parties of whom one at least is a British subject solemnized in the manner in that Act provided in any foreign country or place, by or before a marriage officer within the meaning of that Act, shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized in the United Kingdom with a due observance of all forms required by law;

And whereas the said Act also provides (Section 2) that in every case of a marriage intended to be solemnized under that Act, one of the parties intending marriage shall give such notice as is therein mentioned to the marriage officer within whose district both of the parties have had their residence not less than one week then next preceding; but the said Act makes no provision for cases where one only of the parties has had such residence;

And whereas the said Act (Section 2)§ authorized Her Majesty the Queen in Council to make Regulations for (amongst other purposes) modifying in special cases or classes of cases the requirements of that Act as to residence and notice, so far as such modification should appear to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against clandestine marriages; And whereas by the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892, passed in pursuance of the said last-

§ See page 110.

mentioned authority, it was provided (Article 6) as follows:—

[See page 102.]

And whereas it is expedient that further modifications of the requirements of the said Act as to residence and notice should have effect in cases where one only of the parties has dwelt within the district of the marriage officer and the other has dwelt in a Colony or in India;

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers enabling Him in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following further modifications of the requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892, as to residence and notice which appear to His Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against the solemnization of clandestine marriages, shall have effect in cases where one only of the parties has dwelt within the district of the marriage officer and the other of such parties has dwelt in a Colony or in India, that is to say:

(1.) If the marriage officer is satisfied that such notice has been given by the party dwelling in such Colony or in India as may be provided by any law of that Colony or of the Governor-General of India in Council (as the case may be) giving effect to this Order.

(2.) In any such case the oath, affirmation, or declaration required by Section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act shall be made subject to the modifications thereof, to which effect is given by Article 6 of the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892.

2. A law enacted by the Legislature of a Colony or by the Governor-General of India in Council shall be deemed to give effect to this Order if it makes provision (in whatever terms expressed) as follows:—

(1.) That a notice of a marriage intended to be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act may be given by one of the parties intending such marriage who has had his or her usual place of abode for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding in some place in that Colony or in India (as the case may be) to such marriage Registrar or other officer as may be designated by the law in this behalf;

(2.) That such notice shall be published either by proclamation of banns or in such other manner as the law may provide: and

(3.) That such marriage Registrar or other officer, unless he is aware of any impediment or objection which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, shall, on payment of such fee, if any, as the law may provide, give a certificate that the said notice has been so given and published as aforesaid.

3. In this Order "Colony" and "India" have the same respective meanings as are given to these expressions by Section 18 of the Interpretation Act, 1889.

4. This Order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1903;" and the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892, and this Order may be cited together as "The Foreign Marriages Orders in Council, 1892 and 1903."

And the Right Honourable Joseph Chamberlain and the Right Honourable Lord George Hamilton, two of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

(5).—AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW WITH RESPECT TO MARRIAGES BETWEEN BRITISH SUBJECTS AND FOREIGNERS.

6 Edw. 7, c. 40, "Marriage with Foreigners Act, 1906."

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Marriages of British subjects with foreigners abroad.

1.—(1) Any British subject who desires to be married in a foreign country to a foreigner according to the law of that country may, if it is desired for the purpose of complying with the requirement of the law of that country to obtain the certificate hereinafter mentioned, give notice of the marriage, if resident in the United Kingdom, to the registrar, and if resident abroad, to the marriage officer, and apply to the registrar or officer for a certificate that after proper notices have been given no legal impediment to the marriage has been shown to the registrar or officer to exist, and the registrar or officer shall, after the conditions set out in the Schedule to this Act have been complied with, give the certificate applied for unless the certificate is forbidden or a caveat is in operation as provided in that Schedule, or some legal impediment to the marriage is shown to the registrar or officer to exist.

(2) If a person—

(a) knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or signs a false notice of marriage for the purpose of a certificate under this section; or

(b) forbids the granting of a certificate under this section by falsely representing himself to be a person who is authorized to forbid the certificate, knowing that representation to be false, that person shall be guilty of perjury, and if the offence is committed abroad, may be tried in any county or place in the United Kingdom in which the offender may be, and dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if the offence had been committed in that county or place.

(3) If any person enters a caveat on grounds which the registrar or officer or, in case of appeal, the Registrar-General declares to be frivolous, that person shall be liable to pay as a debt to the applicant for the certificate such sum as the registrar or officer or, in the case of appeal, the Registrar-General considers to be proper compensation for the damage caused to the applicant by the entering of the caveat.

(4) Such fees may be charged in respect of any notice of an intended marriage, or any application for or grant of a certificate, or the entering of a caveat under this section, as may be fixed, as respects certificates to be granted by or caveats entered with registrars, by the Registrar-General, with the consent of His Majesty in Council, and, as respects certificates to be granted by or caveats entered with a marriage officer, as may be fixed by Order under the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891.*

Marriage of foreigners with British subjects in the United Kingdom.

2.—(1) Where arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of His Majesty with any foreign country for the issue by the proper officers of that country, in the case of persons subject to the marriage law of that country proposing to marry British subjects in the United Kingdom, of certificates that after proper notices have been given no impediment according to the law of that country has been shown to exist to the marriage, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, make regulations—

(a) requiring any person, subject to the marriage law of that foreign country, who is to be married to a British subject in the United Kingdom, to give notice of the fact that he is subject to the marriage law of that country to the person by or in the presence of whom the marriage is to be solemnized; and

(b) forbidding any person to whom such a notice is given to solemnize the marriage or to allow it to be solemnized until such a certificate as aforesaid is produced to him.

(2) If any person knowingly acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any such regulation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to relate or have any reference to any marriages between two persons professing the Jewish religion solemnized according to the usages of the Jews in the presence of the secretary of a synagogue authorized by either the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1836,* or the Marriages (Ireland) Act, 1844,† or by the Marriage and Registration Act, 1846,‡ to register such a marriage, or of a deputy appointed by such secretary by writing under his hand, and approved by the president for the time of the London committee of deputies of the British Jews by writing under his hand.

Power to make General Regulations.

3. His Majesty may by Order in Council make general regulations prescribing the forms to be used under this Act and making such other provisions as seem necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act, and may by Order in Council revoke, alter, or add to any Order in Council made under this Act.

Interpretation.

4. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
The expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General within the meaning of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1836, and a superintendent registrar of marriages within the meaning of the Marriage Act, 1836; and

The expression "marriage officer" means a marriage officer for the time being under the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,§ and includes any person for the time being empowered to register a marriage under section 18 of that Act.

Application to Scotland.

5. In the application of this Act to Scotland—

- (1) References to the forbidding of a certificate shall not apply;
- (2) A reference to a caveat shall be construed as a reference to an objection, and the provisions respecting the entry of a caveat on frivolous grounds shall not apply;
- (3) The expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General of births, deaths, and marriages in Scotland, and the registrar of births, deaths, and marriages for a parish or district under the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages (Scotland) Act, 1854|| and the Acts amending that Act;
- (4) Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 2 shall be read as if the following words were inserted after the word "solemnized," namely, "or to any registrar, law agent, or other person whom he desires to draw up any declaration of irregular marriage between him and a British subject"; and paragraph (b) of the same subsection shall be read as if the following words were inserted after the word "solemnized," namely, "or to aid in effecting the said irregular marriage";
- (5) The duly appointed minister of a synagogue shall be substituted in subsection (3) of section 2 for the secretary of the synagogue or deputy as described in that subsection.

Application to Ireland.

6. In the application of this Act to Ireland the expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General and registrar within the meaning of the Marriages (Ireland) Act, 1844.

Short Title.

7. This Act may be cited as the Marriage with Foreigners Act, 1906.

SCHEDULE—PART I.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE EXCEPT IN SCOTLAND.

A.—Conditions.

1. The applicant shall sign a notice stating the name, surname, profession, condition, nationality, and residence of each of the parties to the marriage, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor.

2. The applicant shall at the time of giving the notice make and subscribe in a book to be kept by the registrar or officer for the purpose, an oath—

- (a) that the applicant believes that there is no impediment to the marriage by reason of kindred or alliance, or otherwise; and
- (b) That the applicant has for three weeks immediately preceding had his usual residence within the district of the registrar or officer; and

(c) if the applicant, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or that there is no person having authority to give that consent, as the case may be.

3. The registrar or officer shall file every such notice and keep it with the archives of his office, and shall forthwith enter in a book of notices to be kept by him for the purpose, and post up in some conspicuous place in his office a copy of every such notice, and shall keep it so posted up for at least twenty-one days.

4. The book in which the notice is entered, and the copy posted up, shall be open at all reasonable times without fee to the inspection of any person.

B.—Provisions as to forbidding Certificate, and as to Caveats.

5. Any person whose consent is required by law to marriages solemnized in England may forbid the certificate by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the application in the book of notices, and by subscribing thereto his name and residence and the character by reason of which he is authorized to forbid the certificate.

6. (a) Any person may enter with the registrar or officer a caveat against the granting of the certificate, signed by him or in his behalf and stating his residence and the grounds of his objection.

(b) The registrar or officer shall examine into the matter of the caveat and decide whether it ought to obstruct the giving of the certificate or not, but he may if he thinks fit refer the matter to the Registrar-General to decide. If the registrar or officer decides the question himself, and decides that the caveat ought to obstruct the granting of the certificate, the applicant for the certificate may appeal to the Registrar-General in manner provided by regulations made under this Act.

(c) The caveat shall cease to operate—

- (i) if withdrawn by the persons entering it; or
- (ii) if it is decided by the registrar or officer or by the Registrar-General on appeal that it ought not to obstruct the giving of the certificate.

PART II.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE IN SCOTLAND.

A.—Conditions.

1. The applicant shall give a notice to the registrar of the parish or district in which he shall have resided for a period of not less than fifteen clear days previous to the giving thereof. Such notice shall be in the form as nearly as may be set forth in Schedule A to the Marriage Notice (Scotland) Act, 1878,¶ but shall state, in addition to the particulars therein set out, the nationality of the parties to the intended marriage.

2. On the receipt of a notice of an intended marriage the registrar, being satisfied that the notice is conformable to the requirements of this Act, shall forthwith enter the particulars set forth in the notice in the Marriage Notice Book kept in terms of the Marriage Notice (Scotland) Act, 1878, and shall on the same day post or put up in a conspicuous and accessible place on the door or outer wall of his office a public notice of the intended marriage, in the form as nearly as may be set forth in the Schedule B. annexed to the said last-mentioned Act, but stating, in addition to the particulars therein set out, the nationality of the parties to the intended marriage, and shall keep the same so posted or put up for seven consecutive days thereafter.

B.—Provisions as to Objections.

3. (a) Any person may enter with the registrar an objection against the granting of the certificate signed by him or on his behalf, and stating his residence and the grounds of his objection.

(b) The registrar shall refer any objection to the Registrar-General, who shall decide whether it ought to obstruct the granting of the certificate or not, and shall instruct the registrar accordingly, and the instructions so given shall be carried out by the registrar.

(c) The objection shall cease to operate—

- (i) if withdrawn by the person entering it; or
- (ii) if it is decided by the Registrar-General that it ought not to obstruct the granting of the certificate.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR AMENDING AND CONSOLIDATING ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS.

52 Vict., c. 10.—May 31, 1889.

1.—(1.) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time, by commission signed by him, appoint persons being practising solicitors, or other fit and proper persons, to be commissioners for oaths, and may revoke any such appointment.

(2.) A commissioner for oaths may, by virtue of his commission, in England or elsewhere, administer any oath or take any affidavit for the purposes of any court or matter in England, including any of the ecclesiastical courts or jurisdictions, matters ecclesiastical, matters relating to applications for notarial faculties, and matters relating to the registration of any instrument, whether under an Act of Parliament or otherwise, and take any bail or recognizance in or for the purpose of any civil proceeding in the Supreme Court, including all proceedings on the revenue side of the Queen's Bench Division.

(3.) Provided that a commissioner for oaths shall not exercise any of the powers given by this section in any proceeding in which he is solicitor to any of the parties to the proceeding, or clerk to any such solicitor, or in which he is interested.

2. Every person who, being an officer of or performing duties in relation to any court, is for the time being so authorized by a judge of the court, or by or in pursuance of any rules or orders regulating the procedure of the court, and every person directed to take an examination in any cause or matter in the Supreme Court, shall have authority to administer any oath or take any affidavit required for any purpose connected with his duties.

3.—(1.) Any oath or affidavit required for the purpose of any court or matter in England, or for the purpose of the registration of any instrument in any part of the United Kingdom, may be taken or made in any place out of England before any person having authority to administer an oath in that place.

(2.) In the case of a person having such authority otherwise than by the law of a foreign country, judicial and official notice shall be taken of his seal or signature affixed, impressed, or subscribed to or on any such oath or affidavit.

4. The Lord Chancellor may, whenever it appears to him necessary to do so, authorize any person to administer oaths and take affidavits for any purpose relating to prize proceedings in the Supreme Court, whilst that person is on the high seas or out of Her Majesty's dominions, and it shall not be necessary to affix any stamp to the document by which he is so authorized.

5. Every commissioner before whom any oath or affidavit is taken or made under this Act shall state truly in the jurat or attestation at what place and on what date the oath or affidavit is taken or made.

6.—(1.) Every British ambassador, envoy, minister, chargé d'affaires, and secretary of embassy or legation exercising his functions in any foreign country, and every British consul-general, consul, vice-consul, acting consul, pro-consul, and consular agent, [acting consul-general, acting vice-consul, and acting consular agent]* exercising his functions in any foreign place may, in that country or place, administer any oath and take any affidavit, and also do any notarial act which any notary public can do within the United Kingdom; and every oath, affidavit, and notarial act administered, sworn, or done by or before any such person shall be as effectual as if duly administered, sworn, or done by or before any lawful authority in any part of the United Kingdom.

(2.) Any document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereon or thereto the seal and signature of any person authorised by this section to administer an oath in testimony of any oath, affidavit, or act being administered, taken, or done by or before him, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of the seal or signature being the seal or signature of that person, or of the official character of that person.

7. Whoever wilfully and corruptly swears falsely in any oath or affidavit taken or made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of perjury in every case where if he had so sworn in a judicial proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction he would be guilty of perjury.

8. Whoever forges, counterfeits, or fraudulently alters the seal or signature of any person authorized by or under this Act to administer an oath, or tenders in evidence, or otherwise uses, any affidavit having any seal or signature so forged or counterfeited or fraudulently altered, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or fraudulently altered, shall be guilty of felony, and liable on conviction to penal servitude for any term not exceeding seven years and not less than five years, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two years.

9. Any offence under this Act, whether committed within or without Her Majesty's dominions, may be inquired of, dealt with, tried, and punished in any county or place in the United Kingdom in which the person charged with the offence was apprehended or is in custody, and for all purposes incidental to or consequential on the trial or punishment the offence shall be deemed to have been committed in that county or place.

10. Where any offence under this Act is alleged to have been committed with respect to any affidavit, a judge of any court before which the affidavit is produced may order the affidavit to be impounded and kept in such custody and for such time and on such conditions as he thinks fit.

11. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"Oath" includes affirmation and declaration;

"Affidavit" includes affirmation, statutory or other declaration, acknowledgment, examination, and attestation or protestation of honour;

"Swear" includes affirm, declare, and protest;

"Supreme Court" means the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

12. The enactments specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in that schedule.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

(a) anything done or suffered under any enactment repealed by this Act; nor

(b) any appointment made under or authority given by or in pursuance of any enactment so repealed; nor

(c) any punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence committed before the commencement of this Act against any enactment so repealed; nor

(d) any legal proceeding for enforcing any such punishment;

and any such legal proceeding may be instituted or continued, and any such punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

13. A commissioner authorized before the commencement of this Act to administer oaths in the Supreme Court shall be deemed to be a commissioner for oaths within the meaning of this Act.

14. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the first day of January, 1890.

15. This Act may be cited as the Commissioners for Oaths Act, 1889.

* The words in brackets were inserted by Act 54 and 55 Vic., c. 50.—August 5, 1891.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO PREVENT THE DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION.

52 & 53 Vict., c. 52.—August 26, 1889.

1.—(1.) (a.) Where a person for the purpose of wrongfully obtaining information—

(i.) enters or is in any part of a place belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, being a fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place, in which part he is not entitled to be; or

(ii.) when lawfully or unlawfully in any such place as aforesaid, either obtains any document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge of any thing which he is not entitled to obtain, or takes without lawful authority any sketch or plan; or

(iii.) when outside any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, or camp belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, takes or attempts to take without authority given by or on behalf of Her Majesty, any sketch or plan of that fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, or camp; or

(b.) where a person knowingly having possession of, or control over, any such document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge as has been obtained or taken by means of any act which constitutes an offence against this Act at any time wilfully and without lawful authority communicates or attempts to communicate the same to any person to whom the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time; or

(c.) where a person after having been entrusted in confidence by some officer under Her Majesty the Queen with any document, sketch, plan, model, or information relating to any such place as aforesaid, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, wilfully and in breach of such confidence communicates the same when, in the interest of the State, it ought not to be communicated; he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(2.) Where a person having possession of any document, sketch, plan, model, or information relating to any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place belonging to Her Majesty, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, in whatever manner the same has been obtained or taken, at any time wilfully communicates the same to any person to whom he knows the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to the same punishment as if he committed an offence under the foregoing provisions of this section.

(3.) Where a person commits any act declared by this section to be a misdemeanor, he shall, if he intended to communicate to a foreign State any information, document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge obtained or taken by him, or entrusted to him as aforesaid, or if he communicates the same to any agent of a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the court to penal servitude for life or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

2.—(1.) Where a person, by means of his holding or having held an office under Her Majesty the Queen, has lawfully or unlawfully either obtained possession of or control over any document, sketch, plan, or model, or acquired any information, and at any time corruptly or contrary to his official duty communicates or attempts to communicate that document, sketch, plan, model, or information to any person to whom the same ought not, in the interest of the State, or otherwise in the public interest, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a breach of official trust.

(2.) A person guilty of a breach of official trust shall—

(a.) if the communication was made or attempted to be made to a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the court to penal servitude for life, or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour; and

(b.) in any other case be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(3.) This section shall apply to a person holding a contract with any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, or with the holder of any office under Her Majesty the Queen as such holder, where such contract involves an obligation of secrecy, and to any person employed by any person or body of persons holding such a contract, who is under a like obligation of secrecy, as if the person holding the contract and the person so employed were respectively holders of an office under Her Majesty the Queen.

3. Any person who incites or counsels, or attempts to procure, another person to commit an offence under this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to the same punishment as if he had committed the offence.

4. The expenses of the prosecution of a misdemeanor under this Act shall be defrayed in like manner as in the case of a felony.

5. If by any law made before or after the passing of this Act by the legislature of any British possession provisions are made which appear to Her Majesty the Queen to be of the like effect as those contained in this Act, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, suspend the operation within such British possession of this Act, or of any part thereof, so long as such law continues in force there, and no longer, and such order shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act:

Provided that the suspension of this Act, or of any part thereof, in any British possession shall not extend to the holder of an office under Her Majesty the Queen who is not appointed to that office by the Government of that possession.

The expression "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions not within the United Kingdom.

6.—(1.) This Act shall apply to all acts made offences by this Act when committed in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or when committed by British officers or subjects elsewhere.

(2.) An offence under this Act, if alleged to have been committed out of the United Kingdom, may be inquired of, heard, and determined, in any competent British court in the place where the offence was committed, or in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England, or the Central Criminal Court, and the Act of the forty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter eighty-five, shall apply in like manner as if the offence were mentioned in that Act, and the Central Criminal Court as well as the High Court possessed the jurisdiction given by that Act to the Court of King's Bench.

(3.) An offence under this Act shall not be tried by any court of general or quarter sessions, nor by the sheriff court in Scotland, nor by any court out of the United Kingdom which has no jurisdiction to try crimes which involve the greatest punishment allowed by law.

(4.) The provisions of the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887, shall not apply to any trial under the provisions of this Act.

7.—(1.) A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General.

(2.) In this section the expression "Attorney-General" means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for England; and as respects Scotland, means the Lord Advocate; and as respects Ireland, means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for Ireland; and if the prosecution is instituted in any court out of the United Kingdom, means the person who in that court is Attorney-General, or exercises the like functions as the Attorney-General in England.

8. (Definitions).

9. This Act shall not exempt any person from any proceeding for an offence which is punishable at common law, or by military or naval law, or under any Act of Parliament other than this Act, so, however, that no person be punished twice for the same offence.

10. This Act may be cited as the Official Secrets Act, 1889.

OUTFITS (Diplomatic). See pages 160 and 161.OUTFITS (Consular).—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions of 1907.

Outfit allowances are granted on the following scale :—

- (a.) On 1st appointment,  $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary.
- (b.) On transfer, with promotion in rank,  $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary.
- (c.) On transfer, without promotion in rank,  $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary.
- (d.) On promotion in rank, without transfer,  $\frac{1}{2}$ th of annual salary.
- (e.) On first appointment in the Consular service at a place where officer already resides,  $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary.

Promotion in rank is promotion to the rank of Consul-General, Consul, or Judge, and does not comprise transfers to higher grades or to posts with larger salaries without higher rank.

The 5*l.* unit is adopted in the calculation of the total outfit allowance. When the fraction does not amount to so much as 2*l.* 10*s.*, it is abated from the allowance; and when it amounts to 2*l.* 10*s.*, or more, it is reckoned as 5*l.*, and so included in the allowance.

When the salary assigned to a post is on a scale of increments, the mean salary is taken as the basis of calculation in all cases in fixing the amount of the outfit allowance.

In the case of new appointments and of transfers and promotions the outfit allowance is not payable until shortly before departure on a direct journey to the new post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Diplomatic). See Regulations, section 11, page 84.PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).Countries other than China, Corea, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 7 of General Consular Instructions of 1907.

Travelling allowances, as specified below, are paid to salaried Consular officers not engaged in trade.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to travelling allowances. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

- (a.) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and one-third of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant. In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, and 6*s.* 8*d.* a-night for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed wine allowance of 3*s.* 6*d.* a-day, or of 4*s.* 2*d.* if accompanied by his wife, provided wine is not included in the fares.

An officer transferred while on leave of absence is paid similar expenses from London, if he is in the United Kingdom, or from such place as he is in outside the United Kingdom, to his new post if, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the circumstances justify such a course.

- (b.) On returning home on leave of absence after a continuous residence of five complete years he is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, and one-third of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph; and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence money.
- (c.) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate.

The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.

- (d.) In the case of a voyage by sea formal application must be made to the steam-ship company for any reduction of fare which may be available for official passengers.

- (e.) Consular officers employed on special duty under the authority of the Secretary of State will receive payment of their travelling expenses, which may include either the actual cost of their maintenance or an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, according to circumstances, as the Secretary of State may determine.

- (f.) If conveyed in a British man-of-war the Consular officer must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently.

A Consul-General or Consul is entertained at the Captain's table at the rate of 1*l.* 1*s.* a-day for the first fourteen days, and of 1*s.* subsequently. A Vice-Consul is entertained at the ward-room mess at the rate of 1*2s.* for the first fourteen days, and of 9*s.* subsequently.

No gratuities to the crews of His Majesty's ships or to any Government servants can be charged to public funds.

- (g.) Charges for luggage must not include transport of furniture, wine, or other heavy effects, nor can the cost of insurance be admitted.

- (h.) A detailed statement of expenses on account of journeys, accompanied by the necessary vouchers, stating separately the amounts paid on the officer's own account and on that of his family, must be forwarded to the Secretary of State in a numbered despatch of the Consular series, on receipt of which the amount, if found correct, will be paid to his agent in England. If he has no agent he will receive authority to charge it in his account current.

Charges for luggage and other miscellaneous expenditure which cannot be strictly apportioned between the officer and his family must be divided as follows:—one half for the officer and the other half for his family.

Vice-Consuls forward their claims through their superintending Consuls.

- (i.) Government is not responsible for loss or damage of baggage or effects of Consular officers, even while travelling on duty.

Consular Service in China, Japan, Corea, and Siam.—Ch. XXXVI of General Consular Instructions of 1907.

1. An officer on a first appointment to China, Japan, Corea, or Siam shall be paid the whole of the expense of the passage for himself alone, and the third of the expense for his wife and family,* the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a female servant. These payments will be made by the Foreign Office on production of the tickets for the passage.

2. On returning home on regulation leave of absence such officer shall be paid one half of the expense of his own passage, and one-third for his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as in section 1. In this case the payments will be made in the country of the establishment to which he belongs, under the authority of His Majesty's Diplomatic Representative, who will take care to notify all particulars to the Foreign Office.

3. A similar indulgence shall be granted in cases of leave of absence obtained at any time on sick certificate.

4. This arrangement will also be applied to all cases of officers returning from England to the Far East.

5. A person removed from one post to another for the public convenience, and a person directed to proceed from one post to another on the public service, or for the purpose of supplying temporarily the place of an absent person, will be allowed such amount of expenses of going and returning as His Majesty's Diplomatic Representative, on presentation of an account accompanied by vouchers, shall deem reasonable. The expense of the entertainment of Consular officers on board ships of war should, when practicable, be paid for at once by the officer to whom it is afforded, and the Diplomatic Representative will authorize the repayment of such expense from Consular funds in any case in which the officer so entertained has been received on board on public grounds.

* This clause does not apply to Student Interpreters, marriage not being permitted during the period of studentship.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. APPLICATIONS for Foreign Office Passports must be made in the form printed on the back of these Regulations, and enclosed in a cover addressed to "THE PASSPORT DEPARTMENT, FOREIGN OFFICE, LONDON, S.W." They must reach the Foreign Office before 5 p.m. on the day prior to that on which the Passport is to be issued.

2. The charge for a Passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is 2s. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of 11 and 4 ON THE DAY FOLLOWING THAT ON WHICH THE APPLICATION FOR THE PASSPORT HAS BEEN RECEIVED, except on Sundays and Public holidays, when the Passport Office is closed. If the applicant does not reside in London, the Passport may be sent by post, and a Postal Order for 2s. should in that case accompany the application. POSTAGE STAMPS WILL NOT BE RECEIVED IN PAYMENT.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted—

- (1.) To natural-born British subjects, viz., persons born within His Majesty's Dominions, and to persons born abroad who derive British nationality from a father or paternal grandfather born within His Majesty's Dominions, and who, under the provisions of the Acts 4 George II, cap. 21, and 13 George III, cap. 21, are to be adjudged and taken to be natural-born British subjects.
- (2.) To the wives and widows of such persons; and
- (3.) To persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Colonies, or in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted to such persons as are known to the Secretary of State, or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or—

- (1.) In the case of natural-born British subjects and persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, upon the production of a Declaration by the applicant in the form printed at the back of these Regulations, verified by a Declaration made by any Banking Firm established in the United Kingdom, or by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Barrister-at-law, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. The applicant's Certificate of Birth may also be required in certain cases.
- (2.) In the case of children under the age of 14 years requiring a separate Passport, upon production of a Declaration made by the child's parent or guardian, in a Form (B), to be obtained upon application to the Foreign Office.
- (3.) In the case of persons naturalized in any of the British Colonies, upon production of a Letter of Recommendation from the Colonial Office; and in the case of natives of British India, and persons naturalized therein, upon production of a Letter of Recommendation from the India Office.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the Certificate of Naturalization must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the Declaration or Letter of Recommendation. Naturalized British subjects, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their Passports at the Foreign Office; if resident in the country, the Passport will be sent, and the Certificate of Naturalization returned, to the person who may have verified the Declaration, for delivery to the applicant.

Naturalized British subjects will be described as such in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Foreign Office Passports are not available beyond five years from the date of issue. Fresh Passports must then be obtained.

7. A Passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office, or by an Agent at an outpost, on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

8. Travellers who intend to visit the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, the Kingdom of Roumania, Persia, Colombia, Venezuela, Hayti, or Eritrea, in the course of their travels, must not leave the United Kingdom without having had their Passports visas either at the Russian Consulate-General, Windsor Chambers, 20, Great St. Helen's, E.C.; the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 140, Leadenhall Street, E.C.; the Roumanian Consulate-General, 49, Parliament Street, S.W.; the Persian Consulate-General, 122, Victoria Street, S.W.; the Colombian Consulate-General, Friars House, New Broad Street, E.C.; the Venezuelan Consulate, Finsbury Pavement House, Finsbury Pavement, E.C.; the Haytian Consulate, 32, Fenchurch Street, E.C.; or the Italian Consulate-General (for Eritrea), 44, Finsbury Square, E.C.; respectively, or at one of the other Consulates of those States in the United Kingdom. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country.

Foreign Office, February, 1907.

N.B.—A statement of the requirements of Foreign Countries with regard to Passports may be obtained upon application to "The Passport Department, Foreign Office, London, S.W." (See page 130.)

Foreign Office Passport Agent at Hull.

PASSPORT REQUIREMENTS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

NOTE.—British subjects travelling abroad are recommended to furnish themselves with Passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification in case of need.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.—Passengers for the Argentine Republic should carry Passports, and are advised to also carry Certificates of Birth. Persons born in His Majesty's dominions should, if they intend to become resident, even for a short time, obtain from a British Consulate in the Republic a Certificate of Nationality for purposes of identification, and to secure exemption from military service.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.—Persons entering Hungary from Servia or Roumania must be provided with Passports. Although in other cases Passports are not legally necessary, travellers are advised to carry them. For purposes of residence a Passport or other document to prove identity is necessary.

BELGIUM.—It is desirable for travellers to possess Passports. For purposes of residence registration at the Police Office of the district is required, and a Passport is accepted as evidence of identity.

BOLIVIA.—See PERU.

BRAZIL.—Passports not actually required, but travellers are advised to carry them for purposes of identification. If intending to become resident they should register their names and addresses at the nearest British Consulate.

BULGARIA.—Travellers should carry Passports of recent date. Bulgarian visa not required. Residents should provide themselves annually with Certificates of Registration under the Ottoman Order in Council.

CENTRAL AMERICA.—Possession of Passports desirable both for personal security and purposes of identification.

Costa Rica.—No Regulations in force.

Guatemala.—Alien residents are required to present at the Guatemalan Foreign Office Passports visés by the Diplomatic or Consular officer in Guatemala of their native country.

Honduras.—No Regulations except in times of disturbance.

Nicaragua.—No Regulations in time of peace. To leave the country, a local Passport has, however, to be obtained from the Ministry of War.

Salvador.—Travellers should carry Passports, and should, in addition, obtain Passports from the Government of Salvador. (Charge for latter, 25 cents.)

CHILE.—No Regulations in force.

CHINA.—Passports are not required at open ports. For travelling into the interior a special Passport must be obtained from a British Consul, which is valid for one year. (Cost, 3 dol. 50 c. Mexican.)

COLOMBIA.—British Subjects proceeding to the Republic of Colombia must provide themselves with Passports, visés by the Colombian Minister or by a Consul of the Republic in the United Kingdom. For travelling in the interior it is advisable to obtain Special Passport from a British Consul (charge 2s. 6d.). Immigrants without resources must be provided with a Passport issued gratis by the Colombian Consul at point of departure.

COREA.—Passports are not required within the radius of 100 li (33 miles) from the open ports. Persons travelling in the interior must obtain a Passport through the British Consul. (Fee, 3'50 yen, about 7s.)

CUBA.—Although Passports are not legally necessary, travellers are advised to carry them. Persons intending to reside in Cuba for any length of time should have their names registered at the British Consulate-General.

DENMARK.—No Regulations in force. But Passports or similar documents may be required by the Police from persons accepting employment in Denmark before furnishing them with an "opholdsbog" (situation book), and also from music hall artistes.

Iceland.—No Regulations in force.

St. Thomas.—No Regulations in force. A local Government Passport must, however, be procured when leaving the island, the cost of which varies according to destination.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.—Passport necessary. In order to leave the country a Dominican Passport must, in addition, be obtained, for which a fee of about 1*l.* is charged.

EGYPT.—Passports not required by law, but travellers are advised to carry them. For travelling in other parts of the Ottoman dominions, see TURKISH EMPIRE.

Sudan.—Persons desiring to enter the Sudan, travelling third class, unless they are officials of the Government, or are travelling on Government Warrants, or are bona fide natives of the Sudan, must apply for Permits to the Sudan Agent, Cairo, the Sudan Government Railways Agent at Alexandria, the Sudan Government Agent at Suez, the Governor of Halfa, the Governor of the Red Sea Province, or the Inspector at Port Sudan.

Persons proceeding south or west of El Obeid or Bara must obtain a Permit from the Governor of Kordofan or his representative at El Obeid or Bara.

All Europeans are recommended to report their arrival, personally or in writing, at any place where an official holding the post of Sub-Mamur, or any superior post, is stationed.

EQUATOR.—See PERU.

FRANCE.—The possession of a Passport may save inconvenience, since evidence of identity may at any time be required.

If produced as evidence of identity at a Post Office, the Passport may require to be countersigned by the British Consul for the district.

For permanent residence, or in order to exercise profession or trade, a declaration, furnishing particulars with respect to the family, nationality, profession, &c., of the person making the declaration, is required to be made at the Mairie of the Commune within a few days of arrival.

Algeria.—Regulations similar to France, both as regards Passports and residence, &c.

French Guiana.—Regulations similar to France, both as regards Passports and residence, &c.

Madagascar.—Travellers are advised to carry Passports.

Martinique, Réunion, Saigon.—Regulations similar to France, both as regards Passports and residence, &c.

New Caledonia.—Possession of Passport desirable in view of existence of penal establishment.

Tahiti.—No Regulations affecting Europeans in force.

Tunis.—Regulations similar to France, both as regards Passports and residence, &c.

GERMAN EMPIRE.—Military officers travelling to Germany should be provided with Passports; and although in other cases the possession of a Passport is not obligatory, yet, as evidence of identity may at any time be required, travellers are advised to carry them. For residence of more than three weeks a Passport is absolutely necessary. Children sent to schools in Germany should carry Passports.

GREECE.—No Regulations in force, except as regards persons entering the country by the land frontier, who are sometimes required to be in possession of Passports.

HAYTI.—A Passport (visé by a Haytian Consul) must, on arrival, be shown at the Port Office. It should also be produced and registered at the nearest British Consulate. On leaving the country a Haytian permit has to be obtained, as to which the British Consul should be consulted.

ITALY.—The possession of a Passport is not obligatory, but travellers may at any time be required to give a satisfactory account of themselves, and to establish their identity.

British subjects producing Passports at Italian Post Offices for purposes of personal identification may be required to obtain certified translations of the same from the British Consul.

Eritrea.—Travellers proceeding to Italian Colonies should, unless they carry special letters of recommendation to the authorities, provide themselves with Passports, and obtain a visa from an Italian Consulate.

JAPAN.—Travellers are advised to carry Passports.

LIBERIA.—No Regulations in force, but a Passport, issued by the Liberian Secretary of State, is required from residents leaving the country. For this 50 cents is charged.

MEXICO.—No Regulations in force.

MONTENEGRO.—No special Regulations exist, but a Passport properly visé is required for travelling through the surrounding Turkish and Austrian territories.

Morocco.—It is advisable for travellers to be provided with Passports, which are sometimes necessary, e.g., for travelling inland, or for embarking on board the French steamers for Oran. Any one wishing to travel into the interior should consult His Majesty's Minister at Tangier or the British Consul for the district through which his route lies.

British subjects residing for more than a month in Morocco are required, under the Morocco Order in Council, 1889, to register themselves at the British Consulate.

MUSCAT.—No Regulations exist. Travelling in the interior is unsafe without an armed escort.

NETHERLANDS.—The possession of a Passport is not strictly necessary, but is recommended for purposes of identification.

Dutch Guiana : Curacao and Dependencies.—No Regulations in force. Travellers are advised to provide themselves with Passports as evidence of nationality.

Netherland East Indies.—Travellers, on arrival, must register themselves at the Office of the chief Local authority. For travelling inland in the islands, or for residence, a Passport must also be obtained from the Local authorities, respecting which the British Consul should be consulted.

NORWAY.—No Regulations in force.

PARAGUAY.—No Regulations in force. Neither Passports nor Certificates of Nationality are required from foreigners by the local authorities. It is as well, however, for persons travelling in the interior of the country to be provided with Passports.

PERSIA.—A Passport bearing the visa of a Persian Consular Officer must be produced on entering Persia, and the Passport should be countersigned by the Persian Passport officer before leaving the country.

PERU, EQUATOR, AND BOLIVIA.—A Passport is not actually necessary, but it is desirable to possess one in order to be able to obtain from a British Diplomatic or Consular officer the Certificate of Nationality required in the event of civil disturbances.

PORTUGAL.—Travellers are advised to provide themselves with Passports. For residence in Portugal or Portuguese Colonies a Passport or other proof of nationality is required, in order to obtain the necessary permission.

Azores.—The possession of a Passport is advisable.

Cape Verde Islands.—Passports are not actually required, except in times of public danger, but they are useful in view of the fact that all foreigners have to personally register themselves at the Mayor's Office as soon as possible after arrival.

Loanda.—Passport necessary.

Madeira.—No Regulations in force.

Mozambique.—Travellers should be provided with Passports.

ROUMANIA.—Persons travelling to Roumania must be provided with Passports bearing the visa of a Roumanian Consul in the United Kingdom. A fresh visa must be obtained for each journey. On arrival, they should at once obtain the visa of the British Legation or of a British Consulate, and then, within twenty-four hours of arrival, apply to the Roumanian authorities for a Permit to reside in the country. For a stay of less than eight days, this formality may be dispensed with, and the Permit will be stated upon the Passport by the police officials at the frontier.

RUSSIA.—Visitors to Russia must be provided with Passports bearing the visa of a Russian Diplomatic or Consular officer. Without such visa they will not be allowed to enter the country. To persons of the Jewish faith the visa is only granted in special circumstances, as to which the Russian Consular Officer should be consulted, and in any case such persons are subject to special Regulations in Russia.

The Passport will enable the holder to reside in Russia for six months, when it must be exchanged at the Prefecture of St. Petersburg or at the Chancery of a Provincial Governor, for a Russian "Billet de Séjour," to be renewed annually.

The cost of such a "Billet de Séjour" varies from 7 r. 15 c. to 1 r. 29 c. Each "Billet de Séjour," on first issue or renewal, must be delivered to the local police officer for inscription or visa. For non-renewal of a "Billet de Séjour" at the time of its expiration a fine is exacted.

On leaving Russia a Police Certificate must be obtained, which is granted on the first visit of the traveller to Russia at a cost of 75 copecks. On subsequent visits 6 r. 50 c. is charged. If a "Billet de Séjour" has been obtained it must be returned, when the Passport will be handed back to the owner with the necessary authorization to leave.

In the case of persons travelling through Russia, without stopping at any point within the Empire, the visa of a Russian Consular Officer "to travel through Russia" will be accepted as sufficient, both for the purpose of entering and leaving the country, without obligation to obtain the police authorization to leave necessary in case of a stay in Russia.

Travellers to Russia should on each journey obtain a new Passport to avoid the necessity of obtaining a "Billet de Séjour" on arrival, which they will be required to do when a Passport is used six months after the date of the Russian visa attached to it.

SERVIA.—Travellers must be provided with Passports.

SIAM.—No special Regulations in force, but British subjects are required to register themselves at the British Consulate-General within one month of arrival. For travelling in the interior a Passport must be obtained from the Siamese Government. Fee for registration, 2s. 6d.; and for Passport, 2s.

SPAIN.—It is most advisable for travellers to be provided with Passports. The visa of a Spanish Consul is not necessary, but will be found useful in travelling in provincial towns and country districts.

In the Province of Barcelona, British subjects should, upon arrival, personally show their Passports to His Majesty's Consul-General, who will thereupon furnish them with a Certificate, which they are required to present, within twenty-four hours after their arrival in Barcelona, at the Office of the Civil Governor (in country towns and villages at the Office of the Mayor) in order that their names, description, &c., may be registered. A fine and possibly expulsion may result from non-compliance with this Regulation.

Canary Islands.—No Regulations in force.

Ceuta.—British subjects desiring to visit Ceuta should apply through the British Vice-Consul at Algeciras for an order from the Commandante-General.

SWEDEN.—No Regulations in force.

SWITZERLAND.—A Passport is necessary in order to obtain a "Permis de Séjour," which must be taken out, after their arrival, by persons intending to reside in Switzerland. Children sent to schools in Switzerland should carry Passports.

TURKISH EMPIRE.—Persons travelling to Turkey must be provided with a Passport bearing the visa of a Turkish Consular officer. Without such Passport they will be refused admission to the country. A fresh visa must be obtained for each journey. British subjects desiring afterwards to travel within Turkey must obtain a Permit through a British Consul. On leaving Turkey the visa of a British Consul should be obtained.

Tripoli.—Regulations similar to Turkey.

UNITED STATES.—No Regulations in force.

Hawaiian Islands.—No Regulations in force.

Philippine Islands.—Passports not required.

Porto Rico.—Travellers are advised to carry Passports.

URUGUAY.—No Regulations affecting Europeans in force. Travellers are, however, advised to have Passports as evidence of nationality, in case of need.

VENEZUELA.—Travellers should be provided with Passports bearing the visa of a Venezuelan Consular officer.

PENSIONS.

(COMMUTATION.)

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTA- TION ACT, 1871 to 1882 (34 and 35 Vict., c. 36, and 45 and 46 Vict., c. 44).

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office* in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871 to 1882 must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act of 1871, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration, but no application from any retired Civil Servant under the age of 50 years, for the commutation of the whole of his allowance, will be proceeded with without the special sanction of the Treasury.

3. The person will then receive further instruction from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, London, E.C.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

*N.B.—By the 2nd section of the Act, the term "public civil office" means any office other than that of an officer in His Majesty's Naval or Land Forces, the holder of which is paid his remuneration out of the moneys provided by Parliament for supply services.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3*l.* 3*s.* within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

8. In the event of any applicant for commutation desiring to withdraw his application before he has been examined by the Medical Officer of the Board he shall be at liberty so to withdraw on payment of any expense not exceeding 3*l.* 3*s.* which may have been actually incurred by the Board on his account.

9. It is lawful for the Treasury, upon the recommendation of the Commutation Board, to commute part of a Civil Compensation Allowance, in which case it is prescribed that, "in commuting any portion of a pension after the first, there shall be charged a fee of not less than three per cent. on the further capital sum allowed, provided that such fee shall never be less than 5*l.* nor more than 50*l.*"

NOTE.—Regulations respecting the partial commutation of pensions were made by the Treasury on October 28, 1882; December 6, 1883; and December 21, 1897.

PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871 (34 &amp; 35 Vict., c. 36).

[Sections 3 and 4 (omitting Sub-sections 2 and 3), 7, 9, and 10.]

3. This Act shall apply only—

(1.) To officers in Her Majesty's naval or land forces; and

(2.) To persons who have retired or have been removed from public civil offices in consequence of the abolition of their offices, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the departments to which they belonged, and to whom annual pensions have been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal.

4. It shall be lawful for the Treasury, in accordance with such regulations as they may from time to time make, on the application of any person to whom this Act applies, to commute his pension by the payment of a capital sum of money, calculated according to the estimated duration of the life of the pension-holder, subject to the following provisions:—

(1.) In calculating the amount payable in respect of the commutation of any pension, the following rules shall be observed:—

(a.) The age of the pension-holder shall be reckoned at the age he will attain on the birthday next succeeding his application for commutation;

(b.) In the case of impaired lives, years shall be added to the age of the pension-holder for the purpose of calculating the amount of commutation payable to him; and in like manner a deduction from age shall be made as an equivalent for the right to prospective increase of the pension to be commuted;

(c.) In calculating the amount payable in respect of any pension, interest shall be reckoned at a rate of not less than five pounds per centum per annum.

(4.) No application for the commutation of a pension shall be received unless it be accompanied, in the case of an officer who has belonged to Her Majesty's naval forces, by a recommendation from the Admiralty, and in the case of an officer who has belonged to Her Majesty's land forces, by a recommendation from the War Office, and in the case of any other person, by a recommendation from the head of the department to which the applicant belongs, unless the Treasury otherwise direct.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Treasury may from time to time make, alter, or revoke regulations as to the following matters:—

(1.) The rules according to which applications for commutation are to be made or, on payment of a prescribed fee, to be withdrawn;

(2.) The tables according to which the duration of life of applicants for commutation is to be calculated for the purposes of this Act;

(3.) The terms upon which pensions are to be commuted, and the cases in which commutation is to be refused.

9. If any applicant for commutation under this Act wilfully make any false declaration in relation to any matter or thing required by any regulation made in pursuance of this Act he shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable on conviction to forfeit all claim to his pension or the value thereof, and to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

10. If any pension-holder whose pension has been commuted in pursuance of this Act accepts any public employment, a deduction shall be made from the salary payable to him in respect of such employment equal to the amount which would have been abated from the pension if it had not been commuted; and in the event of his becoming entitled to a pension in respect of such employment, the amount of such pension granted to him shall not exceed the amount which he might have received had his pension not been so commuted.

PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1882 (45 &amp; 46 Vict., c. 44).

[Section 3.]

3. Where the Treasury have power, in pursuance of the Pensions Commutation Act, 1871, to commute the pension of any person, the Treasury shall also have power to commute a portion of such pension, and the provisions of the Pensions Commutation Acts, 1871 and 1876, shall apply accordingly to the portion of the pension in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as they apply to the whole pension.

Act of Parliament to provide for the Payment of DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

4. (Repeal of previous Acts.)

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5. All salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. The Treasury, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

- (1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
- (2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
- (3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
- (4.)* 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years.
- (2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years.
- (3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class,† and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years.
- (4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class,† or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

- (5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalid Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second of Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

† For Classification of Missions, see pages 160 and 161.

(Diplomatic.)

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission, he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versa.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 Vict., cap. 26.)*

Pension, &c., to be free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of ad taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

Act of Parliament to remove doubts as to the Qualification of

PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

1. Pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS.

- (1.) Act of Parliament to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service ("The Superannuation Act, 1834").

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

12. Provided always, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

No Compensation to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

18. No compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Treasury.

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

20. Provided always, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office, then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

21. Provided always, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

22. Between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place in the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department, or of any salary, emolument, allowance, compensation, or superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the name of every person receiving such allowance or compensation who may have died in the course of the year, together with the amount of the annual allowance payable to such person.

Civil Allowances, &c., to be laid before Parliament.

23. Provided always, That accounts of all compensations for offices abolished, and of all allowances in the nature of superannuation or retired allowances to all other persons in respect of their having held any public office or employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

* The sections of this Act of 1834 which are not repealed, and the Act of 1859, are declared by the Act of 19th April, 1859, § 18 (page 143), to be construed as one Act.

(Civil Service and Consular.)

Half-pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

25. Provided always, That all half-pay and allowances in lieu of half-pay in the several departments of the army, ordnance, navy, and marines, and all military and naval allowances or pensions granted or which shall be granted in any of such departments under the authority of any Order in Council, shall be annually laid before the Commons House of Parliament, in separate estimates, at the same time with the ordinary estimates of those respective departments, and shall be kept distinct from all pensions, compensations, superannuation and retired allowances in any of the civil offices of those departments respectively.

Compensations not provided for to be charged on Funds of Departments.

26. The compensations, superannuations, and allowances authorized as well by this as any former Act or Acts shall, when not specially provided for by Parliament, be charged upon and paid and payable by the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served.

Average of Emoluments to be made by Heads of Departments.

28. It shall be lawful for the person or persons at the head of any department in which any fees or other sources of profit may form part of the emoluments of any office in such department, to fix, with the approbation of the Treasury, or for the Admiralty if the office shall be in that department, an average sum upon which the compensation or superannuation allowance shall be granted, which sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average amount of such emoluments for the three last preceding years.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

30. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

(2.) Act of Parliament to amend the Laws concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service.

22 Vict., c. 26.—19 April, 1859.

Ordinary Rate of Superannuation Allowance.

2*. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows: (that is to say.)

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

3. Nothing herein contained shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.†

4. It shall be lawful for the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins; and by the same or any other order or warrant to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.*

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

6. † It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

7. † It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

8. It shall not be lawful for the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

9. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

10. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

11. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

12. Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

13. [Orders, &c., within what time to be laid before Parliament.]

14. [Section 6 of 57 George III, c. 65, respecting pensions to officers having had seats in Parliament.]

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

15. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

16. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted, or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

17. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a Certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of moneys voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

18. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,† as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

19. It shall be sufficient, in citing this Act, to use the expression "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

(3.) Act of Parliament to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.‡

39 & 40 Vict., c. 53.—11th August, 1876.

Unhealthy Places.

1. The Treasury may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration in the unhealthy place affected thereby, shall be the same as if it had not been made.

2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity or other allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, two years' service in an unhealthy place shall be reckoned as service for three years, and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or less period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion.

Provided that nothing in this section—

(1.) Shall alter so much of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1859, as requires a service of ten years before an annual superannuation allowance can be granted; or

(2.) Shall, without the consent of the Treasury, apply to a person who was residing in an unhealthy place when he entered the permanent civil service of the State.

Supplemental.

3. Every order under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

4. This Act shall apply to persons who have retired from the public service since the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

5. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1876.

(4.) Act of Parliament to extend certain Powers given by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873. 47 and 48 Vict., c. 57.—14th August, 1884.(Relief of persons for want of a Civil Service Certificate, &c.)

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1859, it is enacted that for the purposes of that Act no person thereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the Permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners;

And whereas it appears that in several public departments of the State persons have been appointed since the passing of the said Act to established situations in the Civil Service not held directly from the Crown, but that through inadvertence on the part of the heads of such departments, and without any default on the part of the persons so appointed, no steps were taken before their appointment to procure for them certificates from the Civil Service Commissioners;

And whereas with a view of relieving such persons from loss of the superannuation allowance or gratuities which they were led to expect when they entered the Civil Service, provision was made by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873, enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on applications by the heads of such departments, by order or warrant, to place such persons in the same position as regards their claim to a superannuation allowance or gratuity as they would have been in if they had been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners;

And whereas a further provision to the like effect was made by the Superannuation (Post Office and War Office) Act, 1876, and the Superannuation Act, 1881:

And whereas the orders or warrants under the said Acts were required to be made before the terms therein mentioned which have now passed:

And whereas notwithstanding that most of the said persons have been relieved by orders or warrants made under the said Acts, some of them still remain for whom, owing to the failure of the heads of departments to make application within the time limited by the said Acts, or owing to other causes beyond their own control, relief has not been provided.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

* See Act 47 and 48 Vict., c. 57, 1884, giving power to Treasury to make order relieving persons for want of certificate. † Page 142. ‡ For list of places declared to be unhealthy for the purposes of this Act, see page 163.

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1884.

Power to Treasury to make order relieving person for want of certificate under 22 Vict., c. 26.

2. (1.) The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, at any time on application being made to them by the head of any public department of the State, declare by order or warrant that a person who has been appointed after the date of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and before the passing of this Act, to a situation in such department entitling persons appointed thereto with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners to superannuation allowance, was appointed thereto without such a certificate through inadvertence on the part of the head of such department, and without any default on the part of the person so appointed, and every person with respect to whom such order or warrant is issued shall be in the same position as regards his claim to allowances under the Superannuation Act, 1859, as he would have been in if he had been appointed with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners.

(2.) Every order or warrant made in pursuance of this Act shall be laid before Parliament in manner provided by the thirteenth section of the said Superannuation Act, 1859.

*Provision for addition of years to service in certain cases.**

3. Where the regulations respecting an office which entitles or would, if he had continued to hold it, have entitled the holder to receive an allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859, provide that a person appointed to such office must have held a professional or other peculiar qualification for the number of years specified in the regulations, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who holds or has at any time held such office, add the number of years so specified to the number of years that such person has actually served, provided that the minute adding that number of years shall be laid before Parliament.

(5.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes.

50 and 51 Vic., c. 67.—16th September, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

(a.) In the actual discharge of his duty; and

(b.) Without his own default; and

(c.) By some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.†

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act, 1859, without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: Provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant, and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

(a.) The employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and

(b.) The remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and

(c.) He has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

6.—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has commuted the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

‡ The Rules drawn up by the Treasury under Section 6 were laid before Parliament in September, 1887. [337.]

7.*—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquisition or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.) Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance, is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

8.* On the death of a person to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government: and the expression "prescribed public department" means, as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intitled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

Treasury Warrant regulating the Grant of Gratutities and Allowances under Section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887.†—September, 1887.‡

In conformity with the provisions of the 1st section of the Superannuation Act, 1887, we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby direct that any award of a gratuity or annual allowance made under the said section shall be subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

The award shall be calculated upon one or other of the following scales, which shall respectively apply to:—

- I. Established officers of prisons or criminal lunatic asylums injured by the violence of a prisoner or lunatic; or established officers of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- II. All civil servants not falling under the above description, and also all hired persons employed in a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- III. All other hired persons employed in a public department.

SCALES I and II.

To the retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service, shall be added an allowance not exceeding the under-mentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz.:—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

	Scale I.	Scale II.
Slightly impaired	Six sixtieths ... ..	Five sixtieths
Impaired ... ..	Twelve sixtieths ... ..	Ten sixtieths
Materially impaired	Eighteen sixtieths ... ..	Fifteen sixtieths
Totally destroyed	Twenty-four sixtieths	Twenty sixtieths

Provided that no award on Scale I shall, together with any retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service, exceed the amount of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less; and that no award on Scale II shall, together with any retired allowance for which he would be qualified by length of service, exceed fifty sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less.

SCALE III.

- (a.) A gratuity not exceeding the undermentioned portion of the salary and emoluments of the injured man at the date of the injury, or 100l., whichever is less, viz.:—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

Slightly impaired ... One third. Impaired ... Two thirds.
Materially impaired ... The whole.

- (b.) When his capacity to contribute to his support is totally destroyed, he shall receive an annual allowance exceeding by fifteen sixtieths of his salary and emoluments the rate of retired allowance for which he would have been qualified by length of service if he had been a civil servant, provided that the total award shall not exceed forty-five sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300l. a year, whichever is less.

An award under any of the above scales shall be so much less than the usual amount as the Treasury shall think reasonable, in case—

- (a.) The usual amount exceeds by not less than 100l. a year the rate of retired allowance for which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him; or

* By Treasury Minute of July 18, 1888, the Foreign Office was included in the List of Departments prescribed by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.

† This Warrant (with amending Warrants) was modified by Treasury Warrant dated August 21, 1907, which provided that "No award shall be made under them, in respect of any injury occurring after 1st July, 1907, to any person, or to the widow or other relative of any person, employed in the Civil Service of the State who is within the definition of workman as set forth in section 13 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, that is to say, a person employed by way of manual labour, at whatever remuneration, or a person employed otherwise than by way of manual labour at remuneration not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds a year."

‡ To be read as meaning "an annual allowance of one-sixtieth of the salary and emoluments of the injured man for each year of his service, including therein any years assigned, under section 4 of the Superannuation Act, 1859, to the office held by him."—(Treasury Warrant, October 30, 1889.)

- (b.) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires; or
- (c.) The injured man is 55 years of age or upwards at the date of the injury; or
- (d.) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF MEN KILLED WHILE IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

An award shall be on one or other of the following scales, according as the deceased had been—

- I. An established officer of a prison or of a criminal lunatic asylum killed by a prisoner or lunatic; or an established officer of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty of which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- II. A civil servant not falling under the above description, or a hired person employed in a manufacturing department as above.
- III. Any other hired person employed in a public department.

SCALE I.

Pension to widow, while unmarried and of good character, not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 15l. a year, whichever is greater; and

Pension to each child until he or she attains the age of 15, not exceeding one-sixth of the rate which might be granted to the widow, but the aggregate of the children's pensions not to exceed the amount which might be granted to the widow.

SCALE II.

Pension to widow not to exceed ten-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10l. a year, whichever is greater; and Gratuity to children, not exceeding 12l. multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the time of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 10l. or more than 50l.

SCALE III.

Pension to the widow not exceeding eight-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10l., whichever is greater.

Gratuity to children not exceeding 16s., multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the date of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 8l., or more than 40l.

In the case of motherless children the award under any scale may be of twice the usual rate.

*If the service of the deceased at the date of the injury was less than five years, the award under any scale shall be:

To the widow a gratuity not exceeding one-half of the salary and emoluments of the deceased.

To each child a gratuity not exceeding one-twelfth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased; but the total gratuity to widow and children shall not exceed one year's salary and emoluments of the deceased.]

MOTHERS OF MEN KILLED IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

If the deceased does not leave a widow, and if his mother was wholly dependent upon him for support, the award which might have been made to a widow may be made to the mother.

Treasury Chambers, September, 1887.

- (6.) Act of Parliament to amend the Acts relating to Superannuation Allowances and Gratuities to Persons in the Public Service so far as respects the computation of successive Service in different Offices where not all subject to the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887.

55 and 56 Vict., c. 40.—27th June, 1892.

Reckoning of Service in one or more public offices.

1.†—(1) The Treasury may within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules regulating the superannuation allowance or gratuity which may be granted to persons who have served continuously and successively in two or more public offices as defined by this Act, but are not entitled to reckon for such grant service in all those offices.

(2) The said rules shall provide for reckoning service according to the rules under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and subject to such reckoning of service, for granting the same superannuation allowance or gratuity to any person as might have been granted to him if his whole service had been in the public office from which he ultimately retires.

(3) The Treasury may determine in each case the funds or accounts out of which the superannuation allowance or gratuity is to be paid, and where it is to be paid out of more than one fund or account, may apportion the amounts to be paid out of each fund or account: Provided that in cases affecting the revenue of India the Secretary of State in Council of India shall determine the amount to be paid therefrom.

Rules to be laid before Parliament.

3. A copy of any rules made under this Act shall forthwith be laid before Parliament, and the rules shall not come into operation until three months after such copy is so laid, nor if within those three months either House passes a resolution objecting to them, but if such resolution is passed, the Treasury may frame new rules, and this section shall apply as if the passing of the said resolution were substituted for the passing of this Act, and so on as often as occasion may require.

Definitions.

4. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—The expression "public office" means any office or employment (other than any office or employment in Her Majesty's naval or land forces) service in which qualifies for the grant of a superannuation allowance or gratuity, and the remuneration of which is paid out of—

- (a) the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; or
- (b) moneys provided by Parliament, or dealt with as appropriations in aid; or
- (c) the revenue of India; or
- (d) the revenue of the Isle of Man; or
- (e) any fund which, from its being administered by a public department, the Treasury may determine to be a public fund;

and includes the office of any existing prison officer within the meaning of the Prisons Act, 1877, the General Prisons (Ireland) Act, 1877, and the Prisons (Scotland) Act, 1877;

The expression "superannuation allowance" includes any pension or superannuation or other retiring allowance.

Commencement of Act.

5. This Act shall take effect as from the first day of January, 1891.

Short title and Construction.

6. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1892.

This Act shall be read as one with the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892.

* This Warrant was amended by further Warrant of April 23, 1906, by the omission of the portion within brackets.
† Rules were framed by the Treasury under Section 1, dated July 20, 1892 (Circular of April 20, 1893). See also Section 7 of the Act of 1909, 9 Edw. 7, c. 10, page 149.

(7.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892.

9 Edw. 7, c. 10.—20th September, 1909.

Superannuation allowances and additional allowances to future male civil servants.

1.—(1) The proportion of the annual salary and emoluments on which the scale of the superannuation allowances to be granted to male civil servants is to be calculated shall, in the case of civil servants who enter the service after the passing of this Act, be one-eightieth instead of one-sixtieth, and accordingly section 2 of the Superannuation Act, 1859,* shall, as respects such civil servants, have effect as if for the words "sixtieth" and "sixtieths," wherever they occur, there were substituted the words "eightieth" and "eightieths."

(2) The Treasury may grant by way of additional allowance to any such civil servant who retires after having served for not less than two years, in addition to the superannuation allowance (if any) to which he may become entitled or the gratuity (if any) which may be granted to him under section 6 of the Superannuation Act, 1859,† a lump sum equal to one-thirtieth of the annual salary and emoluments of his office multiplied by the number of completed years he has served, so, however, that the additional allowance shall in no case exceed one and a half times the amount of such salary and emoluments:

Provided that, if a civil servant retires from the service after attaining the age of sixty-five years, there shall be deducted from the amount of the additional allowance which would otherwise be payable to him one-twentieth of that amount for every completed year he has served after attaining that age.

Gratuity in case of death of future male civil servants.

2.—(1) Where a male civil servant who enters the service after the passing of this Act dies after he has served five years or upwards, whilst still employed in the service, the Treasury may grant to his legal personal representatives a gratuity equal to the annual salary and emoluments of his office:

Provided that, if he dies after attaining the age of sixty-five years, the amount of the gratuity which may be so granted shall be reduced by one-twentieth of that amount for every completed year he has served after attaining that age.

(2) Where any such civil servant having become entitled to a superannuation allowance dies after he has retired from the service, and the sums actually received by him at the time of his death on account of such superannuation allowance, together with the sum received by him by way of additional allowance, are less than the amount of the annual salary and emoluments of his office, the Treasury may grant to his legal personal representatives a gratuity equal to the deficiency.

Application to existing male civil servants.

3.—(1) Subject to regulations made by the Treasury, the Treasury may allow any male civil servant who has entered the service before the date of the passing of this Act, and who at that date is under sixty years of age, to adopt the provisions of this Act, and in such case there may be granted to him or his legal personal representatives such superannuation and other allowances and gratuity as might have been granted had he entered the service after the passing of this Act, except that the amount of the additional allowance payable on retirement shall be increased by one-half per cent. in respect of each completed year he had served at the passing of this Act.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the right to superannuation allowance or gratuity of a civil servant who has entered the service before the passing of this Act, and who either is at that time over sixty years of age or is under sixty years of age and does not adopt the provisions of this Act.

Under the Act 22 Vict., c. 26 (Page 143) Pensions are granted to Chaplains attached to British Legations, and to Consular Chaplains appointed prior to 1899, calculated on the amount of the annual salary or contribution made

Method of calculating allowances.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, with respect to the qualifications for obtaining superannuation allowances and gratuities, and to the manner of reckoning years of service and amount of annual salary and emoluments, and to the determination of questions by the Treasury, shall apply in respect of additional allowances and gratuities under this Act in like manner as they apply in respect of superannuation allowances under those Acts.

Power to revoke and alter Warrants under

50 & 51 Vict., c. 67, s. 1.

5. A warrant framed by the Treasury under section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1897,‡ with respect to the grant of gratuities and allowances to civil servants injured in the discharge of their duty may be revoked or from time to time varied by a fresh warrant, and every such warrant shall be laid before Parliament.

Compensation on abolition of Office.

6.—(1.) It shall be lawful for the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department to which he belonged, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special allowance or allowances by way of compensation as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case seem to the Treasury to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office, but not exceeding in any case the amount which a civil servant would be entitled to, or which might be granted to a civil servant, if he retired on the ground of ill-health.

(2.) The foregoing provision shall apply only to persons entering the service after the date of the passing of this Act, and shall apply to those persons in substitution for section 7 of the Superannuation Act, 1859.‡

Nothing herein contained shall affect the application of the said section 7 of the Superannuation Act, 1859, to persons who have entered the service before that date or the practice of the Treasury thereunder.

Rules.

7.—(1.) The Treasury may from time to time make rules for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect, and for making such adaptations and modifications of the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, and other enactments relating to superannuation allowances and pensions of persons who have served partly in the civil service and partly in some other service entitling them to a pension as may be necessary for adapting those provisions to the provisions of this Act, and for altering the rules made by the Treasury under the Superannuation Act, 1892.§

(2.) Before any rules made under this section come into force, a draft thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament for a period of not less than thirty days during the session of Parliament, and, if either of those Houses of Parliament before the expiration of those thirty days presents an address to His Majesty against the draft or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, without prejudice to the making of any new draft rules.

Short Title and Construction.

8. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1909, and shall be read as one with the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1909.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1910.)

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in His Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar, who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Art. 98, Clause (a)).

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels; and Captains of the Royal Navy of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors; and Lieutenants, R.N., of eight years' standing.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Captain in the Army; and Lieutenants, R.N., of less than eight years' standing.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1910.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation. Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Councillor of Embassy, or to the First Secretary at posts where the staff does not include a Councillor.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

(Embassies and Legations.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE OCCUPATION AND MAINTENANCE OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HER MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, MAY 8, 1898.

(In force, January 1, 1910.)

The following Rules and Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furniture, &c., held by Her Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of the Diplomatic Service, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

GENERAL.

Definition of Word "Mission."

1. For the purpose of these Rules the word "Mission" will be used indiscriminately, whatever may be the class of the Mission, and the Chief of the Mission will be styled Minister, whether his official title be that of Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires.

Responsibility of Chief of a Mission.

2. The Chief of a Mission for the time being is, unless otherwise specially arranged, to be deemed the officer in charge thereof. He will be responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed in these Rules, and, on entering into occupation, he will be required to sign an agreement in the form shown in Appendix (A), page 154.

Inventories of Furniture, &c., to be kept.

3. At each Mission are to be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to Her Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and rules relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Office of Works.

Survey of Buildings and Furniture to be made from time to time.—Damages, &c., to be made good.

4. From time to time, and, if possible, on every change of occupation, the First Commissioner of Works will cause a survey of the buildings and furniture to be made by a duly appointed officer of his Department. Such officer will take note of any deficiency, misuse, or waste of Government furniture or other property, in order that the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper usage, may be recovered from the Minister. (See also Rule 25, page 154.)

Survey on Change of Occupation.

5. The survey on change of occupation will, whenever possible, be made as soon as the outgoing Minister has removed his private property from the Mission. Until the survey has been made, the outgoing Minister must retain in charge of the house some servant or other person, responsible to him, who may represent him when the survey is made. The incoming Minister should also be either present or represented at the survey, and he or his representative should sign the inventories and take charge of the house as soon as the survey is completed. Ministers should communicate directly with the Office of Works as to the details of these arrangements.

Decision of Office of Works on all matters relating to Maintenance, &c., of Government Property. Appeal to Foreign Secretary. Treasury Decision, if appealed to, to be final.

6. The First Commissioner of Works shall, after consultation with the Minister when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and due preservation of the Government property before described, and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from the Vote administered by the First Commissioner. If, however, the Minister should be dissatisfied with the decision of the First Commissioner, it shall be open for him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur with the decision of the First Commissioner, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the First Commissioner, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Present permanent Official Residences deemed complete.—Minister held Responsible for any Alterations or Additions without previous sanction.

7. The present permanent official residences shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects for the reception of the Ministers appointed to occupy them, and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings or furniture will be paid for by the Office of Works unless such alteration or addition shall have been previously approved of by the First Commissioner. Should any alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Minister making them will be responsible, not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for any expense which may be thought necessary by the First Commissioner for restoring buildings, fittings, or furniture to their original state.

Structural Repairs when required by urgent necessity.

8. In cases where structural repairs have been ordered by the Minister without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner the onus of proving urgent necessity rests upon the Minister (see also Rule 16, page 153).

Requisitions for Erection, &c., of Buildings, or for Purchasing of Property, &c.

9. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, or for works connected therewith, for purchases of property, and for purchases of furniture, are to be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Office of Works. Proposals involving large expenditure should be sent so as to reach that Department in London before the middle of October, so that, if approved by the First Commissioner, there may be time to submit them to the Treasury for consideration with the annual estimate for the following year.

Precautions to be taken against Fire.

10. Ministers are to use all reasonable precautions against fire, and when fire-engines or other appliances are supplied, they are to satisfy themselves that the same are examined from time to time, and, if necessary, worked, in order to ascertain that they are in an efficient state.

Responsibility of the Chargé d'Affaires in event of death of a Minister.

11. In the event of the death of a Minister or other vacancy in the post, the Chargé d'Affaires will be responsible to Her Majesty's Government for the proper custody of Government property. He should at once report to the First Commissioner the arrangements which he makes for this purpose, and should apply for his sanction to any expenditure that it may be necessary to incur.

Care of Residences in case of there being two.

12. At Missions where two official residences exist, as at Constantinople, Tehran, and Peking, the care of the residence that may be unoccupied, as well as of the Government furniture that may be therein, will devolve upon the Minister, but the caretaker's wages will be paid by the Office of Works.

Holding of Auctions upon Government Premises Forbidden.

13. The holding of auctions of private effects in or upon Government premises is strictly forbidden.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

Maintenance of Fabric of Buildings, &c.

14. The fabric of all Government buildings, with the permanent fixtures thereto attached, the boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, will be kept in an efficient state of repair by the Office of Works.

External Painting and Internal Papering, &c.

15. Periodical painting and colouring externally, and papering, painting, colouring, &c., internally, will be done by the Office of Works. External painting will, as a rule, not be executed more frequently than once in every three or four years; nor internal painting more frequently than once in every seven years. Painting at shorter intervals than these will not be paid for by the Office of Works unless specially authorised beforehand by the First Commissioner, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by Storm, Fire, &c.

16. In case of damage by storm, fire, or other casualty, the expense of restoration will be borne by the Office of Works, provided the Minister can show to the satisfaction of the First Commissioner of Works that the damage was in no way due to neglect of proper precautions. In such cases the Minister may order urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required will be large, he is, if possible, to obtain an estimate of the cost of repairing the damage, and to submit it to the First Commissioner before ordering any but the most indispensable repairs.

Renewal of Fittings and Fixtures, Petty Additions and Alterations and Ordinary Cleaning.

17. The cost of renewing fittings and fixtures, worn out by fair wear and tear, will be borne by the Office of Works, as well as the cost of petty household repairs.* Petty additions and alterations, however, effected by the Minister without authority will, under Rule 7, not be paid for by the Office of Works. The Minister must himself defray the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys, the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, and of tanks and cisterns.

* At Cairo, for the present, the annual grant made to the Minister by the Office of Works in aid of such charges will be continued.

† For the present, a moiety of the cost of the Agency Garden at Cairo is contributed by the Office of Works as a special case. The existing special arrangements at Constantinople and Tehran will be maintained, and vouched expenditure up to a maximum of £405 per annum at Constantinople, and of £625 per annum at Tehran-Gulhek will continue as a charge on the Diplomatic and Consular Vote.

† Now E. R.

Warming, Lighting, and Supply of Water.—Supply of Fuel, Electric Current, Gas and Water.

18. As regards warming, lighting, and the supply of water, the Office of Works, under the foregoing Rule, will provide, maintain, and repair the necessary apparatus and fittings; but, except at Missions where such payments are specially provided for, the Minister will be required to bear all charges for the actual supply of fuel, electric current, gas, and water.

Maintenance of Gardens and Pleasure Grounds.

19. The Minister will defray all expenses necessary for the care and maintenance in good order of gardens and pleasure grounds, the Missions at Peking, Tòkiò, Bangkok, and Zanzibar excepted.† At these places the grounds generally will be maintained at the cost of the Office of Works, but no portion of the cost of maintaining private inclosures, kitchen gardens, or tennis lawns will be defrayed out of public funds.

Disinfection of Premises.

20. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of contagious or infectious disease in the household of a Minister, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Minister will be held responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done.

FURNITURE.

In Embassy and Legation Houses.

21. In Embassy or Legation houses, the property of Her Majesty's Government, the reception-rooms, together with the staircase and corridor leading thereto, the principal entrance and hall will be provided at the public expense with the necessary articles of furniture. The study and the Chancery or offices will also be suitably furnished at the public expense. Muslin curtains, rugs other than hearthrugs, fire-screens, clocks, chimney ornaments, table lamps and candlesticks, and other decorative articles will not be supplied. Where articles of the above description have been supplied in the past, they will be included in inventories and left for use by Ministers, but when worn out they will not be replaced. Furniture for all other portions of the house must be provided and kept in repair by the Minister himself.

In Apartments.

The apartments in the several houses which will be furnished at the public expense are given in detail in Appendix B, page 154.

Movable Articles to be Stamped.

22. All movable articles belonging to Her Majesty's Government are to be stamped or otherwise marked with the Royal arms or the Royal cypher and broad arrow, thus V. R.†

Renewal and Repair.—Periodical Cleaning.

23. The Office of Works, subject to the provisions contained in the two following rules, will bear the cost of renewing and repairing the Government furniture in the State Rooms and Chanceries detailed in Appendix B, but the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the beating of carpets, the cleaning or washing of curtains, holland covers, &c., must be borne by the Minister.

Old Furniture Replaced by New.

24. The sanction of the First Commissioner of Works must be obtained before old furniture is replaced by new, and such sanction will only be granted when a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally purchased. Old articles, carpets, curtains, &c., must be returned to the Office of Works, or will be sold locally as directed by the First Commissioner.

Ministers Responsible for Preservation of Furniture and for Repairs of Defects caused by Improper Use.—Damage by Animals, Birds, &c., and by Pictures being on Walls.

25. Ministers will be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official furniture, and for the immediate repair, at their personal cost, of defects arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use. It is to be distinctly understood that the Office of Works will refuse to defray the cost of renewing or repairing any article of furniture, carpets, curtains, &c., which may be destroyed or damaged by the keeping of animals, birds, &c., and that all such damage must be completely made good at the sole cost of the Minister. It is also to be understood that pictures are not to be hung, nor brackets, &c., fixed on walls covered with silk or similar material, and that where this rule has been disregarded, any damage caused thereby must be made good by the Minister at his own cost.

Furniture, &c., not to be Removed without Written Sanction.

26. Furniture or other Government property is not, without the written sanction of the Office of Works, to be removed from the buildings or apartments for which it has been provided; and this prohibition extends equally to the removal of furniture from one Mission house to another, as from Pera to Therapia, Tehran to Gulhek, or Peking to the Hill Station.

State Room Furniture provided by the Minister.

27. In any case where a Minister may himself provide furniture for rooms which he is entitled to have furnished at the public expense, the Office of Works will pay, for the use and wear and tear of the furniture provided by the Minister, an annual allowance calculated at the rate of 7½ per cent. on the sum that the Department estimates it would cost it to furnish the said rooms to the same extent. (See Appendix C, page 155.)

ACCOUNTS.

Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.—Currency and Rate of Exchange.

28. As soon as possible after the 30th June, 30th September, 31st December, and 31st March in each year the Minister should render to the Office of Works an account current (in a form which will be provided by that Department) of receipts and payments in the quarter, with supporting vouchers. Care should be taken to include in such account all transactions dealing with receipts and payments which have taken place within the quarter. The amounts should be given in the account in currency, a note of the sterling amount of any Bill of Exchange, and of the rate at which it was negotiated, being inserted in the "Schedule of Sums Received," under the heading "Detail" in the form in question. Should no cash transaction have taken place, an account should be rendered in which the fact should be stated.

Vouchers.

29. Where vouchers are made out in a language other than English or French, a brief translation or précis should accompany the voucher.

Audit.—Amended Accounts.—Items disallowed.

30. The Minister will be informed immediately after the examination of an account either that its correctness is admitted, subject to any question by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, or that it has been amended. If amended, particulars of the alterations will be given, and the adjustment required by the Office of Works must be forthwith accepted by the Minister and made in the next account rendered by him. Should the Minister see cause to object to any alterations made by the Office of Works he should represent his views fully to the First Commissioner, who will carefully consider them. But pending his decision the Minister must not take credit in his current accounts for any items of expenditure disallowed by the Office of Works.

Drawing Bills.

31. The Minister is to defray charges incurred in accordance with these Regulations, and for this purpose may provide himself with funds by drawing a Bill on Her Majesty's Paymaster-General at three days' sight. He should notify the fact to the Office of Works by post on the day on which the Bill is drawn, and should, with his letter, forward a certificate by a banker or merchant of the rate of exchange.

Separate Accounts.

32. Ministers are requested to arrange that tradesmen should not include in bills payable by the Office of Works any items of expenditure payable by the Minister. Separate accounts should be rendered for works ordered by, or on behalf of, the Office of Works, and for works ordered on behalf of the Minister.

Tradesmen's Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.

33. It is very desirable that tradesmen's accounts for work done on behalf of the Office of Works should be rendered regularly at the conclusion of each quarter, and Ministers should use their influence to insure such regularity.

Foreign Office, May 8, 1898.

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE CARE OF THE PROPERTY OF HER MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT AT THE TREATY PORTS IN CHINA AND JAPAN, DECEMBER 1, 1874.

(In force, January 1, 1910.)

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings the charge of all the lands, buildings, furniture, and other property belonging to Her Majesty's Government at the several Treaty ports in China and Japan, it is desirable that the following Rules and Regulations should be observed in the charge, use, and occupation of the said properties.

Her Majesty's Ministers, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, Judges, Assistant Judges, and other Heads of Departments, who respectively have the use and occupation of buildings, furniture, or other property belonging to Her Majesty, are to be deemed officers in charge thereof, and to be responsible respectively for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Rules:—

Registers of Properties.

1. All freehold, leasehold, and other Government properties at or in the respective Legations are to be registered in the Office of Works at Shanghai.

*Inventories of Furniture, &c.**

2. At each Legation, Consulate, Vice-Consulate, and at the offices of the Chief Judge and the Assistant Judge, is to be kept a Register of buildings, lands, furniture, &c., containing a complete description of the lands and buildings, inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to the Government, and copies of all Circulars relative to the management of the same.

Liability of an Officer pending Appointment of a Successor.

3. On the removal of an officer in charge from a station, his successor is to examine, sign, and date the Register, and to become responsible for its correctness, and for the safe custody of the property until he shall be relieved of his duties.

Periodical Examination of Registers by Assistant Surveyor of Works.

4. The Registers at the several Treaty ports are to be periodically examined and checked by the Assistant Surveyor of Works and the officers in charge, who are directed to afford the Assistant Surveyor every facility in making periodical examinations of the Government property and in verifying the Registers.

Boundaries of Properties.

5. Where any doubts exist as to the actual extent of the Government lands at any of the ports, the officers in charge are to have the boundaries clearly defined, and to take care that they are not interfered with.

Interference with Properties.

6. Officers in charge are also to take means (or in case they are unable to do so, to apply to Her Majesty's Minister and to the Assistant Surveyor for aid) to prevent the public bodies, municipalities, or private individuals from carrying out works, such as drains, roads, buildings, warehouses, bunds, piers, &c., which may directly injure or encroach upon any of the rights appertaining to the property of Her Majesty's Government.

Every Building to have a fixed name.

7. Every building is to be known by a fixed name, which is not to be changed without the knowledge of the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, who is to report the change to the First Commissioner of Works.

* All Government Officers concerned are to send on the 1st January in each year to the Board's Architect at Shanghai a certificate that the articles of Government property in their charge have been checked and found correct, and that a note has been made on the inventory to that effect. A duplicate certificate to be sent to the Legation at Peking and Embassy at Tokio respectively. (O.W. 22567, Nov. 17, 1909.)

Custody of Properties.

8. The officer in charge at each station is to be held responsible for the safe custody and the proper use of the grounds and buildings belonging to the station.

Unoccupied Buildings.

9. When any building is unoccupied, the officer in charge at the station is to see that it is kept fit to receive a new occupant.

Change of Officers.

10. On the removal of an officer from any station the officer left in charge is to take over and deliver up the Government property to the incoming officer, each officer noting in the Register the actual condition of the buildings, offices, furniture, and other property when the respective transfers are made.

Non-occupation of Buildings, &c., by Non-authorized Persons.

11. No buildings or premises are to be occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to be provided with accommodation at the Government expense without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner of Works.

Non-alteration of Buildings, &c.

12. No alterations in the buildings or properties are to be made, or the uses for which they were originally intended to be changed, without previous communication with the Assistant Surveyor.

Proposals for New Buildings, Purchase of Property, or other Services.

13. All proposals for new buildings, purchases of property, lodging allowances in lieu of house accommodation, and purchases of furniture, must be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, and in time to admit of proper reference to the First Commissioner of Works.

Sudden Emergencies.

14. The Assistant Surveyor will be authorized to act without the previous authority of the First Commissioner in case of sudden emergencies, but only on condition that officers in charge report to the Assistant Surveyor all the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises.

Treasury Sanction for large Expenditure.

15. Proposals involving large expenditure are to be sent to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai by or before the month of October, in order that they may be submitted to the First Commissioner in time to obtain Treasury authority for including the cost thereof in the annual estimates for the following year.

Non-purchase or Hire of Houses, &c., without sanction.

16. No houses or premises are to be purchased or hired without the sanction of the First Commissioner or the Assistant Surveyor.

Form of Application.

17. Applications for purchasing or hiring premises are to state: the situation, extent, and value of the premises; reasons for having made the selection; intended appropriation; amount of rent, conditions of hiring, &c.; length of term proposed; state of repair; whether the proprietor will undertake to keep the premises in proper repair; probable cost of making any alterations which may be required, and whether the proprietor will pay for making the alterations; and no liability for expenditure is to be incurred without the previous approval of the Assistant Surveyor.

Claims for Lodging Allowances.

18. Claims for lodging or house allowances are to be accompanied by a full report from the officer in charge of the station, explaining the necessity for granting the allowances. It will then be the duty of the Assistant Surveyor to ascertain and certify that the claim is fair and reasonable, and that by granting the allowance the most economical course has been pursued.

Assistant Surveyor's Responsibility.

19. The Assistant Surveyor of Works is to be held responsible for the proper repair and maintenance of all the Government buildings and properties under his charge, and he is to take steps to prevent unauthorized works being executed without his sanction, reporting the circumstances to the First Commissioner of Works.

Office of Works to pay for Offices.

20. The Assistant Surveyor of Works will pay out of the amount allowed for incidental services the cost of urgent ordinary tenants' repairs for offices used for public business, if executed by order of the officer in charge of the office, provided the cause and nature of the repair is reported to and approved by the Assistant Surveyor when the claim is presented for payment.

Office of Works to pay for all Landlord's Repairs.

21. Government fittings and fixtures, whether in residences or offices requiring repair, arising from fair wear and tear, may be repaired or replaced by the officer in charge of a residence or office, provided he previously obtains the sanction of the Assistant Surveyor to effect such repairs. In very urgent cases of repairs, the officer in charge of a residence or office may effect the repairs of fittings and fixtures before receiving the Assistant Surveyor's sanction, provided the officer reports the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises. The Assistant Surveyor is then to ascertain and certify to the First Commissioners of Works that the repairs were absolutely necessary, and that the prices charged for them are fair and reasonable.

Residents to pay for ordinary Tenant's Repairs.

22. Officers in charge of residences are to be responsible for keeping them in a tenable condition, and to pay for the current household repairs ordinarily paid by a tenant, such as replacing broken glass, repairing locks and keys, repairing and hanging bells, replacing catches and hooks on Venetian shutters, windows, and doors; easing and rehanging shutters, windows, and doors, and repairing and resetting grates: provided always, that when the Assistant Surveyor shall, on periodical inspection, consider that such are required in consequence of ordinary wear and tear, he shall have authority to cause them to be executed at the public expense.

Urgent Repairs.

23. Officers in charge of properties or buildings which may be damaged by storms or other casualties, may order small or temporary urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required for permanent works will be large, the officer in charge is to obtain the advice and sanction of the Assistant Surveyor before ordering any permanent works to be executed.

24. In all cases of urgent repairs arising from storms or other casualties, officers in charge of properties or buildings so damaged are to report their reasons fully to the Assistant Surveyor for having expended money upon temporary repairs, or for proposing to incur expenditure upon permanent works.

Payments for works done by Officers in charge.

25. Payments for works previously authorized, and for urgent repairs sanctioned by the Assistant Surveyor, and executed by order of the officer in charge of any building, are to be made from the Legation or Consular chest, and the amounts so paid will be refunded by the Assistant Surveyor upon receiving duly signed vouchers, in duplicate, made out on the proper official form.

(Proper forms for the vouchers will be supplied upon application to the Assistant Surveyor of Works at Shanghai.)

26. Vouchers for repayment should be despatched in time to reach the Office of Works at Shanghai at such date before the end of each quarter as will admit of the amount being refunded at once. At stations where it is impossible to supply vouchers to and receive payment from the Office of Works before the close of the quarter in which the repairs or works are executed, payment for such repairs or works should be deferred until the subsequent quarter, in order that no entries may appear in the Consular accounts for advances from the Consular chest on account of the Office of Works.

27. All moneys paid by officers in charge of properties or buildings in any other currency than dollars must be entered in the vouchers in dollars.

Cooking-stoves or cooking ranges.

28. Cooking-stoves or cooking-ranges which have hitherto been supplied by Her Majesty's Government, or the Office of Works, together with utensils belonging to them, are to be entered in the register in the same manner as other Government property, and will be maintained in working order; but no other stoves, cooking-ranges, or utensils are to be supplied by the Office of Works.

Supply of Books.

29. All books, legal and others, are to be obtained as heretofore on requisition from the Stationery Office, and they are to be stamped with the office seal, and the name of the office to which they belong is to be marked on the title-page.

Supply of Furniture.

30. Articles of furniture of a plain and durable description will be furnished at the public expense to the following rooms, viz.—the Chancery offices at Peking and Yedo [Tokio], the Judicial and Consular Offices in China and Japan; Court-room and jail fittings, and partial furniture for the Students' quarters only at Peking and Yedo [Tokio].

31. The business rooms of the Ministers, Judges, and Consuls are to be supplied with carpets or matting.

32. The offices of the Supreme Court, Consular and other offices used for public business are to be supplied with chairs, tables, desks, presses for books and stationery, and fenders and fire-irons, all of good and durable quality.

33. Any furniture or other articles desired by any officer beyond the regulated provision are to be provided, and must be removed by the officers at their own expense.

34. Before additional furniture is purchased, or old articles replaced by new ones at the public expense, it must be shown that additional furniture is absolutely necessary, and that a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally supplied.

35. In order to guard against the misuse or waste of furniture or other office moveable property, officers in charge of offices will be held responsible for their due preservation and for the immediate repair of defects arising from accidents or unfair use, the cost of which is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

36. All moveable articles belonging to Her Majesty's Government are to be marked with the Royal Cypher and Broad Arrow, thus, V. † R.* The brand will be supplied by the Office of Works.

Watchmen.

37. Watchmen paid by the Government are to be employed solely for the protection of the public offices and grounds and not for the private residences of officers.

(China and Japan.)

Boats.

38. The cost of renewing or repairing boats, boat furniture, boatmen's uniform, flags, running rigging, sails, awnings, &c., is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

39. New boats are to be of plain construction (substantial gigs), built of teak or other durable wood, copper riveted, about 26 feet in length, 5 feet 6 inches in the beam, 2 feet 2 inches in depth, square sterned, and fitted for four oars.

40. Applications for new boats are to be sent to Her Majesty's Minister, accompanied with a report of the age and service of any boat which may be worn out, or of the reason for applying for an additional boat.

Flags.

42.† The cost of running rigging and repairs to flagstaffs is to be charged to the Office of Works.

43. Officers in charge are to use all reasonable precaution to protect Government property from fire.

44. Each public building is to be provided with one "extincteur" and at least twelve fire-buckets, which are to be kept in the verandahs, lobbies, or other equally convenient place, filled with water and ready for immediate use.

45. All fireplaces are to be provided with cinder-boxes or trays to fit, and strong, close-mesh wire guards; no live cinders are to be carried across the rooms, nor are the fires in the grates to be raked out; but when done with each fire is to be protected with its wire guard.

46. The foregoing articles will be supplied on requisition by the Office of Works, and the officer in charge of each building will be held responsible for their being kept at all times in working order: and where a fire-engine is stationed the officer in charge is to see that it is always in working order.

Report upon any Fires which may have broken out.

47. In the event of a fire breaking out in any of the Government buildings, the officer in charge is immediately to assemble a Court of Inquiry to ascertain the origin of the fire, and to inquire into the working condition of the foregoing appliances at the time of the fire, and the result of their use. He is then to draw up a Report of all the circumstances and send copies of his Report to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the First Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings.

48. The Assistant Surveyor of Works (if within easy reach) is, by virtue of his office, to be a member of the Board of Inquiry.

Foreign Office, December 1, 1874.

* This Regulation was cancelled in October, 1904, when a new arrangement was made under which Consuls apply to the Consul-General at Shanghai for the flags required by them. The flags authorized to be issued are as follows:—

Consular Shore flag	...	...	...	...	8' breadths; 12 feet by 6 feet.
Do.	...	...	...	...	4 breadths; 8 feet by 3 feet.
Consular Boat flag	...	...	...	...	4 breadths; 6 feet by 3 feet.

(For description, &c., see page 98.)

Cape—Blue cloth, lined black, with four small buttons down front, and to button on to collar of cloak; gilt hook and chain.

The buttons are to be of the pattern worn upon the undress uniform.

The cloak and cape may be worn together or separately.

CONSULAR AGENTS wear the uniform of Vice-Consuls No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS in the Ottoman Dominions, Persia, Greece, and Morocco, and in China, Corea, Japan, and Siam, are permitted to wear the Vice-Consular uniform. The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court at Shanghai has the same privilege.

STUDENT INTERPRETERS are allowed to wear the undress uniform of the same rank.

CANCELLERI attached to British Consulates in the Levant wear the dress of Vice-Consuls, without the embroidery on the cuffs.

A Consular officer who does not hold a diplomatic appointment must not, without permission, wear any other than the Consular uniform; should he hold an appointment entitling him to wear another uniform, he is not allowed, during his employment in the Consular service, to wear such other uniform without special permission from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

On the left breast (the clasp being on a level with the second button) on the full dress coat.

The ribbon only of the Orders to be worn on the undress morning coat, on the left breast.

Miniatures of Orders to be worn on the left lapel of evening coat on official occasions.

The Full Dress uniform with breeches is worn only at His Majesty's Balls and Courts, and on important State occasions when ordered.

The Full Dress with trousers ("levee dress") is worn at His Majesty's levees; on State occasions abroad; on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war; and at Naval Courts.

The Undress without sword may be worn on common occasions. In times of danger, as for instance during revolutionary disturbances or riots, when the Consular officer may be obliged to absent himself from his office or residence on official business, and may require some further distinctive mark of his rank, the sword may be worn in addition to the undress uniform.

It should be carried in a blue cloth frog projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat.

It must be clearly understood that the authority to wear the sword applies only to very exceptional occasions.

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

WHITE UNIFORM TO BE WORN IN HOT CLIMATES.

(Foreign Office Circular, July 15, 1903.)

The King has been pleased to approve of a new uniform to be worn in hot climates by His Majesty's Diplomatic and Consular Officers.

The uniform is to be made of white drill, with embroidery on the cuffs and collar of the same width and material as that now worn by Diplomatic and Consular Officers respectively, but worked on white cloth and detachable. No face is to be worn on the trousers. It will be worn with a white helmet, bearing on the front a gilt badge with the Royal Arms with supporters.

NOTE.—The sword should be worn on paying or returning official visits and on other occasions of ceremony. It should be carried in a white frog, projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat, and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat. On these occasions a spike should be worn on the helmet.

KING'S FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.

(Regulations of July 20, 1909. § 27.)

Uniform and Badge.

The Messengers are permitted to wear the Civil Service uniform of the 5th Class*, and are furnished by the Foreign Office with a Badge for use when travelling, which may also be worn with the Civil uniform. The Badge must be returned to the Chief Clerk in good condition on the retirement of the Messenger from the service.

PAPERS SET TO A THIRD SECRETARY IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE NOMINATED FOR EXAMINATION FOR A SPECIAL CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC LAW*.

Paper I.

1. Is the tendency of the authority of International Law to grow stronger or weaker?
2. A recent Act of Parliament has given English Tribunals jurisdiction over all ships passing through English territorial waters. If a foreign State protested against this Act as infringing International Law, what books and documents would it be proper to study in order to frame a reply on behalf of England?
3. In what way does the constitution of the German Empire affect its international relations?
4. Examine the origin, history, and consequences of the capitulations with the Porte and its Tributaries.
5. Give instances showing when a government ought, and when it ought not, to interfere to protect its subjects abroad.
6. Give a summary of the present English Law with regard to naturalization.
7. What steps must a Frenchman who wishes to be married in England take in order that his marriage here may be treated as valid in France?
8. If an Englishman residing in Paris made there a holograph will, would his property in England pass under it?

Paper II.

9. What is the rule of International Law as to the position of neutral vessels sailing under an enemy's convoy?
10. Are there any recognized limits to the right of a belligerent to levy contributions and requisitions on the inhabitants of an invaded country?
11. Give examples of cases in which the local jurisdiction prevails over a foreign ship of war.
12. What is now recognized as the proper mode of treating Prisoners of War?
13. What are the chief points which a competent tribunal has to consider and decide when a prize is brought before it for condemnation?
14. Give historical instances showing the circumstances and the mode in which resort may be had to reprisals.
15. What is meant by setting forth a ship as a vessel of war?
16. "Every lawfully declared war is to be regarded as just on both sides." What did Vattel mean by this statement?
17. Was the detention by Napoleon of the English who happened to be in France at the opening of the war of 1803 contrary to the rules of International Law?

PAPERS SET AT A LIMITED COMPETITION OF CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENTS IN THE GENERAL CONSULAR SERVICE, JULY, 1905.*

1. ARITHMETIC (Obligatory).†

(To vulgar and decimal fractions).

No restriction is made as to method. For full credit your work must be legible and easily intelligible, and approximate answers must be given to the degree of accuracy asked for, and not to a greater degree.

(Time allowed, 2 hours).

- The distance from Liverpool to New York being 5,230 kilometres, at what time and on what day may a steamer be expected to arrive at New York if she starts from Liverpool at 10 a.m. on a Wednesday, and steams at an average speed of 26 kilometres an hour? Your answer should be given to the nearest hour. Greenwich time and New York time differ by 5 hours.
- A man is offered the choice of two posts, one to start with a salary of 120*l.* a year, with a rise of 20*l.* at the end of that year and of every succeeding year; the other to start with a salary of 60*l.* for the first half-year, with a rise of 5*l.* at the end of that half-year and of every succeeding half-year. Which is the better post to choose, and why?
- A workman's earnings for the twelve months of one year were as follows:—

January ...	3 15 6	July ...	8 3 6
February ...	4 2 6	August ...	7 16 0
March ...	5 17 0	September ...	7 5 0
April ...	6 11 6	October ...	6 8 6
May ...	7 15 0	November ...	5 13 6
June ...	7 10 0	December ...	4 5 0

How much did he earn during the whole year, and what were his average monthly earnings?

- When the mercury in a barometer stands at h inches, the pressure of the atmosphere on a square inch is equal to the weight of a column of mercury h inches high, and a square inch in cross-section. If you know that the pressure of the atmosphere is 14·7 lb. on a square inch when the mercury in the barometer stands at 30 inches, find to the nearest pound the weight of a cubic foot of mercury.
- Last year the tax on tea was 8*d.* per pound, and it was stated that the poor man's tea was taxed 200 per cent., whilst the rich man's was taxed 20 per cent. If this statement was correct (the percentages being supposed to be reckoned on the price of the tea without the tax), at what prices per pound were the two teas sold?
- A ratepayer pays rates on 85 per cent. of his rent. If the rates are 3*s.* 7*d.* in the pound for the first half-year, and 3*s.* 10*d.* in the pound for the second half-year, what does a ratepayer whose rent is 80*l.* pay in rates during the year?
- A solid ball measuring D centimetres through the middle, contains  $0\cdot524 \times D \times D \times D$  cubic centimetres. What is the weight of a ball of iron measuring 32 centimetres through the middle made of iron which weighs 7·23 grams per cubic centimetre? Give your answer in kilograms to the nearest kilogram.
- The figure below shows the floor of a room drawn to a scale of  $\frac{1}{80}$  of actual size. Find either what it will cost to carpet it with carpet at 4*s.* 6*d.* a square yard, or with carpet at 5*s.* 2*d.* a square metre? Give your answer to the nearest shilling.

2. ENGLISH COMPOSITION (Obligatory).

(Time allowed, 1½ hours).

You should pay attention to your spelling, punctuation, grammar, and style. Your Composition should fill at least two pages, but it will be valued according to the quality rather than the quantity.

Write an essay on one of the following subjects:—

- Language the great civiliser.
- Or,
The sources of National Character.
- Or,
The policy of the Open Door.

3. PRÉCIS. (Obligatory.)

(Time allowed, 2½ hours).

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

- Make an Index of the several letters and other papers,† with the exception of those indexed below.
- Draw up a Précis of what passed.

N.B.—You are warned that full marks cannot be obtained unless both the Index and the Précis are attempted.

DIRECTIONS.

- The Index should deal separately with every letter or document, covering or inclosed. It should contain the date of each letter or document; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and, in as few words as possible, the subject of it. The merits of such an Index are: (a) to give the really important point or points of each letter or document, omitting everything else; (b) to do this briefly, distinctly, and in such a form as readily to catch the eye.

SPECIMEN OF INDEX.

Number.	Date and Place.	Correspondents.	Subject-matter.
1	12th September 1894. Erzeroum.	Consul Graves to Sir P. Currie.	Transmitting report from H.M. Vice-Consul at Van regarding murders near Moush.
Inclosure in No. 1.	31st August 1894. Van.	Vice-Consul Howard to Consul Graves.	Reporting murders near Moush officially attributed to Armenians.

- The object of the Précis (which should proceed not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative without marginal references) is to enable anyone who may not have time to read the original letters to grasp with ease all the leading features of what passed. The writer's aim should be: (a) to include all that is important in the Correspondence, omitting unimportant details; (b) to present a consecutive and readable narrative, expressed as distinctly as possible, and as briefly as is compatible with distinctness. The Précis should not exceed two pages or 300 words.

* Reprinted by permission of the Controller of His Majesty's Stationery Office, from the papers issued by the Civil Service Commission.

† These were extracted from a Parliamentary Paper (C. 7894—1895) containing some papers relating to the Asiatic Provinces of Turkey, and occupied about ten pages.

‡ For Arithmetic, Candidates were instructed to bring a flat rule divided into inches and tenths, and into centimetres and millimetres.

3. FRENCH (Obligatory).

Time allowed, 3 hours.

Translate into English:—

PAIMPOL.

Décret du 4 Mai, 1903.

Le Président de la République Française,
Sur le rapport du Ministre du commerce de l'industrie, des postes et des télégraphes ;

Vu le décret en date du 9 juin 1898, qui a autorisé la Chambre de commerce de Saint-Brieuc (Côtes-du-Nord) à contracter un emprunt de 360,343 fr. 70, en vue des travaux d'amélioration du port de Paimpol et qui a institué dans ce port des taxes de péages pour la garantie dudit emprunt ;

Vu le dossier de l'enquête à laquelle a été soumis le projet, et, notamment, l'avis de la commission d'enquête en date du 28 Mai 1902 ;

Le Conseil d'Etat entendu,

Décrète :

Art. 1<sup>er</sup>. Les conditions d'application des péages institués au port de Paimpol sont modifiées de la façon suivante :

Péages ayant pour base le tonneau de jauge nette légale des navires.

- 1<sup>o</sup>. Navires armés pour la grande pêche, à chacune de leurs entrées dans le port de Paimpol, 1 fr. par tonne de jauge ;
- 2<sup>o</sup>. Navires français et étrangers en provenance ou en destination de l'étranger, 40 centimes par tonne de jauge ;
- 3<sup>o</sup>. Navires faisant le cabotage entre ports français, 20 centimes par tonne de jauge.

Seront considérés comme entrés dans le port et soumis aux taxes les navires armés pour la grande pêche venant simplement aux mouillages ou échouages de la baie de Paimpol, dans la zone intérieure. Le cumul des péages ne pourra, d'ailleurs, pour lesdits navires, être supérieur annuellement à 3 francs par tonneau de jauge.

Seront exempts de tous droits ;

- 1<sup>o</sup>. Les navires appartenant à l'Etat et les marchandises ou objets quelconques appartenant à l'Etat ou destinés à son service en vertu de marchés réguliers.
- 2<sup>o</sup>. Les navires affectés au pilotage ou à la navigation de plaisance ;
- 3<sup>o</sup>. Les navires pratiquant la pêche côtière ;
- 4<sup>o</sup>. Les navires entrés sur lest et répartis sans avoir pris de chargement ;
- 5<sup>o</sup>. Les navires entrés en relâche à moins qu'ils ne se livrent à quelque opération de commerce ;
- 6<sup>o</sup>. Les navires caboteurs.

EXAGÉRATIONS DE L'INDIVIDUALISME.

L'individualisme suppose qu'en toutes choses, autant pour les intérêts collectifs que pour les intérêts privés, le jeu libre des forces individuelles a une pleine efficacité ; que la libre concurrence donne d'elle-même satisfaction à l'intérêt général puisqu'elle fait apparaître les supériorités industrielles ; qu'elle ouvre la voie au progrès dans l'intérêt de tous. La prétendue éclosion spontanée des organismes nécessaires au bon ordre de la société, sous la seule action des forces individuelles, ne pourrait s'expliquer que de deux manières, soit par l'hypothèse de Fourier, à savoir d'une attraction passionnée des hommes pour le bien général, soit plutôt encore par une confusion entre l'intérêt privé et l'intérêt collectif. De ce que l'intérêt privé est en général un excellent guide pour certaines fonctions sociales : agriculture, industrie, commerce, en sorte que chacun est ordinairement le meilleur juge de ce qui le concerne et peut faire le bien commun en faisant le sien propre, on n'en saurait conclure que l'initiative privée suffit à faire surgir toutes les combinaisons d'intérêt collectif. Il est de la logique de la puissance publique de réprimer la violence ; pour quoi, sinon parce que les individus en seraient incapables ? Si une loi d'expropriation pour cause d'utilité publique est nécessaire c'est parce que selon toute vraisemblance, les propriétaires ne céderaient pas spontanément leurs droits, même pour des œuvres indispensables au bien commun. L'intérêt privé a des visées étroites : moins un intérêt est direct, palpable, moins il a de prise sur les individus. On s'associera pour faire un pont, un canal, s'il y a un péage à percevoir ; on ne s'associera pas pour construire un phare. Il faut au commerce maritime des comptoirs, des points de relâche ; cependant la compagnie des Indes, malgré sa puissance, attendit que le gouvernement britannique les lui eût procurés. Le déboisement des montagnes menace les vallées d'inondations et d'ensablement : croit-on qu'il faille attendre la préservation de l'initiative privée ?

Now, what is the lesson these figures have left us ? We have long known that to be beaten in a naval war would be our destruction. And here we may see how victory itself, though very costly, and even as complete as is likely ever to be practicable, may still leave our commerce laden with a heavy burden. We see our war expenses eating up the whole value of our exported produce ; and no hostile fleet anywhere at sea ; and yet the additional cost of insuring our merchant ships against capture, or destruction by the enemy, amounting to three or four times as much as the ordinary marine risk. Then, as now, we were vitally dependent upon our commerce, and could maintain it only by enforcing, against all opposition, a free way for our ships at sea. But we are now much more so dependent. Great Britain then, at all events, grew within the ring-fence of her own coasts food enough to feed her own people. She is very far from doing so now. What we could not then avert, and what then threatened us with reduced wealth, would now threaten us with famine, and, that once realised, we could only submit. For the first time in history, a population of some forty millions would be reduced to the condition of a beleaguered and famished city. The proportion of our food for which we are annually and constantly dependent upon foreign supply, is now more than one-fourth. In wheat alone it is more than that, and it is steadily increasing ; and if every other description of food be included, it becomes obvious that severe distress could not be averted from a very large section of the population.

Les peuples les plus avancés en culture intellectuelle se trahissent, comme les savants trop enthousiastes et trop bavards font de leurs secrets de laboratoire les secrets de tout le monde ; ils se livrent, diminuent la distance qui les sépare de leurs concurrents à tous les degrés, détruisent eux-mêmes leur supériorité. Tout se nivelle, et l'ardeur commerciale, l'amour du gain, sont précisément les appâts qui livrent peu à peu le plus civilisé au plus sauvage et le font rentrer dans la condition moyenne. Voyez ce qui s'est passé en Europe et en Amérique depuis la fin du siècle dernier. Ici ce sont les Etats-Unis, le Canada, le Brésil, la République Argentine qui prennent à l'Europe ses habitudes, ses arts, sa civilisation et s'en rapprochent au point de la surpasser à l'occasion en génie économique ; là ce sont des peuples nés d'hier à l'industrie. Allemagne, Autriche-Hongrie, Russie, Espagne, Italie, etc., qui s'affaiblissent de l'antique supériorité de la Grande-Bretagne, de la Belgique et de la France et apprennent à se donner elles-mêmes la plupart des produits manufacturés que jusque-là elles achetaient. Voici l'Asie attaquée de toutes parts et gagnée à la civilisation occidentale dans ce qui peut être adopté à ses mœurs. Voici la locomotive russe à Samarkande. L'Afrique capitulera à son tour ; en tout cas sa politique d'échanges sera étroitement liée à celle de l'Europe, qui se l'est partagée.

Überrascht stand der junge Mann stille, als er aus dem rechten Holz durch eine Wendung des Weges auf einmal dem Schloß gegenüber stand. Die Bewohner des süßlichen Deutschlands sind von Jugend auf an Anblicke dieser Art gewöhnt. Die natürliche Beschaffenheit des Landes, die vielen Berge und kleinen Flüsse, überdies die eigentümliche Verfassung des zahlreichen Landadels begünstigten über längere Zeit zu diesen befestigten Wohnungen. Aber der Norden unseres Vaterlandes trägt weniger Spuren dieser alten Zeit; die weiten Ebenen boten keine so natürliche Befestigung wie die Felsen und Gebirgsausläufer des Südens, und hatte auch hier und dort eine solche Feste im platten Lande gestanden, so war sie nur desto schneller dem Verfall und der Zerstörung preisgegeben. Die Nachbarn teilten sich brüderlich in die theuren Steine, und ihr Gedächtnis verwehte der Wind, der über die Ebene hinstrich.

Darum war es dem jungen Mann aus der Mark ein so überraschender Anblick, sich in solcher Nähe einer dieser altertümlichen Burgen gegenüber zu sehen, um so überraschender, da er durch diese düsteren, tiefen Thore als Gast einzutreten, in jenem altertümlichen Gemäuer wohnen sollte. Doch bald erfüllte kein anderer Gedanke mehr als der malerische Anblick, der sich ihm darbot, seine Seele. Der alte schwärzlichgraue Wartturm war auf der Mittagsseite von oben bis in den Graben hinab mit einem Mantel von Eichen umhängt. Aus den Ritzen der Mauer sproßten Zweige und grüne Ranken, und um das Thor zog sich ein breites Rebengeländer, dessen zarte Blätter und Ähren sich mit sanfter Gewalt um die rostigen Angeln und Ketten der Zugbrücke geschlungen hatten.

Von den Verteidigern dieser schönen Abmachung ward rühmend verkündet, daß die Krone ihren prinzipiellen Standpunkt festgehalten und in Bezug auf die ungarische Kommandosprache keine Zugeständnisse gemacht habe. Dies ist insofern unrichtig, als man in der Bereitwilligkeit der Krone, nach zwei Jahren neuerlich Verhandlungen über die Kommandosprache zuzulassen, gewiß eine Art Anerkennung der Berechtigung dieser Forderung erblicken kann. Ganz abgesehen davon läßt sich aber nicht bestreiten, daß die Zurückstellung der von der Heeresleitung früher beanspruchten Kreite ein sehr bedeutendes Zugeständnis genannt werden muß. Im vorigen Jahre hatte man in den Delegationen alle Mittel der Bereitwilligkeit aufgeboten, um zu beweisen, wie unbedingt notwendig eine Erhöhung des Rekrutentontingents, die Ausgestaltung der Artillerie und Marine sei. Man hatte die anderen Staaten als Beispiel herangezogen, von der Gefährlichkeit der Weltlage gesprochen. Unter dem Druck dieser Bangsamkeit hatten die Delegationen die 450 Millionen Kronen bewilligt. Und jetzt? Jetzt erklärt man auf alle diese Erhöhungen verzichten zu können. Die Sache muß doch wohl so stehen, daß diese Kreite entweder unbedingt notwendig waren oder nicht; waren sie im vorigen Jahre nötig, so sind sie es noch jetzt. Waren sie nicht unbedingt dringlich, so hätte man den Delegationen das Dringlich nicht zumuten dürfen. Aber wie die Sache jetzt gemacht worden ist, sieht sie geradezu lächerlich aus. Man hat die ungarische Kommandosprache verweigert, weil man erklärte, ihre Einführung müsse die Schlagfertigkeit der Armee schädigen. Aber man gibt dem magyarischen Chauvinismus zuliebe die angeblich dringliche und unaufschiebbare Ausgestaltung der Artillerie und der Marine preis, läßt es also zu, daß das Heer rückständig bleibe. Auf der einen Seite will man die Schlagfertigkeit schonen, auf der anderen Seite läßt man die Armee durch den anhaltenden Mangel von Ausrüstung schwächen. Wo in diesem Vorgehen die Logik steckt, mag Herr v. Szögyeny feststellen.

MÜNCHENER NACHRICHTEN.

Translate into German:—

The administration of a joint stock association is, in the main, administration by hired servants. Even the committee, or board of directors, who are supposed to superintend the management, and who do really appoint and remove the managers, have no pecuniary interest in the good working of the concern beyond the shares they individually hold, which are always a very small part of the capital of the association, and in general but a small part of the fortunes of the directors themselves; and the part they take in the management usually divides their time with many other occupations, of as great or greater importance to their own interest; the business being the principal concern of no one except those who are hired to carry it on. But experience shows, and proverb, the expression of popular experience, attest, how inferior is the quality of hired servants compared with the ministrations of those personally interested in the work, and how indispensable, when hired service must be employed, is "the master's eye" to watch over it. The successful conduct of an industrial enterprise requires two quite distinct qualifications: fidelity and zeal. The fidelity of the hired managers of a concern it is possible to secure. But intensity of interest in the affairs of the concern can seldom be expected of any one who is conducting a business as a hired servant and for the profit of another.

Dieses Nord-Afrika bildet geradezu mit dem südlichen Europa eine und dieselbe botanische Provinz. Es theilt mit ihm die wichtigsten Laubbömer und Fruchtobstbäume, unter andern den nützlichen Ölbaum, die saftigen Citronen, Orangen und andere europäische Südpflanzen. Es ist auch noch ein Weinland, doch streicht die südliche Grenze des Weinstocks hart an der südlichen Grenze dieser Küstenlandschaften hin. Vor allen Dingen ist es auch noch ein dankbares Getreideland, und die Kornarten, welche hier vorzugsweise die Europäer nennen, finden auch hier so günstige Verhältnisse, daß Nord-Afrika zu Zeiten eine der vornehmsten Kornkammern unseres Welttheils gewesen ist. Theilte Nord-Afrika mit uns unsere Getreidearten, so konnte umgekehrt das tropische Zuckerrohr, die Baumwollensaute und die Dattel-Palme nach Spanien und Sicilien hinübergepflanzt werden, und an den Umpfen einiger Flüsse dieser Insel wuchert noch heutiges Tages die am Nil heimische Papyrus-Staube.

Wie mit der Vegetation, so ist es in gewissem Grade auch mit der Thierwelt. Manche Thiere und Vögel bewohnen den Nordsaum von Africa in gleicher Weise, wie die süßlichen Spigen Europas. Und dabei ist wohl zu bemerken, daß dieselben südwärts nicht über den Südrand dieser mittelländischen Küstenlandschaften Africas hinaus flattern und wandern. Daß wir Europäer jährlich viele zwitschernde Wanderzüge von Singvögeln und auch die uns so heimathlichen Störche mit Nord-Africa austauschen ist allbekannt und ebenso, daß eine Colonie Afrikanischer Affen auf dem selben von Gibraltar angeliefert ist, sowie daß — in alten Zeiten wenigstens — zuweilen der Afrikanische Löwe in Europa hinein brüllte, wo ihn in Griechenland die Keule des Herkules traf.

Gonzalo riendo picó la yegua. Pensaba ahora en seguir hasta Valverde, pero al atravesar el camino de Corinde, paróse, notando en el fondo, para el lado de Corinde, como la confusa silueta de una carrada de leña, «le una mujer de pañuelo encarnado braceando sobre la albarda de un burro, y de dos labradores de azada á los hombros. Y, de repente, todo se destacó: la mujer trotando en su burro, luego sumida en una vuelta del arbolado; el carro balanceándose en un leve torbellino de polvo y avanzando hacia la Cruz de las Animas; los cavadores descendiendo para una tierra á través de las pilas de heno. . . En la carretera quedó solo, como desamparado, un hombre de chaqueta al hombro, que se arrastraba penosamente, cojeando. Gonzalo trotó con curiosidad:

—¿Qué fué? . . . Usted ¿qué tiene?

El hombre, con la pierna encogida, levantó para Gonzalo un semblante melancólico, casi desmayado, que relucía bajo las gotas de sudor.

—¿Qué ha de ser, caballero? ¡Desgracias de la vida!

Y, gimiendo, contó que desde hacía meses padecía de una laga en un tobillo, que no secura ni con emplastos, ni con polvos, ni con bendiciones. . . Y ahora andaba en busca de faena para ayudar á un compadre, también enfermo con calenturas, y, zás, ciéase un pedrusco que «choca con la herida, levanta la carne, hiere el hueso, y lo deja hecho una lástima! . . . Hasta rasgara la camisa para enjugar la herida y amarrar por encima el pañuelo.

—Pero así no puede andar, hombre. Y entonces, «le toda esa gente que estaba ahí hace rato, ¿nadie le ayudó? . . . Un carro, dos hombres. . .

Una tremenda punzada, en el temeroso esfuerzo de apoyar la pierna, arrancó un grito al interpedido. Pero sonrió, doliéndose. . . ¿Qué quería el caballero? Cada uno en este mundo tiene su prisa. . . Al fin, la rapaza del burro prometió pasar por Finta para avisar, y tal vez uno de sus pequeños se presentara en el camino con una yegua que compró por Pascua, y que, por desgracia también cojeaba. . .

Los gastos de la arribada forzosa de un buque serán siempre de cuenta del naviero ó flotante; pero éstos no serán responsables de los perjuicios que puedan seguirse á los cargadores por consecuencia de la arribada, siempre que ésta hubiere sido legítima.

En caso contrario serán responsables mancomunadamente el naviero y el capitán.

Si para hacer reparaciones en el buque, ó porque hubiere peligro de que la carga sufriende avería, fuese necesario proceder á la descarga, el capitán deberá pedir al Juez ó Tribunal competente autorización para el alijo, y llevarlo á cabo con conocimiento del interesado, ó representante de la carga si lo hubiere.

En puerto extranjero, corresponderá dar la autorización al consul español donde le haya.

Las pérdidas y desmejoras que sufran el buque y su cargamento á consecuencia de naufragio ó encalladura, serán individualmente de cuenta de los dueños, perteneciéndoles en la misma proporción los restos que se salven.

Si, navegando varios buques en conserva, naufragare alguno de ellos, la carga salvada se repartirá entre los demás en proporción á lo que cada uno pueda recibir.

Si algun capitán se negase sin justa causa á recibir lo que le corresponda, el capitán náufrago protestará contra él, ante dos oficiales de mar, los daños y perjuicios que de ello se sigan, ratificando la protesta dentro de las veinticuatro horas de la llegada al primer puerto, é incluyéndola en el expediente que debe instruir con arreglo á lo prevenido.

El capitán que hubiere recogido los efectos salvados del naufragio, continuará su rumbo al puerto de su destino, y, en llegando, los depositará, con intervención judicial, á disposición de sus legítimos dueños.

En el caso de variar de rumbo, si pudiese descargar en el puerto á que iban consignados, el capitán podrá arribar á él si lo consintieren los cargadores ó sobrecargos presentes y los oficiales y pasajeros del buque; pero no lo podrá verificar, aun con este consentimiento en tiempo de guerra ó cuando el puerto sea de acceso difícil y peligroso.

An earnest effort has recently been made by the representative of a New York firm of export merchants to introduce American goods into Turkey, and this effort has met with considerable success. The representative referred to visited Constantinople with his samples. He remained two or three months and disposed of something like $40,000 worth of American goods. He then came to Smyrna with his samples and rented a room. He displayed to the merchants certain kinds of cotton goods, to wit, calicoes, prints, sheetings, &c.; hardware, tools, files, locks, knobs, razors, knives, padlocks; leather, lambskins, goatskins, toys, &c. He made arrangements with Avedikian Frères, of Smyrna, to handle his goods, and through them sold from sample some $25,000 worth of American merchandise. The representative remained here but four weeks, but in that time he paved the way for large future business, and was the means of introducing many new classes of American goods. I learn from him that the chief obstacle in the way of developing American trade is German competition. He declares that in many instances the Germans, to gain business, dispose of large quantities of goods at simple cost price and give low credits. More than this, they make articles which are specially adapted to this market. Their goods have an attractive appearance, but are of inferior construction and quality.

I learn further that Americans seem to be unable to meet English competition in cotton prints (an article of great importance in this country). The English goods are cheaper and conform to the requirements of this market. Local merchants say that cotton prints should be twenty-eight inches in width, the cheaper qualities twenty-six to twenty-seven inches, and the better qualities twenty-eight to twenty-nine inches. The designs should be devoid of figures of living things; those of men, women, horses, dogs, or birds, being specially objectionable. Flowers and vines are liked, in bright, gaudy colours, specially red and yellow, or blue and green. In case American manufacturers desire samples for the purpose of studying the designs, quality, colours, widths, &c., used, I shall be glad to forward them.

SPANISH DICTATION.

En Mujer en los Estados Unidos.

En la mayor parte de las comarcas de Europa, en Francia, en Bélgica, en la Gran Bretaña, 30 por 100 de los trabajadores son mujeres. En la Unión Americana, esta cifra se reduce á la mitad. Mientras que en Francia y en Bélgica, donde la mujer está privada de todos sus derechos, el tercio del mundo trabajador se compone de mujeres, en los Estados Unidos, tierra de emancipación, la parte del trabajo femenino es sólo de un sexto. Es, pues, absurdo y falso pretender que, concediendo á la mujer un lugar más importante en la familia y la sociedad, se apartaría al sexo femenino de su misión social, pues la estadística confirma el juicio de los observadores imparciales; no hay país en lo superficial del mundo donde los deberes de la esposa y de la madre sean mejor comprendidos y cumplidos que en los Estados Unidos.

Las mujeres americanas trabajan en todos los ramos de la industria. La del vestido les está casi enteramente reservada. En contra de los terrores fantásticos de ciertos adversarios de las mujeres, el movimiento emancipador no ha tenido por efecto la ruina de la industria de la confección.

Mientras que los hombres de América no han pensado nunca en hacer á las mujeres una competencia desleal en el terreno de las ocupaciones especialmente apropiadas al sexo femenino, no han temido, por otra parte, abrir á las mujeres el acceso á todas las carreras comerciales, á las profesiones liberales y hasta á ciertas funciones públicas. Nada es más interesante, en efecto, que comparar las estadísticas de 1870 y de 1890, para hacerse cargo de los progresos sorprendentes de la evolución femenina en el espacio de veinte años.

6. MERCANTILE LAW (Obligatory).

Time allowed, 3 hours.

1. Give instances of some of the most important duties and powers which the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, imposes on or gives to "consular officers" with respect to shipping.
2. What are the statutory rules that govern the engagement of seamen on British ships?
3. What is a negotiable instrument? Which of the following documents are negotiable instruments: an I.O.U., a half-note, a bill of lading, circular notes, a debenture bond payable to bearer?
4. D, a broker, has in his possession negotiable securities belonging to a client, E; D, without the authority of E, pledges the securities with the G bank to secure an advance to himself. The bank did not know and did not enquire whether the securities belonged to E, or any other person, or whether D had any authority to deal with them or not. What rights has E against the bank?
5. When is it necessary that a bill should be "protested"? How, when, where, and by whom should a protest be made?
6. H delivers goods to a railway company to be carried to M; H had previously signed a "risk-note" relieving the company "from all liability for loss or damage by delay in transit or from whatever cause arising," and the company charged a rate lower than the one demanded when no such note was signed. The company accepted the goods, but from pressure of business could not carry them in time for the market for which the goods were intended and H suffered loss in consequence. Has H any remedy against the company?
7. Discuss the duties of carriers by land and by sea respectively with regard to the delivery of goods entrusted to them.

8. What persons may execute a valid policy of insurance on a ship? What perils are covered by the usual form of policy? In what cases is the insured entitled to a return of the premium paid?
9. What is the right of stoppage in transitu? When does it arise, and how may it be defeated?
10. What are the peculiar characteristics of Bottomry and Respondentia contracts? How do they differ from one another?

7. COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY. (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, 2½ hours.

Answer FIVE questions and no more. All the questions carry equal marks. Credit will be given for sketch-maps illustrating any of the answers.

1. What is meant by entrepôt trade, and what are the circumstances that favour such trade in the United Kingdom? Can you suggest any explanation of the fact that Belfast exports directly to foreign countries or the colonies raw cotton to a much greater value than that of its direct exports of all articles of Irish produce put together?
2. Compare Argentina and the North-West of Canada in respect of the conditions that favour (a) the production and (b) the export of wheat.
3. Describe and explain, as fully as you can, the characteristics of the climate of South Africa. Point out any analogies you know of in any other parts of the world.
4. Compare the Amazon, the Mississippi, and the Yangtse-kiang as waterways, and as regards the circumstances affecting (a) the volume and (b) the value of the traffic carried on upon each.
5. Give a brief account of the physical features, climate and commercial products of New Zealand. Mention and explain any notable feature of the trade of that colony that has grown up within the last twenty years.
6. Describe the plains of northern India as regards climate, natural drainage, and distribution of population, and indicate how these things are interconnected. Name the two chief seaports of those plains, and state their situation as precisely as you can.
7. Switzerland imports large quantities of wheat from Russia, the United States, and the Argentine Republic, and exports large quantities of manufactured articles to the United Kingdom and some to Russia. State by what routes you think these commodities are likely to be received or despatched in the trade with the countries named, and give your reasons.
8. Give a brief description of the distribution of the more important economic minerals between the Upper Mississippi (north of the confluence of the Ohio) and the eastern seaboard of North America.

8. POLITICAL ECONOMY. (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, 2½ hours.

Not more than SEVEN questions to be attempted.

1. Describe some of the recent developments in the organisation of industry. What is meant by "standardisation"? What are its advantages? State some of the difficulties in the way of its more general adoption.
2. It has been said that the railway principle of "charging what the traffic will bear," instead of being an exception to the general rule that prices and rates follow cost of production, tends more and more, as businesses are consolidated, to supersede it.

Comment upon this statement; and give illustrations showing the way in which each of these considerations is effective in determining rates and prices.

3. What are the principal circumstances which have to be taken into account in an attempt to compare real wages in different countries and at different times? Illustrate your answer, if possible, by reference to actual cases.
4. In making a comparative estimate of the relative wealth and economic resources of two countries, would you make any, and if so, what distinction between different kinds of wealth other than those indicated by market value?
5. Describe the regulations determining the mintage and currency of gold coins in this country. Why does the price of bar gold fluctuate, and within what limits?
- 6 Explain the meaning and importance of the Discount Rate. Show its relation to the great markets, and the Foreign Exchanges.

7. Explain the principal elements which go to make up the balance of international indebtedness, making special reference to the "invisible exports" of Great Britain.

Consider the effect on this balance of (a) foreign travel, (b) life and other insurance in foreign companies.

8. Consider the practical difficulties in the way of the maintenance of a great industrial or commercial combination.
  9. What are the main considerations, theoretical and practical, which require to be taken into account in determining the selection of commodities for taxation, and the method and amount of the tax?
- Illustrate your answer, if you can, by reference to actual cases.
10. Consider the various ways in which the Transport and Tariff policies of a country may be related, when both are under the control of the State.

TRADE REPORTS.

* REPORTS Nos. 4,178 to 4,392, inclusive, of the ANNUAL SERIES, by His Majesty's Representatives and Consular Officers abroad, and Nos. 672 to 677 of the MISCELLANEOUS SERIES, were laid before Parliament during 1909.

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH DOMINIONS.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR PRESERVING THE PRIVILEGES OF AMBASSADORS AND OTHER PUBLIC MINISTERS OF FOREIGN PRINCES AND STATES.*

(7 Ann. cap. 12, 1708.)

[In force January 1, 1910.]

Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly persons having in a most outrageous manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matueof, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesties good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him in custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorised and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable.

[Ss. 1, 2, repealed 30 and 31 Vict. c. 59.]

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorised and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick, or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

*Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing such Process.
Punishment.*

4. And . . . . in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and solicitors prosecuting and soliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or process, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said †] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trader.

5. [‡ Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

7. . . . . all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and other officers and ministers of justice, concerned in the execution of process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their peril.

* Extracted from The Statutes Second Revised Edition, 1888. (Inserted by permission of H.M. Stationery Office.)
† Interlined on the roll. ‡ Annexed to the original Act in two separate schedules.

ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

ACCOUNT BOOKS,

Made of the best description of Paper, well Ruled and Printed, and the MATERIALS USED FOR BINDING ARE OF SUPERIOR QUALITY.

ESPECIALLY THE RUSSIA, CALF, AND VELLUM.

All best Books are made with patent flexible backs, and warranted to open perfectly flat, without danger of the joints or sections giving way.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING ACCOUNT BOOKS.

The Size of Paper may be given in inches.

Description of Paper—Blue Laid Hand-made is always used, unless instructions are given to the contrary.

Thickness of Book—The number of Pages should be given; two pages constitute a leaf or folio, and two leaves or folios or four pages form a sheet.

Pattern for Ruling—Patterns of ordinary Rulings are on next page; if any other be required, a whole sheet should be sent.

Description of Binding—Russia, Calf, Vellum, with single or double Russia Bands, Basil, Forril, half Russia, half Calf, half Vellum, half Basil, with cloth or paper sides.

Lettering—If on Back or Side, or both.

Indexes—Ruled blue lines, unless a pattern for the Ruling be sent, are bound up with the Book, if not ordered in a separate binding. The number of leaves to each letter should be stated.

Paging or Folioing—Care should be taken to state distinctly whether the Book is to be paged or folioed; if paged, the numbers run consecutively, thus: (1) (2); if folioed, both pages in the opening have the same number, thus: 1) (1).

PATTERNS OF ORDINARY RULINGS.

SINGLE LEDGER.

ALL BOOKS ARE RULED BLUE LINES ACROSS UNLESS ORDERED OTHERWISE.

These compact and convenient Inkstands will be found very suitable for the pocket or travelling bag. Their construction secures them from leakage and from the liability to upset when in use.

Directions for Opening and Shutting the Framed Inkstands.

Push the ink case at the part marked "Push" and, when raised to a right angle with the frame, slide it to the centre. In sliding the ink case back into the frame, apply the pressure at the lowest part, and it will be found to move along the groove quite easily.

THE "REESDALE" EXPANDING ALBUM.

This is a new departure in loose-leaf Albums, the improvement consisting of the ease and quickness with which the book can be fastened or unfastened.

One Half-turn of the button does it.

One leaf, or any number of leaves, can be at once removed for the purpose of mounting or re-arranging, and as quickly replaced. The cover expands, and will hold tightly more or fewer leaves as may be desired.

The action is simplicity itself: one half-turn of the button opens it, one half-turn of the button closes it. The button is flush with the cover; there are no projecting parts anywhere.

THE POPULAR FILE.

A tough A B C Case, bound in green cloth, with green Manilla sides. It has a strong web strap and buckle, and a loop at the back for convenience in removing from shelf. The stiff cover projects above and below, and thus protects the gussets from wear. A dozen of these files will hold a year's invoices, letters, &c., in the most accessible manner possible, so that any document may be found at once.

This is the most simple method of storing papers. Notwithstanding their low price, the Files are very strong, and will last for years. A complete set of labels is supplied with each File. They are made in four sizes, with 21 pockets, indexed A to Z.

THE “MAGPIE” FILE.

A File that will always remain tightly closed whether full or empty.

A strong, handsome A B C Expanding File, with flap and adjustable strap fastening, made in a pretty shade of dark grey art vellum cloth, with cloth gussets. The partitions are lettered in a vivid white on a black ground, and catch the eye at once. The adjustable strap is fastened and unfastened in a second; it is simple and strong, and cannot get out of order. This File is on the same principle as the well-known “Popular” File, but is of a more permanent nature. The flap, combined with the adjustable strap (which is practically automatic), effectually prevents dust reaching the papers. A complete set of labels is supplied with each file, width of back, 4 inches.

THE "PHŒNIX" VERTICAL FILE.

THE "PHŒNIX" FILE is made in the form of a box, covered with art canvas, making an exceptionally strong article of light weight and attractive appearance. The flange at the head of the lid is made of sheet iron, giving strength and firmness at the part that receives the greatest strain; it also serves to keep out the dust. The leather fittings are made of Morocco leather, and the catch or fastener is instantaneous in operation, and is perfectly secure when closed. Sheets of lithographed labels (double gummed) containing all titles usually required, together with letters of the alphabet in capitals and small type, etc., are enclosed in each file. Sheets of numerals can also be supplied at an extra charge of twopence per sheet, or one shilling per dozen sheets.

The "Onoto" Patent Self-Filling Pen.

With Shut-off Valve so that the Pen can be carried in any position without fear of leakage.

N "ONOTO" (FULL SIZE) PRICE 10/6

DESCRIPTION OF THE MECHANISM.

Fig. I.

THE SHUT-OFF AND REGULATING VALVE is formed by the vulcanite rod which runs the whole length of the pen, and is terminated at one end by the head H, and at the other end by the plug P. When the head H is screwed home on the shoulder in the pen-carrier P, and consequently closes the ink and air ducts of the feed. In this condition the body is hermetically sealed, and the pen may be carried in any position without fear of leakage.

Upon unscrewing the head slightly, the plug S is withdrawn, and ink is allowed to flow to the feed. The more the head is unscrewed the wider is the regulating valve opened. It will be found that by only very slightly opening the valve the flow of ink will be so small as to almost instantaneously dry on the paper; whereas if the head be unscrewed a turn and a half, the flow will be as full as that obtained with the common steel nib and ink-well.

THE SELF-FILLING ARRANGEMENT.

In Fig. I., M is a collapsible leather sucker mounted on the rod of the shut-off valve, near the lower end of the body. In its normal position, when the pen is in use for writing, this sucker occupies an enlarged recess in the body, and ink and air are consequently able to flow past it.

If the pen be empty, and the head H be unscrewed till it is clear of the body, it may be drawn back as shown in Fig. II., the sucker collapsing on the back-stroke, and allowing air and any little ink remaining in the upper end of the body to pass it.

Fig. II.

On pressing the head forward again, the leather sucker acts after the manner of a bicycle pump, and drives the air contained in the holder before it. Since the upper end of the pen is air-tight, it follows that a vacuum will be left behind the sucker, and this will be maintained till the end of the stroke is reached, when the sucker will enter the enlarged recess P, and the vacuum will be suddenly released, causing the fluid immediately surrounding the end of the pen-carrier to rush in and fill the empty space. If this operation, of pushing home the head, be carried out while the pen-carrier is dipping in ink, it follows that the pen will be filled.

The sucker M is made by mounting a leather washer on a vulcanite shank. Since the completeness of the vacuum, and hence the efficiency of the self-filling arrangement, depend upon the proper action of such sucker, it is desirable that a ready means be available for replacing it, should it show any tendency to fail in its action. Spare suckers, with instructions for fitting, are sent out with each pen.

Whereas the Shut-off, Regulating, and Self-filling arrangement are operated by a single piece of mechanism, the action of filling the pen is of the simplest character. The head is pressed home, and the pen fills itself.

PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH OPEN.

HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH

Is the latest device introduced for the instantaneous fac-simile reproduction of any Circular, Writing, Drawing or Music in Black Ink. It is the most recently improved form of Copying Apparatus by means of Composition, and its perfected character is now such as to constitute it a genuine marvel of its kind.

Outwardly it looks like a book, and could be placed with bound volumes upon the library shelf. It consists of two plates, which are movable, and should be used alternately. After the necessary number of copies (which are as sharp and clear as lithography) have been taken, the Ink remaining on the plate is not washed off; but after the lapse of a few hours will have disappeared by evaporation, and the plate will again resume its clear appearance. The Directions for Use are placed under the Composition (which is transparent); they are therefore always readable and immediately under the Operator's eye.

These Baths stand on what was formerly part of the grounds of the celebrated Northumberland House. They occupied nearly three years in building, and involved an expenditure of £30,000. They comprise a large suite of Bath Rooms, having a floor space of about twelve thousand feet, with a smaller suite in a separate but adjacent building for the exclusive use of Ladies; the Cooling Rooms, which are fitted in a most luxurious manner, are surmounted by a lofty dome specially designed to permit free circulation of air, and to ensure perfect ventilation; while the heating and ventilation of the hot chambers have been brought to a state of perfection by a system first introduced by the Proprietors of these Baths, and the whole of the decorations of both Hot and Cooling Rooms have been designed by the most eminent authorities.
